MONMOUTHSHIRE MILITIA.

Usk, September 19, 1825.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Annual General Meeting of Lieutenantcy for the county of Monmouth, will be held, at the Beaufort Arms Inn, in the town of Monmouth, on Tuesday the 4th day of October next, at twelve o'clock at noon (being the last Tuesday preceding the 10th of the same month), pursuant to the directions of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the forty-second year of His late Majesty's reign, intitled, "An Act for amending the laws relating to the Militia in England, and for augmenting the Militia," to issue precepts for returning lists of persons liable to serve in the Militia and other purposes.

By order of the Lord Lieutenant,

Alva Jones, Clerk of the General Meetings.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill in order to obtain an Act for making and maintaining an inclined plane, tram-road, or railway, with all proper works and conveniences, for the passage of waggons, carts, and other carriages, properly constructed, from or from near a place called Aberdulais, in the parish of Cadoxton juxta Neath, in the county of Glamorgan, to a certain farm called Cwm Dylais, in the said parish, and passing through the parish of Cadoxton juxta Neath aforesaid, and the hamlets or districts of Blaenhoddan, Lower Dylais, and Higher Dylais, all in the same parish, and through part of the parish of Killybebbil, in the said county of Glamorgan.

Bicknell, Roberts, and Blewitt, No. 6, Lincoln's inn, London.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a bill for constructing a pier or breakwater, and forming a harbour in Portland Roads; for the reception, shelter, and security of His Majesty's ship of the line, and all other vessels, by erecting the said pier or breakwater, from or near the north east end of the peninsula or island usually called Portland Island, within the parish and manor of Portland, in the county of Dorset, and also for constructing, forming, and making piers and docks along the shores of the said island, for the convenience of shipping off the stone and other materials to be used in the construction of the said breakwater, and for erecting houses and stores in and upon the said island for the use of the persons employed in and about the said work, and for making and maintaining inclined planes or railways, with all proper works and conveniences, for the passage of waggons, carts, and other carriages, from and to the said piers, to or from any part or parts of the said island, all which said piers, docks, houses, stores, inclined planes or railways, will be severally situate in the said parish and manor of Portland, in the county aforesaid; and for levying rates and duties upon ships and vessels resorting to, using, or passing by the said pier or breakwater, for the constructing and maintaining the same, and carrying into execution the purposes of the Act.

Alex. Lamb, Princes-street, Bank, London.
