

the first magnitude, producing a bright flash of light at every 12 seconds of time, without those intervals of total darkness which characterise other revolving lights upon the coast.

The light will be from oil, with reflectors, elevated 150 feet above the medium level of the sea. In clear weather it will be visible at the distance of 6 leagues, and intermediately according to the state of the atmosphere. The lantern is open toward Laggan Bay, within Loch-Indaal, and seaward from the Mull of Kinboeg-Tanvorehead.

By order of the Commissioners of the Northern Light-houses, C. Cunningham, Secretary.
Edinburgh, 10th October 1825.

In obedience to an order of the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen, dated the 8th of November 1825, made in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled "An Act for widening and improving the entrance into the City of London near Temple-bar, for making a more commodious street or passage at Snow-hill, and for raising, on the credit of the Orphan's Fund, a sum of money for those purposes;" and of a certain other Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifty-second year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intitled "An Act for increasing the fund for watching, lighting, cleansing, watering, and repairing Blackfriars-bridge;" I do hereby give notice, that between the hours of ten in the forenoon and two in the afternoon, on the 8th day of May next ensuing, at my Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, in Guildhall, London, the principal sums of money, together with all interest due on the said 8th day of May next ensuing, upon the under-mentioned bonds, being part of the sum of £100,000, raised by the authority of the aforesaid Act of the thirty-fifth of George the Third, under the common seal of this city, and made payable to John Wilkes, Esq. his executors, administrators, or assigns (by indorsement), will then be paid off, at my said Office at Guildhall, to the several and respective person or persons respectively entitled to receive the same; and that from thenceforth the interest on the said bonds will cease and determine. And, in further obedience to the said order, I do hereby give notice, that if the said several persons respectively entitled to the said bonds, or any of them, shall be minded to be paid the said several principal sums, with such interest as may become due in respect thereof, at any time previous to the said 8th day of May, and will severally declare such their intention, in writing under their hands, and deliver such declaration at my said Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, between the hours of ten in the morning and two in the afternoon, ten days previously to the day on which they, or any of them, shall elect to receive the same (the usual holidays of the said Office excepted), I will, on the day expressed in such declaration, at my said Office, pay to the several persons the principal sums respectively due to them in discharge of the said bonds, together with all interest as shall on the day specified in such declaration for the payment thereof have become due thereon; and which interest or annuity will, upon the said day expressed in such declaration for payment, cease and determine, viz.

One hundred and sixty-four bonds, of one hundred pounds each, numbered 69 to 232, both inclusive.

Richard Clark, Chamberlain.
Guildhall, November 11, 1825.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session thereof, for leave to bring in a Bill for obtaining powers to widen and improve the streets called Holborn-hill, Holborn-bridge, Snow-hill, and Cow-lane otherwise called King-street, on the north and west sides thereof from Union-court on Holborn-hill to John's-court near Cow-lane both inclusive; and to form a new street, to commence at Holborn-bridge opposite to the north end of the present Fleet-market, so as to continue the street called Fleet-market northward to the Sessions-house for the county of Middlesex on Clerkenwell-green; and to widen the present communication between Turnmill-street and Clerkenwell-green, at the south side of the said Sessions-house to the north-west corner of Red Lion-street inclusive: also to form another new street, to commence at Snow-hill, to run northward into Turnmill-street at or near the junction of Turnmill-street with Cow-cross-street: also to widen Turnmill-street through the whole extent thereof on both sides, so as to make an improved communication between the west end of Cow-cross-street and the said Sessions-house: also to stop up the passage or way through Field-lane and to pull down the houses on both sides thereof, and to form a new street to commence from or near the centre of Field-lane, to run into and join Great Saffron-hill at or near Caroline-court: also to widen Charles-street, Hatton-garden, on both sides thereof from Bleeding-heart-yard to Saffron-hill, and to make a carriage road or street, or continuation of Charles-street, from the east end of Charles-street aforesaid to Cow-cross-street, so as to form a carriage communication between Hatton-garden and Cow-cross-street: also to form a new street from the end of Cross-street, Hatton-garden, to Turnmill-street: also to form a new street from Hatton-wall to the said Sessions-house: also to form a new street from the said last-mentioned new street into the before-mentioned continuation of Charles-street to Cow-cross-street: also to widen and vary the direction of Chick-lane or West-street, so as to improve the communication of the same with West-smithfield; also to divert, alter, widen and improve such parts of the present streets, lanes, courts, alleys, and passages as will form entrances into the said intended new streets, or any of them; and to make other such new streets, ways, and passages as may be necessary to connect the said intended new streets or improved streets with each other, or otherwise improve the same; and also to make common and public slaughter-
