

courts, yards, entrances, ways, and passages so intended to be stopped up, diverted, altered, widened and improved for the purposes of the said intended Act, are situate within the parish of Saint Clement Danes, in the county of Middlesex.—November 5, 1825. Septimius Burton, 11, Lincoln's-Inn.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a bill for vesting an estate called the Pedlars Acre Estate, situate in the parish of Saint Mary, Lambeth, in the county of Surrey, in trustees for managing and letting the same, and for applying the produce thereof according to the directions of vestry meetings of the said parish, and for establishing the existing leases, and to enable the trustees to grant building and other leases thereof, and for other purposes relating thereto.—Dated this 10th day of November 1825

Wm. Wood, Solicitor, Richmond-buildings, Soho.

Louth Navigation.

NOTICE is hereby given, that an application is intended to be made to Parliament, during the next session, for an Act to confirm a certain agreement entered into between the Commissioners appointed by virtue of an Act of Parliament, made in the third year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the third, intituled "An Act for making a navigation from the river Humber, by a canal or cut at or near Tetney Haven, to the river Ludd, in the parish of Alvingham, in the county of Lincoln, and for continuing the said navigation in or near the said river from thence to or near the town of Louth, in the said county," and Charles Chaplin, Esq. now deceased, and which agreement bears date the 27th day of October 1777, and is duly entered in the books kept for recording the proceedings of the said Commissioners, and by which agreement it was, for the consideration therein mentioned, agreed that the tolls arising from the said navigation should (subject to the orders of the said Commissioners), be assigned to and vested in the said Charles Chaplin, his heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns for a term of ninety-nine years, from the 24th day of June then last, and for vesting the said tolls in Francis Chaplin, Esq. and George Chaplin, Esq. being the persons now beneficially claiming under the the said agreement for the remainder of the said term of ninety-nine years.

Alex. Macdougall, Solicitor for the said Francis Chaplin and George Chaplin, Parliament-street.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the next Session, for an Act for the better paving, lighting, (by gas or otherwise), cleansing, watering, watching, repairing, extending, and widening of the several highways, roads, streets, lanes, markets, passages, and places within and for the general improvement of the parish of Saint John within the borough of Southwark, in the county of Surrey, and for the removal and future prevention of nuisances, encroachments, obstructions, and annoyances within the same, and for vesting the sole management and control thereof in Commissioners or persons to be appointed by the parishioners of the said parish; and that it is intended to obtain power for the raising of money for the several purposes of such Act, by rates or assessments upon the proprietors and occupiers of premises within the limits of the said Act, or by some other means to be provided by such Act; and also that it is intended to repeal, or to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of the several Acts hereinafter mentioned, (or of some of them), that is to say,—an Act passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the third, intituled "An Act for paving the streets and lanes within the town and borough of Southwark and certain parts adjacent, in the county of Surrey, and for cleansing, lighting, and watching the same, and the courts, yards, alleys, and passages adjoining thereto, and for preventing annoyances therein;" an Act passed in the eleventh year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to explain and amend so much of an Act of the sixth year of His present Majesty, for paving the town and borough of Southwark, in the county of Surrey, as relates to the Commissioners of sewers, and for regulating the manner of taxing churches and other public buildings within the limits of the said Act"; also another Act passed in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act for enabling the Commissioners for putting in execution an Act made in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, for paving the streets and lanes within the town and borough of Southwark, and certain parts adjacent, in the county of Surrey, and for cleansing, lighting, and watching the same, and also the courts, yards, alleys, and passages, adjoining thereto, and for preventing annoyances therein, to open, widen, and better regulate the several streets, lanes, and passages within the east division, in the said Act described," so far as relates to the said parish of Saint John Southwark, or as may be necessary for the purposes of the said intended Act.—November 12, 1825.

Beriah and George Drew, Solicitors, Bermondsey-street.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill in order to obtain an Act of Parliament giving powers to form a new street, so as to continue Pall-Mall-East, eastward from the King's-Mews as far as Saint Martin's Church, and to widen the communication between Cockspur-street and Craven-street, between the south front of the Union-Club-House in Cockspur-street and the north side of the Strand opposite Craven-street; also to form streets on the north and south sides of Saint Martin's Church till they intersect the Strand, nearly opposite the north end of Villiers-street; also to widen Saint Martin's-lane on the east and west sides thereof, south of Hemmings-row and Chandos-street; and also to form a square or open space opposite Charing-Cross, which said square or open space is to have the Union-Club-House for its boundary to the west, and the west side of St.