FIVE GUINEAS REWARD.

IN the year 1770, a Commission of Bankrupt issued against John Vining, Heron, formerly of Portsmouth, in the County of Hants, Woollen-Draper, under which Commission Jeremiah Telling, then of Chichester, Coachmaster, John Tipper, of the same place, Coal and Timber-Merchant, Christopher Corral, of Lombard-Street, London, Laceman, and Thomas Dunn, of Ironmonger-Lane, London, Linen-Draper, were appointed Assignees, and one Mr. Mainwaring, then of Bartlett's-Buildings, Holborn, London, was the Attorney; the proceedings under the said Commission are now wanted, and the above reward will be paid to any person who can produce them to Messrs. Rhodes and Son, Solicitors, Chichester; or to Messrs. Holme, Frampton, and Loftus, New-Inn, London; or give such information as may lead to their being found.—And any information of the time when and place were, Mr. Dunn, one of the Assignees, died, will be thankfully received, and, if required, a gratuity will be paid for the same.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts against the Estate of William Lloyd, late of Broseley, in the County of Salop, Barge-Owner, deceased, in a Cause depending in the High Court of Chancery, in which Valentine Vickers and John Pritchard are Plaintiffs, and Francis Stod and Edward Lloyd are Defendants; and all other the Creditors, if any, of the said William Lloyd, are requested to meet on Monday the 16th day of January next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the Lion Inn, in Broseley aforesaid; when and where a statement of the affairs late of the said William Lloyd will be laid before them, and a dividend of his estate and effects will be declared. All persons whose Debts or claims shall not then be substantiated will be excluded the benefit of the said dividend.

WEST BROMWICH, STAFFORDSHIRE.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause intitled Jervoise against Clarke, with the approbation of William Wingfield,

Esq., one of the Masters of the said Court, in or about the month of February next;

A valuable farm and lands, in the Parish of West Bromwich, in the County of Stafford, containing 28 acres, or thereabouts, and known by the name of the Swan Farm, together with the valuable mines and minerals under the same.

This estate is situate about six miles from the Town of Birmingham, on the turnpike-road leading to Dudley, and a branch of the Birmingham Canal joins the estate.

The particulars will be published shortly, and may then be had at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery Lane, London; of Messrs. Le Blanc, Oliver, and Cook, New Bridge-Street; Messrs. Hicks and Brackenridge, Bartlett's-Buildings, Holborn; and Mr. Phillips, Norfolk-Street, Strand London; Mr. Halford, West Bromwich; and Mr. Fowler, Surveyor, High-Street, Birmingham; and at other places, of which, together with the day and place of sale, notice will be given in future advertisements.

TO be peremptorily resold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in the Cause Casamajor v. Strode, with the approbation of James William Farrer, Esq., one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Eagle Inn, in Cambridge, on Saturday the 14th day of January next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, in several lots;

Certain closes or parcels of arable meadow and pasture land, containing together fifty-seven acres and upwards, situate at Rampton, in the said County of Cambridge.

The lands may be viewed on application to Messrs. Pemberton, Fiske and Hayward, Solicitors, Cambridge.
