

from the said Assignees paying in full, the rent or taxes, due or owing for or in respect of any premises in the occupation of the said Bankrupt, and to the said Assignees abandoning any agreement or agreements for hire of such premises, if they shall deem it expedient so to do; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees, empowering some person or persons, to collect and receive the debts due, and to become due to the said estate, with or without security for the due accounting of any such person or persons, and to the said Assignees making such allowance and compensation to them or him in respect thereof, as they the said Assignees shall deem just; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees entering into a sale by appraisal and valuation or otherwise, with Mr. Jonas Tebbutt, of the said Bankrupt's share and interest in the joint estate and effects, belonging to the firm of Coote and Tebbutt, Brick-Makers, and to their executing an assignment, or other absolute conveyance thereof, to the said Jonas Tebbutt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees confirming an agreement entered into by the said Bankrupt for the sale of certain lands in Bluntisham, in the County of Huntingdon, to Messrs. Hollick, Nash, Searle, and Nash, Bankers, Cambridge, and to convey and assure the same to them, or as they or their Assignees may direct; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing and prosecuting an action against Edward John Bell, for recovery of a certain cargo of barley, seized and detained by him, and to commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law, or in equity, for recovery of any part of the estate, debts and effects of the said Bankrupt, and to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees compounding with several debtors to the said estate, to be named at the said meeting, and generally to take all such other steps as they shall think most advisable for the benefit of the said estate; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Edward Johnston the younger, and Thomas Manley, of Whitehaven, in the County of Cumberland, Sugar Refiners and Merchants, are desired to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on the 22d day of February instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Black Lion Inn, in Whitehaven, aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees putting up and exposing to sale by auction, the real estates of the said Bankrupts, respectively, and buying in the same estates or any of them, or any part or parts thereof, at any such auction, and reselling the same at any future auction, or by private contract, without being liable to answer for any loss or diminution in price at such resale; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the household goods and furniture, plate, linen, china, books, and other household utensils and things of the said Bankrupts respectively, to them the said Bankrupts or any other person or persons, by private contract or at a valuation, and upon credit, and allowing time for the payment of the purchase-money; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees contracting and agreeing with the respective wives of the said Bankrupts, or other persons, for the purchase of their respective contingent dowers, or other estate or interest, in or out of the real estates of their respective husbands, or any of them, at such prices as may be deemed the value thereof; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for recovery of any part of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Sard and John Smither, of Saint Martin's-Lane, in the County of Middlesex, Woollen-Drapers and Partners, Dealers and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on Monday, the 6th day of March next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the Bankrupts' stock in trade, their household goods and fixtures or any part thereof, by public auction or private contract, and to their taking security for the payment of such stock; to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees coming to an arrangement and agreeing with any person or persons holding bills and securities belonging to the Bankrupts' estate, for paying the amount due to such person or persons, if the Assignees think fit and expedient, and taking such securities into their own hands; to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees giving or allowing to the Bankrupts respectively, all or some and what part of their household furniture, for their own use or otherwise, to the said Assignees taking security for the same on the sale thereof by private contract; to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing an accountant or other person or persons to investigate the Bankrupts' books, make out the accounts, and collect the debts due to the Bankrupts' estate; to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying the wages due to the travellers and servants employed by the Bankrupts; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law, or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the Bankrupts' estate and effects; and to their compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs concerning the said Bankrupts' estate and effects.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Joseph William Wells, late of Cambridge-Terrace, Islington, in the County of Middlesex, Builder, Dealer and Chapman (but now or late a prisoner in the King's-Bench Prison), are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Monday the 6th day of March next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees completing and finishing the whole or any part of the Bankrupt's leasehold estates and effects, now in an unfinished state, in such manner as they shall think best, and as to employing the said Bankrupt in and about the same, and making him such allowance as they shall think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees agreeing with any mortgagee or mortgagees of the said leasehold premises or any of them, for finishing and completing the same or any of them, as they shall see fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of, either by private contract or public sale as they shall think proper, all or any leases or lease or contracts, or agreements for any lease or leases of the said Bankrupt's premises or any part thereof, and the whole or any part or parts of the said stock in trade and furniture or other property and effects of the said Bankrupt, and in one or more lot or lots as they shall think proper, and to authorize the said Assignees to give such time or credit, and take such securities for the amount of any such sale or sales as they shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing an accountant or other fit person to make up, adjust, and investigate the books and accounts of the said Bankrupt, and to their making to such accountant or other person such remuneration for his trouble as the said Assignees may deem proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, or presenting or opposing any petition or petitions, for the recovery, division, defence, or preservation, of any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying the amount due upon any lien or mortgage, liens or mortgages, or other security, upon any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, or their entering into and completing, or carrying into effect, any agreement or agreements for the purchase or sale, or otherwise, of any ground and premises whatsoever or wheresoever made and entered into, or agreed to be made and entered into by the said Bankrupt, with any person or persons whomsoever; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying and discharging certain costs incurred by Mr. John Robinson, the solicitor under this Commission, in preparing a certain agreement and assignment of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, prior to and with a view to avoid the expence of this present Commission; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Samuel Gregory and John Bowdon, late of Manchester, in