CONTRACT FOR STOURBRIDGE FIRE BRICKS AND CLAY.

Navy-Office, June 2, 1826.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 22d instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's several Dock-yards with Stourbridge Fire Bricks and Stourbridge Clay.

Samples of the articles, and a form of the tender, may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £200, for the due performance of the contract.

G. Smith.

East India-House, June 14, 1826.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice,

That the Quarterly General Court of the said Company, appointed to be held at their House, in Leadenhall-street, on Wednesday next the 21st instant, is made special, for the purpose stated in the following letter, signed by nine Proprietors, and received this day:

"To Joseph Dart, Esq. Secretary to the Honourable the Court of Directors of the East India Company.

" Sir,

"We, the undersigned, Proprietors of East India Stock, duly qualified, solicit you to lay before the Honourable the Court of Directors of the United East India Company, the following motion, that it may be submitted to the Honourable the Court of Proprietors, at a General Court which we request may be called for the purpose,

"That it is strongly recommended by the Court of Proprietors to their Executive Body at home, to encourage and support every rational attempt on the part of the Governments abroad to communicate useful knowledge among the whole of their British Indian subjects, more especially those branches of beneficial information now taught at the Medical School some years ago established in Calcutta by Marquess Hastings, and warmly countenanced by the present Governor-General Lord Amherst, for instructing the Native Doctors attached to the Bengal army in the modern art of surgery and the existing practice of physic, including those indispensable sciences also on which the successful application of medical art must ultimately depend."

"We have the honour to be,

Sir,

your very obedient servants,

Leicester Stanhope. James Paterson, M.D.
Jn. Borthwick Gilchrist. William Thornton.
John Wilks. Joseph Hume.
J. Addinell. R. Rickards.

Chas. Forbes.

London, June, 1826."

Joseph Dart, Secretary.
