

rived there, he went immediately to meet the Prince of Orange, who came thither the same day from Breda. It's said; That the City of Antwerp have resolved to make his Excellency a Present of a very fine Suit of Tapestry, on the occasion of his Marriage: His Excellency, upon his return thither, will go to Marimon, to meet his Daughters. From Liege they write, that things there are still in great disorder, without any prospect of a sudden composition. From Vienna they tell us, That the Emperor was returned from Hungary, very well satisfied with his Army, which he had taken a very particular account of at the Rendezvous.

League, May 25. On Thursday last arrived here the Count de Roze, who is going for Denmark to command that King's Force; In the Afternoon he visited the Prince of Orange (who returned that Evening to Horshierdyke;) The next day he was entertained at Dinner by Monsieur Opdam, and at Supper by Monsieur Olycke, and the day following parted for Amsterdam, from whence he will continue his Journey for Denmark. The 18th Instant the Sieur Malo, the King of Poland's Resident here, presented a Memorial to the States-General, wherein he says, That he had received Orders from the King his Master, to acquaint them, That he has concluded (with the general consent of the States of that Kingdom) an Alliance with the Emperor for their mutual Defence and Security against the Turkes; That in pursuance of it his Majesty was preparing to take the Field, and that he hoped this League will not only be advantageous to Poland, but to all Christendom. The Prince of Orange parted on Friday last from Horshierdyke for Breda, to visit the new Fortifications that are making there, and from thence he intended to go for Antwerp, where he was to have an Interview with the Marquis de Grana on Sunday last. The States have resolved to add eight Ships more to the 16 that are sitting out, so that now they will have a Squadron of 24 Men of War abroad this Summer, if there be occasion, and Lieutenant-Admiral Trump is to command them. The States General have appointed a general Fast and Thanksgiving Day to be observed throughout the United-Provinces the 26th of the next Month.

Mishaps, May 18. The 18 French Gallies that parted from hence about 12 days ago, designed for Argiers, are still at Breda, a Port seven Leagues to the Westward of this place, being detained there by bad Weather. Monsieur du Lusne, who sailed from Thoulon much about the same time with the Men of War, Gallies, double Shalops, Vessellers, &c. was forced back a day or two after by the violence of the Weather, and is still at Thoulon, unless he sailed again this Morning, which is the first day of fair Weather we have had these eight or ten days. The 15th Instant arrived here one of the Pope's Gallies from Civita Vecchia, with the Bishop of Fano, whom the Pope sends in quality of his Nuncio Extraordinary to present the Bless'd Clouts to the Duke of Burgundy. A strict Embargo is laid on all Ships bound for the Levant. It's said Orders are come from Court for the fitting out an other Squadron of Gallies, designed for the Coast of Italy.

Paris, May 26. Their Most Christian Majesties intended to part this Morning from Versailles: The Dauphiness does not accompany the Queen in this Journey, by reason of her being with Child, and the Dauphin will stay a day or two behind the King, but will be with his Majesty before he arrives in the Camp on the Soane. It is said, That the King will send the Marquis de Vardes in quality of his Ambassador to the Court of Rome, from whence the Duke d'Estree desires to return. The Letters from Rome of the fourth Instant say, That the Bishop of Fano, the Pope's Nuncio, was parted from Civita Vecchia; and there are Letters from Lyon which tell us that he was expected at Avignon the 19th or 20th Instant. The Marquis de Rhodes has with the King's Leave sold his place of Great Master of the Ceremonies to the Sieur Lambert de Torigny. From Provence we have advice, That the French Fleet had met with such bad Weather that several Ships were forced to return to Thoulon, but they were Sailed again, and had rejoined the Fleet.

Plimouth, May 19. On Saturday last arrived here His Majesty's Ship the Constant Warwick, bound for the West-Indies, and the next day Sailed the Dover Frigate for the Streights.

Advertisements.

Whereas several abusive and scandalous Papers and Letters have been maliciously sent and dispersed abroad against the Right Honourable the Lady Ann Vaughan, (formerly called the Lady Rolle, Daughter of Henry Marquis of Dorchester deceased) in which her Death is threatened. If any one can discover who the Person is that hath writ or dispersed the said Papers let him repair to the Plough in Kingstreet in Bloomsbury, and he shall have ten Pounds Reward.

These are to give notice, That the Brentwood Feast for the Scholars of Brentwood-School in the County of Essex, is to be kept at Clothworkers' Hall in Mincing Lane, on Thursday the 28th of June next: And those Gentlemen who have formerly been of that school, may have Tickets of Mr. Walter Kettilby, at the Bishop's-head in St. Paul's Church Yard.

On the 12 of this Instant May there was by mistake delivered a Truss of Linnen, viz 5 Pieces of Towels, 4 Pieces of Holland, 6 Pieces of narrow Biew, 3 Pieces of broad, and 4 Pieces of German Holland, marked A. Armstrong, which should have been sent to Cambridge; but is thought to have been delivered at some other place; and therefore whosoever gives Notice of it to Mrs Willmore at the Four-Swan-Inn in Bishopsgate-Street, or to Mr. John Gifford, at the Faulcon in Cambridge, shall have 40 shillings Reward.

An excellent Collection of Paintings, Drawings, and Prints, to be sold by way of publick Auction at Exeter-Exchange in the Strand, on the North side of the upper Walk: The Sale will begin on Wednesday the 23 of May Instant at nine a Clock in the Morning, and continue till 12 a. d from two till six in the Afternoon successively every day till the whole be sold off. The Collection will be exposed to view from the 21 Instant till the day of Sale.

Lost on Saturday Night last, in the Strand, about 11 of the Clock, a Bag, with a small Book of Accounts, a pair of Shooes, and a pair of fowl Sleeves. Whoever brings them to Mr. George Leigh's Barber, just within Clements-Inn-Gate, shall have 10 s. Reward.

Tolen or Strayed on the 25th of April last, from John Clarke of Bass Langton, near Harborough, in the County of Leicester, a black Mare, between 14 and 15 hands high, 4 years old, a Blaze down her Face, one Wall Eye, her hind Feet white, and a Sprig Tail. Whoever gives notice of her to Mr. Kemp at the 3 Swans in Peter-Nolter-Row, or to the Person aforesaid, shall have 20 s. Reward.

Tolen or Strayed from Tottenham High-Cross, the last Week of April, a brown blackish Mare, lame on the near Leg behind, all her Paces, with a Folt more black, a Year old, newly Calt, and a white Spot in the hinder Heel. Whoever gives notice of them to Mr. Hynde at the Golden-Ball in Fenchurch-Street, shall be well rewarded.