WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of Monday the 12th of June instant, a barn, part of Sudell's tenement, in the township of Billington, in the county of Lancaster, the property of George Petre, Esq. and in the occupation of James Seed, the overseer of the poor of Billington, was maliciously set on fire and totally destroyed, together with a cart, various implements of husbandry, and three calves;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said barn), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence;

such reward to be paid on conviction by Messrs. Carr and Hargreaves, solicitors, of Blackburn, in the said county.

TO ALIENS.

NOTICE is hereby given, that by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, every Alien who shall, on the first day of July next, be in this realm, is required on the same day, or within fourteen days thereafter, to make a declaration in writing of his or her place of abode, names, rank, occupation, and description; (and if a domestic servant, then also the place of abode, names, rank, and description of his or her master or mistress,) and of the country and place from whence he or she came, or of which he or she is a native, and of the time when he or she last came from foreign parts into this realm; and to transmit such declaration by the post, if in Great Britain, to His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department at the Alien-Office in Westminster, and if in Ireland, to the Chief Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland; and such declaration must be signed by the party making it, if able to write, or otherwise be attested by a magistrate of the place, or by the officiating minister of the parish, or by one or more of the churchwardens or overseers of the poor of the parish or township where such Alien shall be: but one such declaration will be sufficient for a parent or parents and any number of children, if made by the father, or in case of his death or incapacity, by the mother.

And by the said Act it is further required, that every Alien in this realm, on the 1st day of January and on the 1st day of July in every year, shall, within one week after those respective days, make a declaration in writing of his or her place of residence, and therein state at what place he or she intends in future to reside, and shall within the same week transmit such declaration by the post, in the manner before prescribed; and power is given to one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State to require any Alien in Great Britain, and for the Chief Secretary for Ireland to require any Alien in Ireland to make a declaration of his or her actual place of residence, and of the place at which he or she intends to reside in future, at shorter intervals than six months.

And it is enacted, That if any Alien in any of the cases aforesaid shall neglect to make such declaration, or to transmit the same within the time limited, or shall wilfully make or transmit any false declaration, he or she shall, upon conviction thereof before two justices of the peace, for every such offence, either forfeit a sum not exceeding fifty pounds, or be imprisoned for a time not exceeding six months, at the discretion of such justices.

Upon the receipt at this Office of a regular declaration in any of the cases aforesaid, a certificate, setting forth the names, rank, occupation, and description of the Alien, and his or her place of abode, will be immediately made out, and transmitted to him or her by post; and if any Alien shall, by his or her default, not be possessed of such certificate, or shall without any lawful excuse reside in any other place than that expressed in such certificate,
