Valuable Freehold Estates, Land, and Warehouses, in Manchester, Stockport, Burnage, and Heaton Norris.

To be sold by auction, by order of the Commissioners under a Commission of Bankrupt against Thomas Salter and William Pearson, at the Star Inn, in Deansgate, in Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, on Wednesday the 26th day of July, at the hour of Five in the Afternoon, subject to such conditions as will be then and there produced;

Lot 1. The fee simple and inheritance of and in all that plot or parcel of land or ground situate and being in New-Market, in Manchester aforesaid, and formerly part of certain premises called The Pool Fold, containing by admeasurement (including certain parts of a street of nine yards wide) 258 square yards superficial measure, or thereabouts, be the same more or less; together with all those two substantial and well-built warehouses, erected and built on the said land, and now in the several occupations of Messrs. Reyner and Sons, and Messrs. Busley and Co. The same land is subject to a yearly chief rent of £91 13s. payable to Thomas Chadwick, Esq. his heirs and assigns for ever.

Lot 2. Also all those two freehold messuages or dwelling-houses, together with the barns, stables, outhouses, outbuildings, gardens and orchards, thereto belonging, situate and being in Heaton Norris, and known by the name of The Lee-Gate Estate; also all those eleven several fields, closes, and parcels of arable meadow and pasture land thereto belonging, containing 23A. 3R. 22P. of the Lancashire measure, and containing, by Statute measure, 38A. 2R. 31P. or thereabouts, be the same more or less, which said land and premises are now in the occupation of the said Thomas Salter or his under-tenants.

The above lot is situated about four miles from Manchester, and a good road running along the front of the estate leading from Manchester to Stockport renders it a desirable country residence.

Lot 3. Also all that plot or parcel of land, being part of a certain field, situate in Stockport, called The Long Sluif, containing 562 superficial square yards and a half of land or ground, be the same more or less; together with all those nine several messuages or dwelling-houses, five of which are situate, standing and being to the front of the New Bridge Lane, in the Township of Stockport, erected and built on the South-Easterly side of the said plot of land, and the remaining four situate, standing and being on the Easterly side of the said plot of land, and fronting Tomlison-Street, in New Bridge-Lane aforesaid, and adjoining to the five first-mentioned messuages or dwelling-houses.

The above lot will be sold subject to a yearly rent of £6 0s 8., being a proportionate part of the yearly rent of
