

lowing, "George the Fourth, by the grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland King, Defender of the Faith, to the Chamberlain of the county palatine of Chester greeting. We command you that you direct the Sheriff of our county palatine of Chester, that by the oaths of honest and lawful men of our county palatine of Chester, by whom the truth of the matter may be best known, he diligently enquire whether it will be to the damage or prejudice of us, or any other, if we should grant to Samuel Brittain, of Upton, in the county of Chester, gentleman, and John Edwards, of the city of Chester, whip-maker, licence to make or complete a certain wall, pier, bank or work begun to be made and formed by them at a certain ferry, called Tranmere-Ferry, in the said county, and that you return the inquisition thereof, distinctly and plainly made, without delay, into our Chancery, under your seal and the seals of those by whom it shall be taken, together with this writ.—Witness ourself, at Westminster, the 13th day of June, in the seventh year of our reign. Jones."

Notice is therefore hereby given, that an inquisition for the purpose aforesaid, under and by virtue of the said writ, will be held and taken at the house of Elizabeth Roberts, known by the name or sign of the Golden Lion, in the town of Great Neston, in the hundred of Wirrall, in the said county of Chester, on Wednesday the 26th day of July instant, at Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon.—Dated at Liverpool aforesaid, this 4th day of July 1826.

Lace, Miller and Lace, Attorneys for the said Samuel Brittain and John Edwards.
