Vienna, May 16.

THe 14th Instant arrived here Count Palfi from Hungary, being sent by the Duke of Lorraine, as we are told, to inform the Emperor of the Condition his advices tell him the Enemy is in, and of the resolution he has taken to advance with the Imperial Army, and to attack some place before the Grand-Vizier comes into the Field; and Yesterday eight Pieces of Cannon, shooting 36 Pound Bullets, and four great Mortar Pieces, were drawn out of the Arsenal, and sent to the Army. The Palatine of Hungary is, according to the Emperor's Orders, Poited with the 5000 Hungarians, that were at the General Rendezvous near Presbourg, in the Island Scharz, for its security against the Incursions of the Garison of Newbeusel. The Emperor has resolved to Publish a general Pardon in Hungary, with promise of Restitution of Goods and Estate, to all such as do immediately return to their Obedience to his Imperial Majesty, and not only the Hungarians, but likewise the Germans that have deserted the Emperor's Service, and taken part with the Rebels, are by this renewed Offer of the Emperor's Grace and Pardon invited to return to their Duty. In the mean time we hear that Count Teckelej continues the Siege of the Castle of Donowitz and according to all probability he will make himself Master of it.

Vienna, May 20. The Imperial Army, who had made a Halt for some days near Raab, Decamp'd again the 15th Instant, and is Marched, as we are told, towards Gran, with a design to attack that place. Count Palfi is dispatched back to the Army, and this Morning parted from hence five great Boats Laden with Bombs, Grenadoes, Powder, &c. for the use of the Army. The Palatine of Hungary has Orders to March with the Hungarian Troops under his Command, in order to his joyning with those commanded by Major-General Schutz, and the 6000 Polish Horse, under the Command of the Chevalier de Lubomirski, at Trenchin on the Wag; These Troops are to act against Count Teckelej, who it's said is much concerned at the Alliance concluded between the Emperor and the Crown of Poland. The Elector of Bavaria, who is Treated at this Court with all the respect and kindness imaginable, intends to begin his Journey home in two or three days, and to take it by the way of Prague, having a desire to see that place; and with his Electoral Highness will go the Count de Kaunitz, as the Emperor's Envoy Extraordinary. The 18th Instant Count Zostie arrived here from Germany, (having resigned the Command of the Imperial Troops now in the Empire to Count Maximilian de Staroberg, Governour of Philips- burg) and to morrow he parts hence for Hungary, the Emperor having given him one of the chief Commands in his Army. Count Lamberg, the Emperor's Envoy to the Electors of Saxony and Brandenburg, begun his Journey this Morning. The Emperor has named the Count de Tburn to be his Ambassador at the Court of Poland, from whence one is coming in the same quality hither. His Imperial Majesty has likewise resolved to send an Ambassador to the Czars of Moscovy. but the Person is not yet named.

Ratisbonne, May 24. The Electoral Colledge being much dissatisfied with the Paper we told you in our last the Imperial Commissioner had delivered to them in the name of the Colledge of Princes, concerning the difference now depending between the two Colledges, he has since withdrawn the same. According to our freshest advices from Hungary, the Imperial Army was Encamped near Raab, from whence the Duke of Lorraine intended to Decamp the 15th, and to enter upon some action, he having, as is said, received advice, That the Grand-Vizier will not yet in a Month or six Weeks be in the Field with the main Body of the Turkish Army. The News we had of the great Magazine at Zigetb being blown up, is confirmed.

Ratisbonne, May 27. Nothing has passed in the Dyet worth communicating since our last, the Deputies of the Electors expecting new Orders from their Masters before they enter upon any thing concerning the Treaty with France, or the point of the publick Security. From Vienna they write, That the Palatine of Hungary is ordered to pass the River Wag, and to joyn General Schutz and the Prince of Lubomirski, who is expected with 6000 Poles, near Trenchin, and that they are to act against the Hungarians, in case they do not accept of the Pardon which the Emperor has now again offered them. The Advices from Hungary say, That Count Teckelej has made himself Master of the Castle of Donowitz, after having besieged it five Weeks, and that the Baron Foannel is a Prisoner; and that Count Teckelej had received several Summons from the Balla of Offen, to take the Field, and to joyn the Turkish Troops under his Command, but that hitherto he had made several pretences to excuse it.

Cologne, May 28. Things continue here in great disorder, the Commonalty demanding the Execution of what they pretend the Magistrates lately promised them; and these, to preserve the Publick Peace, have appointed Guards in several places of the City. The Bishop of Strasbourg is gone for Alsace. It is reported here, That the Circle of Swabia is at last entered into the League which the Circles of Bavaria, Franconia, and the Upper Rhine, have lately made with the Emperor. The Chapter of Wirtzburg is to meet the 11th of the next Month, to choose a Bishop in the place of the Deceased.
