Whitehall, September 13, 1826.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that two wheat ricks and one barley rick, the property of Mr. John Brown Gough, of Molland, in the county of Devon, bailiff of Robert Throckmorton, Esq. were, in the night of Saturday the 26th, or early in the morning of Sunday the 27th of August last, maliciously set on fire and consumed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said ricks), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid, on conviction, by Mr. W. Leigh, of Bardon, near Taunton, as steward of the said Robert Throckmorton.

Whitehall, September 13, 1826.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that some evil-disposed person or persons did, in the night of Sunday the 27th of August last, maliciously set fire to a cottage, called "Hawthorn Cottage," in the parish of Milford, in the county of Southampton, the property of Mrs. Whitby, whereby the same was consumed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said cottage), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence. Such reward to be paid, on conviction, by Messrs. Rickman and Son, solicitors, at Lymington, in the said county.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to amend and enlarge the powers of an Act, passed in the twenty-fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to enable the present and future proprietors and inhabitants of the houses in Golden-square, in the parish of Saint James, Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, to make and levy a rate on themselves for raising money sufficient for the better inclosing, paving, enlightening, and adorning of the said square, and supporting and keeping of the same in repair for the future;" and to encrease the rates and duties authorised by that Act to be assessed on the proprietors and inhabitants of the said houses in the said square; and to obtain additional powers and authorities for the further improvement of the said square, and repair of the pavements therein; and for those purposes respectively to raise money by mortgage or annuity, to be secured on the said rates and duties.

*Richardson and Pike, 28, Golden-square,

Essex.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the next session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill to obtain an Act, for power to raise a sum of money, not exceeding £45,000, for the purposes of defraying the remainder of the expences of erecting the convict prison at Springfield, and for erecting a new house of correction in the half hundred of Beccontree; and also to defray the expences of improving and enlarging or re-erecting (as the Court of Quarter Sessions may determine) the other existing prisons in the county of Essex, so that no greater amount of rates than two pence in the pound in the whole shall be levied in any one year upon the towns, parishes, hamlets, and places within the said county which contribute to the county rates; and also for proportioning the same, so that one half part of all such rates shall be charged upon the tenants, and the other half part thereof upon the landlords.—Dated this 30th day of August 1826.

C. G. Parker, Clerk of the Peace.
