

effectual provision for those purposes;" and also for altering, enlarging, and amending the powers of a certain other Act of Parliament, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for making the four districts in the parish of St. Mary-le-bone, in the county of Middlesex, district rectories, for certain purposes," or for consolidating all or any or either of the above-mentioned Acts of Parliament; and that it is intended to take power by such Act or Acts, for the raising of money for the several purposes of such Act or Acts, by an increase or alteration of the existing rates or assessments, or by new and additional rates or assessments upon the proprietors and occupiers of premises within the limits hereinbefore mentioned, or by both those means, or by some other means to be provided by such Act or Acts.

Greenwell and Lloyd, Solicitors for the Vestrymen of the said parish of St. Mary-le-bone.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to repeal the several Acts hereinafter mentioned (that is to say), an Act passed in the eleventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for paving, repairing, cleansing, lighting, and watching the streets, squares, lanes, and other passages within the parish of St. John, Clerkenwell, in the county of Middlesex, and for removing obstructions and annoyances therein;" an Act, passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act for paving, repairing, lighting, and watching the streets and other public passages and places within that part of the parish of Clerkenwell, called Saint James's, and removing obstructions and annoyances therein, for widening the passage from Clerkenwell-green to the parish church, and for watching and lighting certain highways within the said parish;" and an Act, passed in the seventeenth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to explain and amend an Act, made in the fourteenth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled 'An Act for paving, repairing, lighting, and watching the streets and other public passages and places within that part of the parish of Clerkenwell, called Saint James's, and removing obstructions and annoyances therein, for widening the passage from Clerkenwell-green to the parish church, and for watching and lighting certain highways within the said parish,' for repairing the highways in the said parish, and cleansing the said part of the said parish, for widening the passage from Clerkenwell-close to Rosoman's-street, and from Rosoman's-street to Saint John-street, and for building a chapel in the said parish;" and for granting further, better, and more effectual powers and provisions for paving, widening, repairing, cleansing, lighting, watching, regulating, and otherwise improving the several streets, squares, lanes, highways, and other public passages and places within the said parish, and for the removal and prevention of nuisances, obstructions, and annoyances therein; in which bill provision is intended to be made to alter the present rates now collected within the said parish.—Dated this 3d day of October 1826.

Geo. Selby, Solicitor for the Bill;

IN obedience to an order of the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen, dated the 29th day of September 1826, made in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for widening and improving the entrance into the City of London near Temple-bar, for making a more commodious street or passage at Snow-hill, and for raising, on the credit of the Orphan's Fund, a sum of money for those purposes;" and of a certain other Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifty-second year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for increasing the fund for watching, lighting, cleansing, watering, and repairing Blacktriars-bridge;" I do hereby give notice, that between the hours of ten in the forenoon and two in the afternoon, on the 29th day of March next ensuing, at my Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, in Guildhall, London, the principal sums of money, together with all interest due on the said 29th day of March next ensuing, upon the under-mentioned bonds, being part of the sum of £100,000, raised by the authority of the aforesaid Act of the thirty-fifth of George the Third, under the common seal of this city, and made payable to John Wilkes, Esq. his executors, administrators, or assigns (by indorsement), will then be paid off, at my said Office at Guildhall, to the several and respective person or persons respectively entitled to receive the same; and that from thenceforth the interest on the said bonds will cease and determine. And, in further obedience to the said order, I do hereby give notice, that if the said several persons respectively entitled to the said bonds, or any of them, shall be minded to be paid the said several principal sums, with such interest as may become due in respect thereof, at any time previous to the said 29th day of March, and will severally declare such their intention, in writing under their hands, and deliver such declaration at my said Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, between the hours of ten in the morning and two in the afternoon, ten days previously to the day on which they, or any of them, shall elect to receive the same (the usual holidays of the said Office excepted), I will, on the day expressed in such declaration, at my said Office, pay to the several persons the principal sums respectively due to them in discharge of the said bonds, together with all interest as shall on the day specified in such declaration for the payment thereof have become due thereon; and which interest or annuity will, upon the said day expressed in such declaration for payment, cease and determine, viz.

One hundred and twenty-eight bonds, of one hundred pounds each, numbered 521 to 648, both inclusive.

Richard Clark, Chamberlain.

Guildhall, September 30, 1826.
