

No. DISTRICTS.

15. NORTH WALES, and Shropshire.

16. SOUTH WALES, with Herefordshire and Monmouthshire.

The highest bidder will be declared the farmer, and will be required to pay down immediately, in Bank notes, seven and a half per cent. upon the annual rent as a deposit; if no sufficient bidding shall be made for any district, it will be withdrawn.

The farmer of each district will be required to give bond, with three or more sureties, to be approved of by the Commissioners of Stamps, in the penalty of half the annual rent, for securing the payment of the rent and the performance of his contract.

And it is intended, that the districts shall be put up in any order which the Commissioners of Stamps may think fit, and which will not be declared before the time of letting.

All persons intending to bid for any of the said duties, are to notify their intention by writing, addressed to the Commissioners at the Stamp-Office, Somerset-Place, at least three days previous to the said 8th day of December next, signed with their names, stating the places of their abode, and specifying the district or districts for which they intend to bid.

And no persons licensed to let horses for the purpose of travelling post, nor any one for their use, can be admitted to contract for any of the said duties.

By order of the Commissioners of Stamps,
Chas. Pressly, Secretary.

IN obedience to an order of the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen, dated the 25th day of October 1826, made in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for widening and improving the entrance into the City of London near Temple-bar, for making a more commodious street or passage at Snow-hill, and for raising, on the credit of the Orphan's Fund, a sum of money for those purposes;" also of a certain other Act of Parliament, made and passed in the said thirty-fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, ch. 131, intituled "An Act for repairing the common sewer in Bridge-street, Blackfriars, in the City of London, or making a new sewer instead of the defective part or parts thereof, and for maintaining and cleansing the same;" and of a certain other Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifty-second year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for increasing the fund for watching, lighting, cleansing, watering, and repairing Blackfriars-bridge;" I do hereby give notice, that between the hours of ten in the forenoon and two in the afternoon, on the 25th day of April next ensuing, at my Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, in Guildhall, London, the principal sums of money, together with all interest due on the said 25th day of April next ensuing, upon the under-mentioned bonds, being part of the sums of £100,000 and £9000, raised by the authority of the aforesaid Acts of the thirty-fifth of George the Third, under the common seal of this city, and made payable to John Wilkes, Esq. his executors, administrators, or assigns (by indorsement), will then be paid off, at my said Office at Guildhall, to the several and respective person or persons respectively entitled to receive the same; and that from thenceforth the interest on the said bonds will cease and determine. And, in further obedience to the said order, I do hereby give notice, that if the said several persons respectively entitled to the said bonds, or any of them, shall be minded to be paid the said several principal sums, with such interest as may become due in respect thereof, at any time previous to the said 25th day of April, and will severally declare such their intention, in writing under their hands, and deliver such declaration at my said Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, between the hours of ten in the morning and two in the afternoon, ten days previously to the day on which they, or any of them, shall elect to receive the same (the usual holidays of the said Office excepted), I will, on the day expressed in such declaration, at my said Office, pay to the several persons the principal sums respectively due to them in discharge of the said bonds, together with all interest as shall on the day specified in such declaration for the payment thereof have become due thereon; and which interest or annuity will, upon the said day expressed in such declaration for payment, cease and determine, viz.

One hundred and twelve bonds, of one hundred pounds each, under the first mentioned Act of the thirty-fifth George the Third, ch. 126, numbered 649 to 760, both inclusive; and seventy-three bonds, of one hundred pounds each, under the second mentioned Act of the thirty-fifth of George the Third, ch. 131, numbered 1 to 73, both inclusive.

Richard Clark, Chamberlain.

Guildhall, October 26, 1826.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a bill or bills for making, maintaining, paving, watching, lighting, and watering a turnpike road or roads from the Commercial-road and the East India Dock branch thereof, into and to communicate with the Middlesex and Essex-road, at or near Bow, in the county of Middlesex, and for building a Bridge over the New Cut of the River Lea, to communicate therewith; also for making, establishing, and maintaining certain branch roads leading from the Commercial-road aforesaid to Whitechapel High-street, and to Shadwell High-street, and Wapping High-street; also for constructing, establishing, and maintaining certain tunnels, railways, or tram-roads for the passage of waggons, carts, and other carriages, upon, across, and along the said several roads, some or one of them, and between the East India and West India Docks, and the proposed Collier Docks in the Isle of Dogs and the River Lea, and Whitechapel aforesaid, with warehouses and other places of deposit, and for loading and unloading goods, wares, and merchan-
