Marshal's-Office.—Sale by Execution.

First Proclamation.

WHEREAS I the undersigned, by virtue of two writs of execution, granted by His Honour William Musgrave, Esq. then Acting President of the Honourable the Courts of Justice of the Colony of Berbice and its dependencies, &c. &c. respectively dated the 30th of May and 22d of June 1826, as also by virtue of a subsequent appointment from the Honourable the Court of Civil Justice of this Colony, bearing date the 2d of August 1826, have, in the suit intitled C. A. Knegt, plaintiff, versus L. F. Gallez, defendant, caused to be taken in execution, and placed under sequestration, the defendant's, L. F. Gallez's, wood cutting establishment, called Catharinasburg and Fransenburg, situate in Upper Canje, cum annexis, and slaves, together with its cultivation and further appurtenances thereto belonging, an inventory of which is laying at the Marshal's Office for the inspection of those concerned.

Be it therefore known, that I the undersigned, or the Marshal at the time being, intend to sell at public execution sale, and in the usual way and form, after the expiration of one year and six weeks from the 15th day of August 1826, the beforenamed wood-cutting establishment, called Catharinasburg and Fransenburg, situate in Upper Canje, cum annexis, and slaves, together with its cultivation and further appurtenances thereto belonging, in order to recover, by execution sale of said property, such sums of money as wherefore the same has been taken in execution and placed under sequestration, all conformable to the regulations of the Honourable the Court of Civil Justice, dated the 20th of December 1817, respecting the sales of estates by execution in this Colony.

This first Proclamation published as customary.—Berbice, the 27th August 1826.

(Signed) K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause wherein Thomas Hannam and others are plaintiffs, and George Maddison is defendant, it was referred to James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire and state to the Court, who was or were the next of kin of Sarah Oliver, the testatrix in the pleadings named, living at the time of her death, and in case any of them had since died, who was or were the personal representative or representatives of him, her, or them so dying, the next of kin of the said Sarah Oliver, late of the Town and County of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, Widow, deceased (who died some time in or about the year 1779), living at the time of her death, or in case any of them have since died, the personal representative or representatives of him, her, or them so dying, are by their Solicitors, on or before the 8th day of December 1826, to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and prove their kindred, and make out their claims, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

WHEREAS by an Order of the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, bearing date the 19th day of June 1826, made in the matter of the Rev. Edward Frank, of unsound mind, late of Winthorpe-Hall, in the County of Nottingham, Clerk, whereby it was referred to James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the High Court of Chancery, to inquire and certify whether there were any and what charges and incumbrances affecting the estate of the said Edward Frank and the nature thereof.—All persons claiming to have any charge or incumbrance upon the estate of the said Edward Frank, are by their Solicitors, on or before the 8th day of December 1826, to come in and prove their said charges and incumbrances before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Order.

WHEREAS by an Order of the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, bearing date the 19th day of June 1826, made in the matter of the Rev. Edward Frank, of unsound mind, late of Winthorpe-Hall, in the County of Nottingham, Clerk, whereby it was referred to James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the High Court of Chancery, to enquire and certify whether there were any and what debts due and owing by the said Edward Frank, and to whom, both before and since the finding the inquisition in this matter (which inquisition was holden on the 1st day of August 1825, until the 9th day of the same month Sunday excepted), the Creditors of the said Edward Frank are by their Solicitors, on or before the 8th day of December 1826, to come in and prove their debts before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Order.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 16th day of June 1826, made in a cause wherein John Charles Heslop and others are plaintiffs, and James Compton and others are defendants, it was, amongst other things, referred to Samuel Compton Cox, Esquire, one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire and state to the Court who were the nephews and nieces of James Lyon, late of Dover, in the County of Kent, Clerk, deceased, the Testator in the pleadings named, living at his decease (which happened on or about the 30th day of June 1817), and if any of such nephews and nieces are since dead, who are their legal personal representatives; and that he the said Master should also inquire and state who was the child of the said Testator's nephew, the late Thomas Fenton, junior, and who were the children of Ann, daughter of Mary Fenton, the eldest sister of the said Testator, and of the daughter of Elizabeth, also the sister of the said Testator, respectively, living at his decease, and whether such child or children, or any and which of them, is or are living or dead, and if any such child or children is or are now dead, who are their legal personal representatives. Any person or persons, therefore, claiming to be such nephews or nieces, or the child of the Testator's nephew, the late Thomas Fenton, junior, or the children of Ann, daughter of Mary Fenton, the eldest sister of the said Testator, or the children of the daughter of Elizabeth, also the sister of the said Testator, respectively living at his decease, or to be the legal personal representatives of such of them who have since died, are, by their Solicitors, forthwith to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane London, or in default thereof, he, she or they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Perrett against Perrett, the Creditors of Paul Perrett, late of Starve Croft's Farm, in the Parish of Rowde, in the County of Wilts, Yeoman, deceased (who died in or about the month of May 1824), are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 11th day of December 1826, to come in before William Wingfield, Esquire, one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chan-
