TAKE notice, that the Partnership lately subsisting between us the undersigned, Bradshaw Lewis Reilly and William Lane, both of the City of Bath, in the County of Somerset, in the several businesses of Stage Coach-Proprietors, Posting and Blackwork, was on the 30th day of September last dissolved by mutual consent, and all persons who stand indebted to the said partnership concern are requested to pay the amount of their respective debts forthwith to the said Bradshaw Lewis Reilly, who is authorized to receive the same.—Witness our hands this 30th day of November 1826.

B. L. Reilly.
Wm. Lane.

HEIR AT LAW WANTED.

Spilsby, November 29, 1826.

IF the Heir or Coheirs at Law of Elizabeth Walker, who it is understood formerly lived at Great Stale, in the County of Lincoln, or in some adjoining Parish, will apply to George Coltman, of Stagnaby, in the said County of Lincoln, Esquire, M. D., or to Messrs. Walker and Sons, of Spilsby, in the said County of Lincoln, Attornies at Law, he, she, or they will hear of something to his, her, or their advantage: and in the event of no heir or coheirs at law of the said Elizabeth Walker, being clearly and satisfactorily discovered on or before the 11th day of October 1827, the advantages intended for such heir or coheirs at law, by the will of Thomas Coltman, late of Stagnaby aforesaid, Esquire, deceased, will cease and be absolutely lost, and the property will be disposed of according to the directions of the said will.

MR. FREDERICK NEWCOME, deceased.

ALL persons having any claims or demands upon the estate and effects of Frederick Newcome, late of Grantham, in the County of Lincoln, Attorney at Law, deceased, are requested forthwith to deliver the particulars thereof, with the nature of their securities (if any), into my hands, in order that the same may be examined and allowed; and all persons indebted to the said Frederick Newcome are desired to pay the amount of their respective debts, to prevent immediate steps being taken for the recovery thereof.

By order of the Executors,
W. RATHER, Solicitor, Grantham.
Grantham, November 22, 1826.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Dreyer against Mawdesley, it is referred to Sir Giffin Wilson, one of the Masters of the said Court, to take an account of all the debts due from Thomas Legh (late Thomas Crosse) of Adlington-Hall, in the County of Chester, Esquire, at the date of certain indentures of lease and release of the 3d and 4th days of July 1822, and a deed of settlement, dated the 10th day of July 1822. All persons claiming to be Creditors of the said Thomas Legh, at the date of the said indenture of settlement and deeds of trust respectively, are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before the said Master, at his Chambers, Southampton Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; or in default thereof, they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.
