TUESDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1826.

At the Court at St. James's, the 20th of November 1826,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the third of May last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar), has expired; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf, first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gun-powder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

Whitehall, December 12, 1826.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that about one o'clock in the morning of the 9th of December instant, two assistant gamekeepers, in the employ of the Reverend Ralph Henry Branding, of Gosforth-house, in the parish of Gosforth, in the county of Northumberland, were attacked by poachers in a field at Gosforth aforesaid, and were wilfully and maliciously fired at by one of such poachers with a loaded gun, by which firing John Charlton, one of the said keepers, was wounded and much hurt;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired the said gun) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by the said Ralph Henry Brandling, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, December 15, 1826.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of Sunday the 26th of November last, some evil-disposed person or persons did wilfully and feloniously set fire to a barn in the farm-yard of Mr. Richard Patmore, situate in Windhill, in Bishop's Stortford, in the county of Hertford;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said barn) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid on conviction by Mr. A. M. Ashby, Overseer of Bishop's Stortford aforesaid.

Whitehall, December 18, 1826.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about two o'clock in the morning of Tuesday the 12th instant, the preserves of the Right Honourable William Edwardes, Lord Kensington, situate near Aylsham, in the county of Norfolk, were entered upon by a band of armed men, to the supposed number of fourteen; and that in an attempt which was made by his Lordship's keepers and others to seize these men, two of the said keepers, and also his Lordship's son, the Honourable George Edwardes, were shot and otherwise much maltreated;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually fired at the said keepers and others) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Lord Kensington to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

TAKE NOTICE,

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given, by entry thereof in the proper page and column of the book kept for that purpose at the Office of the Court, between the hours of Ten in the Forenoon and Four in the Afternoon, three clear days before the day of hearing above mentioned, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of entering such notice and of the said day of hearing; but in the case of a Prisoner, for the removal of whom for hearing in the country an order has been obtained, but not carried into effect by the Creditors, notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

N. B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-Street.

2. The petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, until the last day for entering opposition inclusive; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 76.

3. Notice to produce at the hearing any books or papers filed with the schedule, must be given to the Officer having the custody thereof, within the hours above mentioned, on any day previous to the day of hearing.

4. Opposition at the hearing can only be made by the Creditor, in person, or by Counsel appearing for him.

THE COURT FOR RELIEF OF INSOLVENT DEBTORS.

N. B. See the Notice at the end of these Advertisements.

The Matters of the PETITIONS and SCHEDULES

TAKE NOTICE,

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given to the said Prisoner, in writing, three clear days before the day of hearing, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of giving such notice and of the said day of hearing.

2. But in the case of a Prisoner, whom his Creditors have removed, by an order of the Court, from a gaol in or near London for hearing in the country, such notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

3. The petition and schedule will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, at the Office of the Court in London, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, between the hours of Ten and Four; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 76.

N. B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-Street, Lincoln's-Inn-Fields.

4. The duplicate of the petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced for inspection and examination by the Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other person with whom the same shall have been directed to be lodged for such purpose, at the Office of such Clerk of the Peace or other person; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be there provided, according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 77, or the Act, 5 Geo. 4, c. 61, sec. 11, as the case may be.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Mr. John Coates, the Assignee of the estate and effects of Richard Kingston, late of Bedford-Court, Covent-Garden, in the County of Middlesex, Jeweller and Salesman, an Insolvent Debtor, will, on the 20th day of January next, at the hour of Six o'Clock in the Evening, attend at the Office of the said Assignee, No. 1, Pump-Court, Temple, London, to declare and make a dividend of the money in his hands amongst the Creditors of the said Insolvent, whose debts are expressed in the schedule delivered and filed by him in the Court for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors; and in case the said Insolvent, or any of his Creditors, shall object to any debt stated "admitted" in the said schedule, the Creditor or Creditors whose debt or debts shall be so objected to, and all Creditors whose debts are stated "disputed" in the said schedule, are hereby required to apply to the said Court for the examination thereof, pursuant to the 1st George IV. cap. 119, section 7.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Creditors of Nathaniel Owen, late of Fosbrook, in the County of Stafford, Farmer,
