

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired the said gun) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by the said Ralph Henry Brandling, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, December 15, 1826.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of Sunday the 26th of November last, some evil-disposed person or persons did wilfully and feloniously set fire to a barn in the farm-yard of Mr. Richard Patmore, situate in Windhill, in Bishop's Stortford, in the county of Hertford;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said barn) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid on conviction by Mr. A. M. Ashby, Overseer of Bishop's Stortford aforesaid.

Whitehall, December 18, 1826.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about two o'clock in the morning of Tuesday the 12th instant, the preserves of the Right Honourable William Edwardes, Lord Kensington, situate near Aylsham, in the county of Norfolk, were entered upon by a band of armed men, to the supposed number of fourteen; and that in an attempt which was made by his Lordship's keepers and others to seize these men, two of the said keepers, and also his Lordship's son, the Honourable George Edwardes, were shot and otherwise much maltreated;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually fired at the said keepers and others) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Lord Kensington to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

HANTS LIEUTENANCY.

Winchester, December 15, 1826.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a General Meeting of the Lieutenancy of the county of Southampton will be holden at the White Hart Inn, in Winchester, on Monday the 8th day of January next, at twelve o'clock at noon.

By order of the Lieutenancy,
T. Woodham, Clerk of the General Meetings.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the county of Chester will hence forward commence on the Monday in the week appointed by Act of Parliament for holding the same Sessions, instead of the Tuesday in the same week as heretofore.

Henry Potts, Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Chester.

CONTRACT FOR FLOCK BEDS AND PILLOWS.

Navy-Office, December 11, 1826.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 17th of January next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's Dock-yard at Deptford with Flock Beds and Pillows.

Patterns of the beds and pillows and a form of the tender may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £1000, for the due performance of the contract. J. W. Morton.

Office for Taxes, Somerset-Place,
