Brandon, December 14, 1826.

ALL persons having claims upon the effects of Joseph Randal Burch, late of Brandon, in the County of Suffolk, Esq. deceased, are required to transmit accounts of such claims, and the nature of their securities (if any) to me, within one month from the date hereof, or they will be excluded the benefit arising from the distribution of his effects.

EDWD. JAS. SMYTHE, Executor.

THE Proprietors of the London Carrier Company are requested to attend a Special General Meeting of Proprietors on Wednesday the 3d day of January 1827, at the Office of the said Company, No. 69, Great Queen-Street, Lincoln's-Inn-Fields, at Half-past Six for Seven o'Clock precisely, in the Evening of that day, to resolve whether or not an absolute and entire dissolution and determination of the said Association shall take place, and if such dissolution and determination shall be resolved on, then to choose a Committee in the manner and for the purposes in that behalf directed to be chosen in and by the deed of Constitution of the said Company.—Dated the 19th day of December 1826.

By order of the Committee of Management,
THOMAS MACKINTOSH, Managing Agent under the Deed of Constitution.

Reading Barges from Kennett-Wharf, Upper Thames-Street,

RICHARD MILLS respectfully informs his friends, and the public in general, that his barges are constantly loading at the above wharf, where goods are regularly received and forwarded every week, with punctuality and dispatch, to Blandy's Wharf, Reading, Berks, and all places adjacent.

R. Mills hereby gives notice, that he will not be answerable for loss or damage by fire, or leakage arising from unsound packages, or from any accident that may happen to any of the barges, unless the same arises through negligence, or for goods that are not properly packed, fully directed and described, and the wharfage paid on delivery.

All goods will be subject to a general lien, not only for the money due for the carriage or wharfage of such particular goods, but also for the balance due from the parties to whom they belong.—Not accountable for loss or damage, if not applied for with fourteen days from the time of delivery.

E. WHITE and SONS, Wharfingers, London.

N. B. The above Wharfingers will not be accountable for damage or loss by fire, leakage, high tides, &c.

Flour, malt, and all kinds of merchandize, lauded, housed, and carted, on reasonable terms.
