

fall, the estate of the said Bankrupt having the benefit of the bills becoming due and payable to the said Bankrupt at that time from the parents of the respective scholars; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing, either by public sale or private contract, or valuation, or in any such ways and means as they shall think fit, the stock in trade, furniture, and fixtures and other effects on the premises occupied by the said Bankrupt and belonging to him; and generally to authorise and empower the Assignees to act in the said Bankrupt's estate, in such manner, as they shall think most advisable for the general interests of the said Bankrupt's Creditors; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt, awarded and issued forth against Michael Holt and Richard Holt, of Hulme, in the Parish of Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, Dyers, Dealers, Chapmen and Copartners, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, on Monday the 22d day of January next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Office of Mr. Jeremiah Buckley, in Brown-Street, in Manchester aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees dying or finishing all or any part of the manufactured goods now in the possession of the said Bankrupts, with a view to benefit the estate, as well as to indemnify the provisional Assignee appointed by the Commissioners for what he has done for the same purpose; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees carrying on the said business, at the risk of the estate, for the benefit of the Creditors, so long as the same shall be deemed desirable and expedient by the said Assignees; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of all or any part of the real or personal estate of the said Bankrupts, or of either of them, by private contract, to the said Bankrupts, or either of them, or to any other person or persons, upon such credit, and upon real or personal security, or in such way as to the said Assignees shall seem fit and proper; and also to the said Assignees prosecuting or defending any action at law, or suit in equity, against such person or persons to be named at such meeting, who have or hath taken an adverse possession of a certain part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, or to compromising or making such arrangement or settlement in respect of such possession or property so seized as to the said Assignees shall seem reasonable and proper; and also to the said Assignees compounding or submitting to arbitration any matter or thing connected with or relating to the said Bankrupts' estate; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against James Fry, of Artillery-Street, Bermondsey, in the County of Surrey, Currier, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignee of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Monday the 22d day of January next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees taking legal proceedings by action at law, or otherwise, to recover certain articles of household furniture alleged to have been purchased by a certain person to be named at the meeting of the said Bankrupt, and now in the possession of the said certain person; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees retaining out of the said Bankrupt's estate all and every the costs, charges, and expences incurred by them as Trustees under a deed of arrangement entered into by the said Bankrupt and his Creditors in the month of April last; also to assent to or dissent from the payment to the petitioning Creditor of all costs and expences incurred by him which are not included in the taxed bill to the choice of Assignees, such costs and charges arising in part upon legal proceedings between the Bankrupt and the said petitioning Creditor; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of all or any part of the personal estate and effects of the said Bankrupt to any person or persons whomsoever, (including the said Bankrupt), either by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, at such price or prices, and at such times and places, either for ready money or on credit, as they shall think advisable, and taking such security or securities for payment of the purchase money at their discretion, and the said Assignees be at liberty, in case of sale or sales by auction, to buy in and resell the same, or any part thereof, at the risk and expence of the said Bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees allowing the said Bankrupt to take his household goods, or any part thereof, at a valuation, appraisement, or otherwise as to the Assignees may seem most advisable; and also to the said Assignees retaining and employing the said Bankrupt, or any other person or persons, as accountant or accountants in the investigation of the affairs of the said Bankrupt, or in collecting, recovering, or receiving the debts and effects due or belonging to the said Bankrupt's estate, or otherwise in winding up the affairs of the said Bankrupt, and to their making the said Bankrupt, or to such person or persons as aforesaid, such allowance or compensation for their services respectively, as to the said Assignees may seem just; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees making such arrangements and compromises as they shall consider to be for the benefit of the said Creditors, with any person or persons having or claiming to have mortgages, liens, or other securities upon the real or personal estate of the said Bankrupt, or any part thereof respectively; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to refer to counsel, or other person, all matters in difference between them and the Trustee and acting Executors under the will of the late father of the said Bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, or preferring or opposing any petition or petitions to the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, respecting the said matters in difference between them and the said Trustee and Executors, or between them and any other person, for the recovery of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; and to the Assignees submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any dispute, suit, or difference respectively in anywise concerning the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; and also to the said Assignees compromising with any debtor or debtors of the said Bankrupt's estates, and accepting such composition or compositions in full satisfaction and discharge of the debt or debts so to be compromised as aforesaid; and also to confirm and allow or disapprove of the acts and proceedings which may have already been adopted by the said Assignees, and by the said petitioning Creditor under the said Commission; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Augustus Muiglier, of Mincing-Lane, in the City of London, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate, on Tuesday the 23d day of January next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the said City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the whole or any part of the said Bankrupt's stock, fixtures, furniture, estate or effects, either by public auction or private contract, at such prices and upon such terms and conditions as the said Assignees shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees appointing and authorising such person or persons as they may think proper, at any place or places abroad, for the purpose of recovering or taking possession of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate or effects, and collecting any debts which may be due to the said Bankrupt's estate, and for any other purposes which the said Assignees shall think necessary with reference to the said Bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees appointing and employing an accountant, or other person or persons, in the investigation of the accounts and affairs of the said Bankrupt, and to the said Assignees making to such accountant, or other person or persons, such allowance or compensation for their services, out of the said Bankrupt's estate, as the said Assignees shall deem just; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying to the clerks and servants of the said Augustus Muiglier, or any of them, the full amount of the salary or wages due to them respectively, or any part thereof; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, defending or compromising any action or actions, suit or suits, or other proceedings, at law or in equity, for the recovery of the debts, or otherwise touching or concerning the estate and effects due, owing, or belonging to the said Bankrupt; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any accounts, debts, demands, differences, disputes, or other matters relating to the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Charles Osborne and James Osborne, of Saint James's-Street, Pall-Mall, in the County of Middlesex, Tailors, Dealers, Chap-