

such security or securities for all or any part thereof, as they may think meet, and most expedient for the benefit of the said Creditors; and also to consider of and determine upon the propriety of allowing or disallowing all or any part of the costs and expences of and attendant upon an assignment from the said Bankrupt to certain Trustees for the benefit of his Creditors, made previous to the issuing of the said Commission; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting or defending any action or suit, at law or in equity, or any other proceedings for the recovery, getting in, defending or protecting any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and generally to authorise the said Assignees to act for the benefit of the estate of the said Bankrupt in such manner as shall to them seem most advisable and beneficial; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Hart the younger, of Birmingham, in the County of Warwick, Coach-Maker, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Monday the 12th day of March next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the Royal Hotel, in Birmingham, in the County of Warwick, to take into consideration an offer of composition that will be then made by the said Bankrupt, or some person on his behalf, to be paid by such instalments, and secured in such manner, as will be then stated, upon the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt conveying, assigning and assuring to the person who will become surety for the due payment of such composition all the real and personal estate, debts, property and effects of the said Bankrupt, for his own absolute use and benefit; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees carrying such arrangement into effect; and to their making and executing conveyances, assignments and assurances of all the said real and personal estate, debts, effects and property of the said Bankrupt accordingly, and to their doing and executing all such other acts and deeds as may be necessary for vesting in such person the same real and personal estate, property, and effects; and also (in case such above-mentioned offer of composition shall not be accepted) to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees finishing the unfinished carriages and other stock belonging to the said Bankrupt's estate; and to their disposing of the same, or any part thereof, either finished or unfinished, by public auction or private contract, in their discretion; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees continuing and carrying on the trade or business of the said Bankrupt, and continuing, running, working and carrying on his stage and other coaches, or such of them, as they shall think fit for the benefit, and at the risk, of his estate, and for that purpose to buy such wood, iron and other materials and things, and employ such workmen and servants at such wages, to be paid out of the said estate, as the said Assignees shall think fit, and to employ all fit and proper persons to assist the said Assignees therein; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees continuing to employ an accountant to examine, investigate and make up the books and accounts of the said Bankrupt, and to assist in the management of the estate and the collection of the outstanding debts, and to their making him such remuneration for his past and future services, as to them may seem reasonable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing, in one or more lot or lots, of all or any part of the household furniture, fixtures, machinery, stage and other coaches, carriages, harness, stock in trade, effects and property of the said Bankrupt, either by public auction or private contract, at a valuation or otherwise, for such price or prices as they may think reasonable, with power to buy in and resell the same, or any part thereof, which they may think proper, at the risk and expence of the said Bankrupt's estate, and to give such time for payment of the purchase-money, with or without security, as the said Assignees shall think reasonable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees delivering and giving up any carriages or other property made or repaired by the said Bankrupt or the said Assignees, and belonging to any other person or persons, with or without security for payment of the money due, for making or repairing such carriages or other property, as the said Assignees shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying any arrears of rent or taxes due from the said Bankrupt, and paying the workmen and servants their wages in full; and also to allow to the said Assignees, out of the said Bankrupt's estate, all costs, charges and expences they have been put into in, about and attending the carrying on of the business, and working, running and continuing of the stage or other coaches of the said Bankrupt, up to the time of the meeting, hereby advertised; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting or defending any action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, for recovering or protecting any part of the Bankrupt's estate; and also to their compromising or agreeing any such action or suit by arbitration or otherwise, upon such terms, and in such manner, as they shall think proper; and also to their compounding any debt or debts owing to the estate of the said Bankrupt, and to their giving such time, and accepting such security for payment of the same, as they shall think proper; and generally to authorise and empower the said Assignees to act for the benefit of the said Bankrupt's estate, in such manner, as they may think most advantageous to the interest of the Creditors; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Harriet Clarke, of Rochester, in the County of Kent, Hatter, Dealer and Chapwoman, are requested to meet the Assignees of her estate and effects, on Monday the 12th of March next, at Eleven o'Clock precisely in the Forenoon of the same day, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit at law or bill in equity, for the recovery or protection of any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter, cause, or thing, in any way relating to the said estate and effects, or to the said Assignees preferring or opposing any petition to the Lord Chancellor in relation to the estate of the said Bankrupt; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees carrying on the business of the said Bankrupt for any length of time, or to their disposing of all or any part of the said Bankrupt's estate or effects, either by public sale or private contract; also to assent to or dissent from the allowance of certain sums, to be named at the said meeting, for the services of the clerks and servants who have been engaged in the said Bankrupt's trade and employment; also to assent to or dissent from the appointment of some person, to be named at the meeting, for the collecting and getting in of the debts due to the estate, or to the sale of such debts by the Assignees to any person who may offer a sum for the same which to the said Assignees should appear a reasonable price; also to take into consideration any offer to be made by the friends of the said Bankrupt of a composition for the debts due from the estate, in satisfaction of each Creditor's claim, and as to the propriety of superseding the present Commission; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Hinton, of the Eyre-Arms Tavern, Saint John's-Wood, in the County of Middlesex, Victualler, Builder, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Monday the 12th day of March next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees continuing and carrying on the said Bankrupt's trade of a Victualler, at the Eyre-Arms Tavern, Saint John's-Wood aforesaid, at the risk and for the benefit of the said Bankrupt's estate, until the said premises and the stock in trade and effects shall be disposed of, and to the said Assignees paying to the respective parties who have supplied the said premises since the issuing of the said Commission, or who shall hereafter supply the same with the beer, ale, wine, spirits and other articles necessary for carrying on the said business for the benefit of his estate as aforesaid, the sums already due and to accrue due to them in respect of the goods so supplied and to be supplied; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing the Bankrupt and such other persons as they may deem requisite, to superintend and manage the said business of a Victualler, and also the Bankrupt's other affairs as a Builder, for the benefit of the estate, and to allow the Bankrupt and such other persons such compensation for their services as the said Assignees shall deem reasonable, and to authorise and empower the said Assignees to pay to the Bankrupt's servants and work people the arrears of wages due to them in full; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees entering into any new agreement or agreements with or relinquishing and giving up to the ground landlord certain building contracts or agreements for lease,
