

entered into by the Bankrupt previous to his Bankruptcy, upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon between the said Assignees and the ground landlord and Mortgagees of the property, and to settle, adjust and compromise all matters and questions arising between the said Bankrupt's estate and the Ground Landlord and Mortgagees of the said property, or any of them, upon such terms as to the said Assignees shall seem proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the Bankrupt's interest in the several houses and buildings erected by him, and also in the land contracted to be demised to him by public auction or private contract, and either together or in parcels, and either subject to the mortgages and incumbrances thereon, or freed and discharged from such mortgages and incumbrances, and with the concurrence of the Mortgagees and Incumbrancers, or to release or assign the equity of redemption of the said premises, or any part thereof, to the Mortgagees or Incumbrancers thereon, upon such terms and conditions as to the said Assignees shall seem advisable; and generally to make such arrangements regarding the said Bankrupt's leasehold property at Saint John's-Wood aforesaid, and elsewhere, as shall appear to them to be beneficial to the Bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying all such costs, charges and expences as have already been incurred, previous to the issuing of the Commission or subsequently thereto, or that may hereafter be incurred in, about, relating to or concerning the said Bankrupt's affairs for the general benefit of his estate; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing, either by public auction or private contract, of the stock in trade, household furniture, goods, fixtures and effects of the Bankrupt, either together or in parcels, as the said Assignees shall deem advisable; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting or defending, or compounding any actions, suits or other proceedings, either at law or in equity, for the recovery or protection of the Bankrupt's property and effects, or any part thereof, or compromising or compounding with any debtor to the Bankrupt's estate, or submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing, or giving time, or taking security for payment of any debt or debts, and generally to authorise and empower the said Assignees to take such measures in the arrangement and settlement of the said Bankrupt's estate and affairs, as to the said Assignees shall seem expedient; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intitled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 13th day of February 1827, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act by

WILLIAM CHILD and THOMAS SANDS, both of Wortley, in the Parish of Leeds, in the County of York, Cloth-Manufacturers, Dealers and Chapman, that they are in insolvent circumstances and are unable to meet their engagements with their creditors.

WHEREAS a Commission of Bankrupt is awarded and issued forth against Thomas Clarke, of Oswestry, in the County of Salop, Timber-Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, (lately carrying on business in Copartnership with Edward Jones, at Oswestry aforesaid, and of Chirk, in the County of Denbigh, as Timber-Merchants, under the style or firm of Jones and Clarke), and he being declared a Bankrupt is hereby required to surrender himself to the Commissioners in the said Commission named, or the major part of them, on the 27th and 28th days of February instant, and 30th of March next, at One in the Afternoon on each of the said days, at the George Inn, in Dale-Street, Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects, when and where the Creditors are to come prepared to prove their debts, and at the second sitting to choose Assignees, and at the last sitting the said Bankrupt is required to finish his examination, and the Creditors are to assent to or dissent from the allowance of his certificate. All persons indebted to the said Bankrupt, or that have any of his effects, are not to pay or deliver the same but to whom the Commissioners shall appoint, but give notice to Messrs. Wheeler and Bennett, Solicitors, 18, John-Street, Bedford-Row, London, or to Mr. Holden, Solicitor, Doran's-Lane, Lord-Street, Liverpool.

WHEREAS a Commission of Bankrupt is awarded and issued forth against William Cruickshank, of the Parish of Broomfield, in the County of Somerset, Maltster, and he being declared a Bankrupt is hereby required to surrender himself to the Commissioners in the said Commission named, or the major part of them, on the 23d day of February instant, and on the 9th and 30th days of March next, at Twelve of the Clock at Noon on each day, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects; when and where the Creditors are to come prepared to prove their debts, and at the second sitting to choose Assignees, and at the last sitting the said Bankrupt is required to finish his examination, and the Creditors are to assent to or dissent from the allowance of his certificate. All persons indebted to the said Bankrupt, or that have any of his effects, are not to pay or deliver the same but to whom the Commissioners shall appoint, but give notice to Messrs. Marson and Son, Solicitors, Church-Row, Newington-Butts.

WHEREAS a Commission of Bankrupt is awarded and issued forth against Samuel Slingsby, of Cheapside, in the City of London, Cotton-Printer, Dealer and Chapman, and he being declared a Bankrupt is hereby required to surrender himself to the Commissioners in the said Commission named, or the major part of them, on the 23d of February instant, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon, on the 2d day of March next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, and on the 30th of the same month, at Twelve at Noon, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, and make a full discovery and disclosure of his estate and effects; when and where the Creditors are to come prepared to prove their debts, and at the second sitting to choose Assignees, and at the last sitting the said Bankrupt is required to finish his examination, and the Creditors are to assent to or dissent from the allowance of his certificate. All persons indebted to the said Bankrupt, or that have any of his effects, are not to pay or deliver the same but to whom the Commissioners shall appoint, but give notice to Messrs. Seal and Nicol, Solicitors, No. 88, Queen-Street, Cheapside.

WHEREAS a Commission of Bankrupt is awarded and issued forth against William Booth, late of Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, Victualler, Dealer and Chapman (but now a prisoner for debt in the King's-Bench Prison), and he being declared a Bankrupt is hereby required to surrender himself to the Commissioners in the said Commission named, or the major part of them, on the 2d and 3d of March next, at Nine of the Clock in the Forenoon, and on
