Notice to the Creditors, of D. Smith and Co., Soda-Makers, at Port Dundas, and Merchants, in Glasgow.

Glasgow, March 17, 1827.

MR. JAMES CHARLES, Merchant, in Glasgow, Trustee on the sequestrated estates of the said D. Smith and Co., hereby intimates, in terms of the Statute, that his accounts have been audited by the Commissioners; and that the same will lie in his Counting-House, for the inspection of all concerned till the 8th day of May next, when twelve months from the date of the sequestration will have elapsed. But that no farther dividend will then be made, the accelerated dividend already paid, under the authority of the Court, having exhausted the realised trust funds.

Notice to the Creditors of William Stewart, Bookseller, in Edinburgh.

Edinburgh, March 23, 1827.

ALLEXANDER MACREDIE, Bookseller, in Edinburgh, Trustee on the sequestrated estate of the said William Stewart; intimates, that his accounts have been duly audited and approved by the Commissioners; that they have authorised a distribution or division of so much of the net proceeds of the yet realised estate, ascertained as at the 24th day of February last, to be made among the Creditors who, within the statutory period, have produced their claims and grounds of debt, with oaths of verity; and that the Trustee has prepared the draught of a scheme of ranking and division accordingly; which scheme, with the relative statutory states, will lie in the Trustee's hands, at his usual place of business, No. 11, South St. David-Street, Edinburgh, open for the inspection of the Creditors or their agents, for the space of one month, and on the 25th day of April next, being the next day after the expiration of one complete year, from the date of the first deliverance on the petition for sequestration, a first dividend of 6s. 3d. in the poundy contingent on a general acquiescence in the scheme, will be paid by the Trustee.
