NOTICE TO MARINERS.

Trinity-House, London, April 4, 1827.

A Buoy has been laid at the Outer Gabbard Shoal, in place of that recently broken adrift.

By order,

J. Herbert, Secretary.

WARWICKSHIRE MILITIA.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a General Meeting of the Lieutenancy of the county of Warwick will be held at the Judges' house, in the borough of Warwick, on Tuesday the 24th day of April instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, for carrying into execution the laws relating to the militia in that part of Great Britain called England.—Dated the 4th day of April 1827.

Tho. Wilmot, Clerk of the General Meetings.

IN pursuance of an Act, of the 55th George the Third, cap. 152, intituled "An Act for granting to His Majesty the sum of £20,000, to be issued and applied towards repairing roads between London and Holyhead by Chester, and between London and Bangor by Shrewsbury;" and of an Act of the 4th George the Fourth, cap. 74, intituled "An Act for vesting in Commissioners the bridges now building over the Menai Straits and the River Conway, and the harbours of Howth and Holyhead, and the road from Dublin to Howth; and for the further improvement of the road from London to Holyhead;" the Commissioners for carrying into execution the said Acts do hereby give notice, that they have determined that a new cut or piece of road, leaving the present road from London to Holyhead at a place called Whitley-bridge, in the county of the city of Coventry, and falling into the same road again at the village of Allesby, in the county of Warwick, shall be made and completed, pursuant to the provisions of the said recited Acts.

By order of the Commissioners,

A. Milne, Secretary.

Whitehall, April 4, 1827.

WHEREAS, by indenture, bearing date the 21st day of May, in the year 1750, Elizabeth Jones and the Rev. Charles Jones did grant and demise unto the Right Honourable Lord Baron Mornington, Chichester Fortescue, Samuel Bridges, and Theobald Wolfe, that plot of ground on the north side of Lazors'-hill, now Townsend-street, whereon the Westmorland Lock Hospital has since been erected, being in the county of the city of Dublin, to have and to hold unto them and the survivors and survivor of them, his heirs and assigns, for three lives therein named; with a covenant for perpetual renewal, at and under the rent and fines therein specified; and whereas by deed of renewal, made 3d January 1752, by and between the same parties, the life of the Honourable Garrett Wesley was substituted in place of that of His Royal Highness Frederick Prince of Wales, then late deceased, one of the lives named in said lease; and whereas all the said lessees and lives in said lease and renewal are long since dead, and the representatives or heirs or assigns of said lessees have not obtained a further renewal of said lease; and whereas all the right and interest of said lessors in and to the said premises is now vested in me, the undersigned; and whereas I have demanded on the said premises all arrears of fines and rent due out of said premises, pursuant to the Statute in such case made and provided; I hereby require the person or persons in whom the right to have a renewal of said recited lease is now vested, within two calendar months from the date hereof, to pay to me all arrears of fines and rent due out of said premises, and which I now hereby demand, otherwise I will for ever hereafter resist any claim that may be set up to a renewal under said lease.—Dated this 28th day of February 1827.

Charles Bowen.

To all persons concerned.

CONTRACT FOR TALLOW CANDLES.

Navy-Office, March 23, 1827.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 12th of April next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's several Dock-yards, or any one or more of them, with

Tallow Candles;

according to a distribution which, together with samples, and a form of the tender, may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £400, for the due performance of the contract.
