

third day of June one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four, hereby proposed to be revoked.

I do, therefore, further most humbly submit, whether your Majesty will not be graciously pleased also to revoke the said Order of the 30th of September 1825, and further to declare and direct that the produce of all such ships, vessels, boats, goods and other property of and taken from pirates, and likewise the several bounties payable under the said last mentioned Act, in respect of the crews of such piratical ships, vessels, and boats, and also in lieu of salvage, or in any other respect, shall be paid to and divided and distributed amongst the officers, seamen, marines, soldiers, and others, who shall have been actually on board any of your Majesty's ships or vessels of war, or hired armed ships, at the actual taking, sinking, burning, or otherwise destroying of any ship, vessel, or boat, manned by pirates or persons engaged in acts of piracy, in the same manner, form and proportion as is expressed in the general scheme hereinbefore proposed for the distribution of rewards payable under the laws for the prevention of smuggling; save and except that no flag officer, or other person not actually present at the capture or destruction of the pirate vessel, shall be entitled to share in any distribution of the bounty in respect of the crews of such piratical ships, vessels, and boats.

And whereas by another Order in Council, dated the fourteenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, your Majesty was graciously pleased to order and direct, that the proceeds, bounties, and other sums of money, payable under an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifth year of your Majesty's reign, cap. 113, intituled "An Act to amend and consolidate the laws relating to the abolition of the slave trade," to the commanders, officers, and crews of your Majesty's ships and vessels should be distributed and divided according to the rules and regulations directed and provided by the said Order in Council of the twenty-third day of June one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four, which is hereinbefore proposed to be revoked; I do, therefore, further most humbly propose, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased also to revoke the said Order in Council of the fourteenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven; and further to declare and direct, that all and every the proceeds, bounties, and other sums of money, which shall become payable to the officers, seamen, marines, and soldiers, on board your Majesty's ships and vessels of war, or hired armed ships, under and by virtue of the said Act, to amend and consolidate the laws relating to the abolition of the slave trade, in respect of captures and seizures made under the said Act, shall be divided and distributed amongst such officers, seamen, marines, and soldiers, in the same manner, form, and proportion, as is expressed in the general scheme hereinbefore set forth.

His Majesty, having taken the said report into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve thereof, and also of the scheme therein submitted for the future distribution of seizures amongst the officers, seamen, and marines of His Majesty's Fleet.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and His Royal Highness the Lord High Admiral, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.
Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 23d day of May 1827,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the twentieth November last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), has expired; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, for the transporting of the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf, first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties imposed in that behalf by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the general regulation of the Customs":

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Lord High Admiral, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.
