

one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 30th day of June 1827,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 38, intitled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the ballot or enrolment for the local militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia shall take place, but that such ballot and enrolment shall remain and continue suspended for the period specified in any such Order in Council, and from time to time by any like Order or Orders in Council, to continue such suspension so long as His Majesty shall deem the same expedient, any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding; and whereas by an Order in Council, made the twelfth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, it was ordered by His Majesty in Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia should take place for the space of one year from the sixteenth of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, but that the ballot should remain and continue suspended or the space of one year from the said sixteenth of July; and whereas it is deemed expedient to continue such suspension of the ballot and enrolment for the local militia for the space of one year from and after the sixteenth day of July in this year; it is, therefore, ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia do take place for the space of one year from and after the sixteenth day of July in this year, but that the ballot or enrolment for the local militia do remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from and after the sixteenth day of July next.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 10th day of May 1827,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS certain dues and duties are payable to His Majesty within the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, and Sark, upon the anchorage of foreign ships, vessels, and boats arriving at and casting anchor within the ports, roads, and havens of the said islands, commonly called anchorage dues; and which anchorage dues are not payable by or in respect of British ships, vessels, or boats arriving at and casting anchor within the said ports, roads, and havens; and whereas by certain

Treaties or Conventions of Commerce made and concluded by His Majesty with His Most Christian Majesty the King of France, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of January one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six; and with His Majesty the King of Denmark, bearing date the sixteenth day of June one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four; and with His Majesty the King of Prussia, bearing date the second day of April one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four; and with His Majesty as King of Hanover, bearing date the twelfth day of June one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four; and with His Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway, bearing date the eighteenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six; and with the United States of America, bearing date the third day of July one thousand eight hundred and fifteen; and with the Free Hanseatic Republics, bearing date the twenty-ninth day of September one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five; and with the State of Columbia, bearing date the eighteenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five; and with the United Provinces of Rio de la Plata, bearing date the second day of February one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, it is, amongst other things, agreed, that during the continuance of such Treaties respectively, vessels of and belonging to the subjects of the before-mentioned foreign Sovereigns and States, entering or departing from the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports; His Majesty, being desirous to carry the said Treaties into full execution and effect, is pleased, with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that during the continuance of the before-mentioned Treaties or Conventions of Commerce respectively, and so long as the same shall respectively remain in force, the before-mentioned anchorage dues heretofore levied or claimed in the said islands of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, and Sark, on ships, vessels, and boats of or belonging to the subjects of His Most Christian Majesty, or of His Majesty the King of Denmark, or of His Majesty the King of Prussia, or of His Majesty as King of Hanover, or of His Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway, or of the United States of America, or of the Free Hanseatic Republics, or of the State of Columbia, or of the United Provinces of Rio de la Plata, shall be and the same are hereby repealed, abolished, and remitted, any law, custom, or usage, now or at any time heretofore in force in the said islands, or any of them, to the contrary notwithstanding; provided always, that nothing in this present Order contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any ships, vessels, or boats of or belonging to the subjects of the United Provinces of Rio de la Plata, not being of the burthen of above one hundred and twenty tons, such ships, vessels or boats, not being included within the said Treaty with the said United Provinces, of the second of February one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five: and it is further ordered, that the said anchorage dues shall in like manner be and the same are hereby repealed, abolished, and remitted in favour of the ships, vessels, and boats of or belonging to the subjects of any
