

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1827.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 3d day of September 1827,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into, or exportation from, the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into, or exported from, the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported into, or exported from, such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported in vessels of such country:

And whereas by an Act, passed in the fifth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act

" to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council for regulating the tonnage duties on certain foreign vessels, and to amend an Act of the last session of Parliament for authorising His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases) by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of similar British vessels:

And whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the ports of the United Provinces of Rio de la Plata, the State of Colombia, and the United States of Mexico respectively, are charged with the same duties and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported or exported, in British vessels as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported into or exported from the said ports in vessels of the said United Provinces of Rio de la Plata, and of the said State of Colombia, and of the said United States of Mexico respectively; and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the ports of Rio de la Plata, Colombia, and Mexico respectively, than are levied on vessels of the said United Provinces of Rio de la Plata, the said State of Colombia, and the said United States of Mexico respectively:

His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is, therefore, pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order, vessels of the United Provinces of Rio de la Plata, of the State of Colombia, and of the United States of Mexico respectively, entering the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in ballast, or laden direct from any of the ports of Rio de la Plata, Colombia, and Mexico respectively, or departing from the ports of the said United Kingdom, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into, or exported from, such ports in British vessels; and also that such articles, when exported from the said ports in vessels of the United Provinces of Rio de la Plata, of the State of Colombia, and of the United States of Mexico respectively, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels:

Provided nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any duties or charges on account of tonnage, light or harbour dues, pilotage, salvage in case of damage or shipwreck, or any other local charges to which any vessels of the United Provinces of Rio de la Plata, of the burthen of one hundred and twenty tons, or of any less burthen, are now by law liable in the ports of any of His Majesty's dominions; it appearing to His Majesty and His Privy Council, that British vessels, of the burthen of one hundred and twenty tons, or of any less burthen, are subject in the ports of the said United Provinces to higher duties and charges than are levied in those ports on vessels of the said United Provinces of the burthen of one hundred and twenty tons or of any less burthen.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 3d day of September 1827,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make provision for ascertaining from time to time the average prices of British corn," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that for the purpose of ascertaining the average price of corn and grain sold within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders to be by him made, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to direct that the provisions of the said Act, so far as regards the "appointment of inspectors and the making of weekly returns, shall be applicable to any cities or towns within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, which shall be named in any such Order or Orders in Council;" and it is thereby provided, "that the returns so received from such towns shall not be admitted into the averages made up for the purpose of regulating the bringing into home consumption foreign corn, grain, meal, or flour."

His Majesty, in pursuance of the said Act, and in exercise of the powers and authorities thereby vested in him as aforesaid, was this day pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the provisions of the said Act, so far as respects the appointment of inspectors and the making of weekly returns, shall be applicable to the several cities and towns hereinafter mentioned, that is to say;

Uxbridge.	Reading.
Hertford.	Oxford.
Royston.	Wakefield.
Northampton.	Warminster.
Leicester.	Birmingham.
Nottingham.	Leeds.
Worcester.	Newark.
Coventry.

Edinburgh.	Haddington.
Glasgow.	Dumfries.
Aberdeen.	Dundee.

Dublin.	Limerick.
Cork.	Belfast.
Waterford.	Sligo.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council appointed for the consideration of all matters relating to Trade and Foreign Plantations, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 30th day of April 1827,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the sixth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders in Council, to be issued from time to time, to give such directions, and make such regulations, touching the trade and commerce to and from any British possessions on or near the Continent of Europe, or within the Mediterranean Sea, or in Africa, or within the limits of the East India Company's Charter, excepting the possessions.

of the said Company, as to His Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient or salutary; and it is further enacted, that if any goods shall be imported or exported in any manner contrary to such Order of His Majesty in Council, the same shall be forfeited, together with the ship importing or exporting the same: And whereas it is expedient, in pursuance of the powers vested in His Majesty by the said Act of Parliament, to make some temporary regulations touching the trade and commerce to and from the British possessions aforesaid, within the limits of the East India Company's Charter, until permanent regulations in that behalf can be finally made and established; His Majesty is therefore pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the authority in Him vested in and by the said Act of Parliament, to order and direct, and it is hereby ordered, that the trade and commerce of His Majesty's settlements and territories at the Cape of Good Hope, and of His Majesty's island of Mauritius, and of His Majesty's island of Ceylon, and of His Majesty's settlements and territories in New South Wales, and of His Majesty's island of Van Dieman's Land, with the respective dependencies thereof, shall, from and after the arrival of this present Order within any of the said several settlements, territories, and islands, be regulated in the manner following, that is to say, all such laws, rules, orders, and regulations as were in force within the settlements, territories, and islands aforesaid, or any of them, for the regulation of the trade and commerce thereof, upon the first day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, shall, until further order be made by His Majesty in this behalf, revive and continue, and be of full force, virtue, and effect within the several settlements, territories, and islands aforesaid respectively; and if any goods shall be imported or exported in any manner contrary hereto, such goods, together with the ship importing or exporting the same, shall incur and become liable to such forfeiture as in the said Act of Parliament is mentioned in that behalf: provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to contravene, vary, alter, or in any wise affect the said Act of Parliament, so far as the same hath made express provision respecting the trade to and from the said island of Mauritius, or respecting the exportation of sugar or wine from any British possession within the limits of the East India Company's Charter, nor so far as the said Act of Parliament hath expressly mentioned or referred to the trade of any of His Majesty's possessions within the limits aforesaid: provided also, that nothing in this present Order contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to contravene, vary, alter, or in any wise affect two other Acts of Parliament, passed in the sixth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled respectively "An Act for the encouragement of British shipping and navigation," and "An Act for the registering of British vessels," or any other Acts or Act passed in amendment of any of the Acts hereinbefore mentioned: provided also, that nothing in this present Order contained shall be construed to revoke, abrogate, or any wise alter certain Orders of His Majesty in Council respecting the trade of France, and of the United-States of America respectively, bearing date the first of June one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, and the twenty-seventh of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, and the sixteenth of December one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, or to infringe or interfere with any Treaties of Commerce or Navigation entered into by His Majesty with any Foreign State or Power:

And the Right Honourable Viscount Goderich, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

At the Court at St. James's, the 23d day of May 1827,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the twentieth November last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), has expired; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, for the transporting of the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties imposed in that behalf by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the general regulation of the Customs:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Lord High Admiral, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

ALL persons having any claims against the estate of the late Mrs. Triphena Hodge Smale, late of East Smithfield, in the Parish of St. Botolph-Without, Aldgate, Butcher, deceased, are requested to forward the particulars thereof to Mr. James Richard Thompson, Solicitor, No. 10, George-Street, Minorities, on or before the 31st day of October next, or in default thereof they will be excluded from any benefit under the said estate.

NOTICE.

Maidstone, October 1, 1827.

ALL persons to whom Edward Homewood, late of Boxley and Maidstone, in the County of Kent, Esq. deceased, formerly a Captain in His Majesty's Third Regiment of Dragoon Guards (and who died at Boulogne-sur-Mer on the 7th of August last), stood indebted at the time of his death, are requested by the Administratrix of the deceased to transmit an account of their demands immediately to Messrs. Scudamore and Wildes, Solicitors, Maidstone, that they may be examined and discharged; and all persons indebted to the estate of the deceased are desired by his Administratrix to pay the amount of their debts forthwith to Messrs. Scudamore and Wildes.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Andrew v. Andrew, with the approbation of James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public-Sale-Room of the said Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on the 2d day of November 1827, at Two of the Clock in the Afternoon, in five lots;

Consisting of freehold and copyhold estates, situate at Southminster and Burnham, in the County of Essex, and four annuities, three of which are secured on lands in Essex and Norfolk, and the fourth on money in the funds, together with three policies of assurance in the Union-Office, Cornhill, for £3000 on the lives during which the annuities are payable.

Printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; of Mr. Wilson, Solicitor, No. 9, King's-Bench-Walk, Temple, London; and of Mr. Thomas Andrew, Solicitor, Great Coggleshall, Essex.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Foster against Fowler, the Creditors of John Fowler, late of Birmingham, in the County of Warwick, Grocer, deceased (who died in or about the month of August 1826), are, on or before the 1st day of November 1827, to come in and prove their debts before the Honourable Robert Henley Eden, one of the Masters of the said Court, at His Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Robert Robson, of Hanley, in the County of Stafford, Grocer, Chandler, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Wednesday the 17th day of October instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the Swan Inn, in Hanley aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the said Bankrupt's stock in trade, household furniture and other personal-effects, by private contract, and upon credit, if they shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees abandoning and giving up, or selling for the benefit of the Creditors, the lease of the said Bankrupt's dwelling-house and shop, and the unexpired term therein, and as to their selling by private contract the Bankrupt's real estate, in case the same should not be sold by auction, and also as to the said Assignees employing a person to collect and get in the outstanding debts due to the said Bankrupt, and making a remuneration for the same, and also as to the said Assignees bringing actions at law, for the recovery of debts owing to the said Bankrupt's estate, from certain persons to be named at the meeting; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against James Winwood Coster, of Princes-Street, Spitalfields, in the County of Middlesex; Drysalter, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet James Browne and Thomas Baynham, the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Tuesday the 30th day of October instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees compounding, settling, and adjusting a certain debt due to the said Bankrupt from a person, to be named at the meeting, amounting to £366 15s. 11d. by taking the sum of £50 in full satisfaction of the same.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Wood, of the Town of Cardiff, in the County of Glamorgan, late Banker, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 30th day of October instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the Angel Inn, in the Town of Cardiff aforesaid, to consider the pro-piety of prosecuting any further a certain suit in equity already commenced by the said Assignees (with the authority of the said Creditors) against the said Bankrupt and others; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees abandoning the same, or referring the subject matters thereof, or any of them, to arbitration.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against James Richardson, of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman (surviving Partner of Joseph Hibberson, deceased, and formerly carrying on trade with him under the firm of Joseph Hibberson and Company), are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 26th day of October instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the Office of Messrs. Radcliffe and Duncan, Solicitors, Exchange-Street West, in Liverpool aforesaid, to take into consideration a compromise proposed by Philip Robert Yonge of the questions between him individually, and as a partner in the late house of Yonge, Richardson, and Company, and the estate of the said Bankrupt, and to consent thereto or to dissent therefrom; and if dissented from, to determine upon what compromise (if any) ought to be accepted; and to consent to or dissent from a suit in Chancery being prosecuted by the Assignees against the said Philip Robert Yonge and his partners, under the late firm of Yonge, Richardson, and Company, if compromise with him be dissented from or cannot be effected; and also to take into consideration whether claims made by Thomas Tobin on the said Bankrupt's estate should be submitted to arbitration, and to consent thereto or dissent therefrom; and also to consent to or dissent from the Assignees compounding with a debtor to the estate, whose name, with all particulars necessary to be laid before the Creditors in respect to him, will be stated at the meeting, and may be known, in the mean time, on application to Messrs. Radcliffe and Duncan, the Solicitors to the Assignees.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Alfred Kendall, of Pater Noster-Row, in the City of London, Silk-Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman (trading under the firm of T. A. Kendall and Co.), are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on Monday the 29th day of October instant, at half-past Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees accepting an offer made for the purchase of the share and interest of the said Bankrupt of and in a certain patent, and to the said Assignees giving time for the payment of the purchase money; and, in case of need, to confirm an agreement or treaty in progress for the disposal of the same; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Stephen Beuzeville, of Henley-upon-Thames, in the County of Oxford, of Hulstead and Braintre, in the County of Essex, and of Basinghall-Street, London, Silk-Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman (carrying on trade under the firm of Beuzeville and Co.), are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Monday the 29th day of October instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of, by private contract or public auction, all and singular or any part of the freehold, copyhold, or leasehold and other estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, and to the said Assignees giving time for the payment of the respective purchase monies for the same; also to assent to the said Assignees accepting an offer made for the purchase of a certain copyhold mill and premises, with the machinery and engine therein, at Hulstead, in the County of Essex, and to the said Assignees giving time for the payment of the purchase money, and, in case of need, to confirm an agreement or treaty in progress for the disposal of the same; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying in full the wages of the clerks, shopmen, and servants of the said Bankrupt, if the said Assignees shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees manufacturing the stock of silk of the said Bankrupt, and paying the costs of such manufacturing out of the said Bankrupt's estate, and when so manufactured selling or disposing of the same in such manner and for such price or prices, and upon such credit or security as the said Assignees shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying, out of the said Bankrupt's estate, all costs, charges, and expences incurred in and about and for the benefit of the said Bankrupt's estate, previous to and since the issuing of the said Commission; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing or prosecuting any action or actions at law, or taking any such other proceeding or proceedings as they may be advised, against the Sheriff of Oxfordshire, or such other person or persons as may be liable, for the recovery of the effects of the said Bankrupt at Henley-upon-Thames aforesaid, taken, seized, and sold by the said Sheriff, under a writ of fieri facias, or for the recovery of the value of such effects; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing an accountant, agent, or other person or persons for making up the accounts of the said Bankrupt and his estate, and collecting and getting in the same, and to their making such allowance or remuneration to such accountant, agent, or other person or persons as the said Assignees may think reasonable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees compounding any debt owing to the said Bankrupt's estate, or allowing time for the payment thereof in such manner as the said Assignees shall think proper; and also to their commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, for the recovery or protection of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, or any part thereof; and also to their compounding, compromising, or submitting to arbitration, any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Pooley the elder and John Pooley the younger, of Hulme, in the County of Lancaster, Cotton-Spinners, Dealers, Chapman, and Copartners, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Monday the 29th day of October instant, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Office of Alexander Kay, in Brown-Street, in Manchester aforesaid, in order to accept or reject an offer of composition already made by the said John Pooley the elder and John Pooley the younger to the said Assignees, and intended to be submitted to the Creditors attending the said meeting; or to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees, in lieu of such composition, and instead thereof, selling and disposing of, to the said John Pooley the elder and John Pooley the younger, or either of them, the factories formerly occupied by the said Bankrupts, situate in Hulme aforesaid, with the machinery therein, as well as the buildings thereunto belonging, and other the property now under the controul of the said Assignees, as part of or arising from the said Bankrupts' estate, upon such terms and credit, and with or without security for the price, as to the said Assignees shall seem expedient, for the benefit of the said Creditors; and to the said Assignees entering into such agreements and arrangements as may in their judgment be most advisable for carrying either of the said objects into effect, or for accomplishing any purpose connected therewith, or which shall arise thereout; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed;

“ and no Docket shall be struck upon such act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:”—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 20th day of June 1827, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act by THOMAS POTTS, of Rotherhithe-Wall, in the Parish of Rotherhithe, in the County of Surrey, Baker, that he is in insolvent circumstances and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

And on the 4th day of October 1827, by SAMUEL HAYES the younger, of Henrietta-Street, Covent-Garden, in the County of Middlesex, Bookseller, that he is unable to meet his engagements with his Creditors.

WHEREAS a Commission of Bankrupt, bearing date on or about the 10th day of February 1827, was awarded and issued forth against Thomas Willmott, of Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, Wine and Spirit-Merchant, Dealer and Chapman; this is to give notice, that the said Commission is, under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, superseded.
