

Whitehall, November 3, 1827.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about three o'clock on the morning of Wednesday the 24th of October last, a corn stack, containing about fifty quarters of oats and fifteen quarters of wheat, belonging to Mr. John Abbott, of Ospringe, in the county of Kent, was maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons, and that the greater part of the same was consumed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said stack) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

LANSDOWNNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid, on conviction, by the said Mr. John Abbott, of Ospringe.

Whitehall, November 13, 1827.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that in the evening of Wednesday the 19th of September last, an outrageous assault was committed at Swanage, within the port of Poole, in the county of Dorset, upon the persons of the Chief Officer and crew, while employed in their duty at the said place in the prevention of smuggling, by a gang of about 70 smugglers, most of whom were armed with fire-arms, swords and swingles, and that the said Chief Officer and several of the crew were severely wounded;

His Majesty, for the better discovering of the offenders concerned in the commission of this outrage, is hereby pleased to offer His most gracious pardon to any one or more of them present at and aiding in such outrage (save and except those who actually assaulted and beat the said Chief Officer and crew) who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and brought to justice.

LANSDOWNNE.

And the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby offer a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS to any person or persons, who shall make such discovery (save and except as aforesaid) the same to be paid by the Collector of His Majesty's Customs at the said port of Poole on the conviction of the offenders, or any of them.

T. Whitmore,

Secretary to the Commissioners of Customs.
