

evening last, some person, supposed to be connected with the said burglary, feloniously fired a gun or pistol, the ball from which passed through the coat of a young gentleman, within a few yards of the house of the said Reverend Samuel Rogers, for whom there is strong ground to believe the offender mistook the object of his attack;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony last mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired such gun or pistol) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

LANSDOWNE.

And further, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as aforesaid) who shall give such information as may lead to the conviction of the said offender or offenders; and a further reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any person or persons who shall give such information as may lead to the conviction of the person or persons who burglariously entered the dwelling-house of the said Reverend Samuel Rogers, on Sunday night, October 28, 1827; to be paid on application to the Reverend Samuel Rogers.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act for erecting, building, and maintaining a bridge of suspension over the River Thames, at or near a place called Millbank-row, in the parish of St. John the Evangelist, Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, to the opposite side of the said river, in the parish of Saint Mary, Lambeth, in the county of Surrey, with proper and convenient roads, avenues, and approaches thereto; and also for making and maintaining a public carriage road to the said bridge from, at or near to Eaton-street, Pimlico, or Arabella-row, Pimlico, in the said county of Middlesex, through lands and grounds in the several parishes of Saint John the Evangelist aforesaid, Saint Margaret, Westminster, and Saint George, Hanover-square, in the said county of Middlesex.

William Yatman, Solicitor.

77, Great Russell-street, Bloomsbury.

London Docks.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to revive and extend the powers contained in an Act, passed in the thirtieth and fortieth years of the reign of His late Majesty, King George the Third, intituled "An Act for making wet docks, basons, cuts, and other works, for the greater accommodation and security of shipping, commerce, and revenue, within the port of London," and in the several other Acts since passed for altering and amending the same, and enlarging the powers and authorities thereby granted, and that the Act for which such application is so intended to be made as aforesaid, will be for the purpose of enabling the London Dock Company now to make an additional entrance to the said Docks, which was authorised by the first mentioned Act, to be made at or near Shadwell Dock, in the parish of Saint Paul's, Shadwell, otherwise called Saint Paul, Shadwell, alias Chadswell, in the county of Middlesex; and to purchase lands, tenements, and hereditaments, necessary to the making such entrance and the works connected therewith; and to the completing and improving the said Docks and the entrances thereto, and the works connected with the same, and the accommodations afforded thereby; and for the purpose of giving time for such completion and improvement; and to authorize the said Company to raise a further sum of money for the purposes aforesaid: and notice is hereby further given, that the premises required for the said purposes, and to which such revised and extended powers are proposed to be applied, are situated within the several parishes following (that is to say), the parish of Saint Botolph Without, Aldgate, in the manor of East Smithfield, otherwise called Saint Botolph Without, Aldgate, East Smithfield; the parish of Saint John, of Wapping; the parish of Saint George, Middlesex, commonly called Saint George in the East; and the aforesaid parish of Saint Paul's, Shadwell, otherwise called Saint Paul, Shadwell, alias Chadswell, all within the Tower Hamlets, and in the county of Middlesex.—Dated this 27th day of October 1827.
