

named; all sums of money incurred by him in respect of the costs and charges of a certain action against the Bankrupt, and of execution against, and seizure of, the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt thereunder, and which execution such Creditor was induced to forego, and also to bring into the common fund of the Bankrupt's estate the property seized by him thereunder; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees allowing such Creditor all sums of money paid and expended by him for and in respect of an action relating to the choice of the Assignees under the said Commission, and of employing Counsel thereon; and upon other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Lush and William Lush, late of High Holborn, in the County of Middlesex, Distillers and Rectifiers, Copartners, Dealers and Chapmen (surviving Partners of Sarah Lush, deceased, trading under the firm of Sarah Lush and Sons), are desired to meet the Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on Friday the 7th day of December next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling, by private contract, and according to a valuation made by Messrs. Winstanley and Sons, the right and interest of the said Assignee to and in several pieces or parcels of freehold and copyhold land, at Wandsworth, in the County of Surrey; in the occupation of James Morris, Esq.; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling, either by public auction or private contract, and according to any valuation to be hereafter made by the said Messrs. Winstanley and Sons, or any other auctioneers or valuers of estates, all and every or any such other estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, at Wandsworth, or elsewhere, as may remain to be sold or disposed of under the said Commission; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against James Kent, of Great Cambridge-Street, Hackney-Road, in the County of Middlesex, Builder, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 10th of December next, at Twelve at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of all or any part of the leasehold estate, stock in trade, household furniture, and effects of the said Bankrupt, either by public auction or private contract, or by valuation or appraisement, payable at such periods or period, and upon personal or other security as the Assignees may think proper, but at the risk of the estate, to accept, and if by public auction to buy in and resell the same if the Assignees shall think fit; employing an accountant, clerk, or other persons, to investigate the books and accounts of the Bankrupt, and collect the debts due to the estate, and make such allowance or compensation for the same as the said Assignees may think proper; surrendering or abandoning the Bankrupt's interest in any leasehold property that the Assignees may think proper to accept; paying off, out of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, any mortgage or mortgages, or making such compromise or arrangement relative to any mortgage granted by the Bankrupt as the said Assignees may think expedient; paying all or any of the mortgages, rent, taxes, rates, and charges due and to become due on the houses of and belonging to, or rented or let by, the Bankrupt; compounding any debt or debts due to the estate of the said Bankrupt; to have private meetings for the examination of the Bankrupt and of divers persons, as shall be named at the said meeting; commencing, prosecuting, or defending any actions, suits, or proceedings at law or in equity that the Assignees may think necessary, for the recovery, defending, or protection of the Bankrupt's estate and effects; and submitting to arbitration, compromising, or settling any accounts, differences, disputes, or other matters relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Samuel Shelley, late of Qulton, in the Parish of Stone, in the County of Stafford, Flint-Grinder, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Monday the 10th day of December next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Bell and Bear Inn, in Stone, in the said County of Stafford, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying or otherwise satisfying certain claims made by a younger brother of the said Bankrupt and two of his sisters, or their representatives, upon the said Bankrupt's estate in respect of part of the purchase money alleged to be yet unpaid to them for an estate sold to the said Bankrupt by all his younger brothers and sisters in the year 1818; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying or allowing, out of the said Bankrupt's estate, the bill of the Solicitor of the said Samuel Shelley contracted immediately before he became a Bankrupt; also to their paying, or allowing sundry small sums of money advanced by such Solicitor to or for the use of the said Bankrupt and his estate a short time previous to his Bankruptcy; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, for the recovery and protection of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, or any part thereof; or to his compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Ronch, of the Parish of Saint George, in the County of Gloucester, Brick-Maker, Lime-Burner, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Saturday the 8th day of December next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the Office of Mr. John Cornish, Solicitor, situate in Baldwin-Street, Bristol, to affirm or disaffirm the conduct of the said Assignees in having carried on the said Bankrupt's trade, and employed an accountant to examine and investigate the said Bankrupt's books and accounts, and making out and stating the same, and to collect debts, and to their having paid various sums of money for or on account thereof respectively; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees continuing to carry on the said trades for the benefit of the said Bankrupt's estate, and to pay the expenses attending the same; and to their continuing to employ such accountant for the purposes aforesaid, and paying him for such employment such sum or sums of money as may be deemed reasonable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing of all or any part of the said Bankrupt's freehold and personal estate, stock in trade, household goods, and other effects, in one or more lot or lots, either by private contract or public auction, and to buy in the same at such auction, if they shall think fit, and resell the same in manner aforesaid, and to their giving credit, and accepting such security or securities for the purchase monies of the said premises as they may think proper; and also to their paying certain Solicitors, to be named at such meeting, certain sums of money due to them from the said Bankrupt, or some other person or persons, for their bills of costs, for which they have liens on certain deeds and writings in their possession, relative to part of the said Bankrupt's real or personal estate, in order to get such deeds and writings out of their possession; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees reviving and prosecuting, in their own names, a suit in His Majesty's High Court of Chancery commenced by the Bankrupt, before his Bankruptcy, against certain persons, to be named at such meeting, for recovery of a bond debt of £200, and upwards, due to the said Bankrupt's estate, or to prosecute such suit in the name of the Bankrupt, as they may be advised; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing and prosecuting a suit in His said Majesty's said Court of Chancery against a certain other person, who was a Trustee for the said Bankrupt, and who will also be named at such meeting, for recovery of one third part of £400, and upwards, for principal and interest due from such person to the said Bankrupt's estate; and also another suit in the same Court against certain other persons, who will be named at such meeting, for recovery of the Bankrupt's one third part of several messuages, buildings, and land, situate in the Parish of Clifton, in the County of Gloucester, or the purchase monies thereof, under some valid or pretended contract set up by such persons for the purchase of the said one third part, with interest for the same; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions at law, or any other suit or suits in equity other than the suits before mentioned, as may be deemed expedient, for the recovery, preservation, or defence of any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees submitting to arbitration, compounding, or compromising all or any or either of the disputes or suits before mentioned, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto respectively; and on other special affairs.