

John Graves, of Barley, in the county of Devon, deceased, by Elizabeth his wife, formerly Elizabeth Sawle, also deceased, His royal licence and authority, that the said Joseph-Sawle Sawle and his issue may, from a feeling of grateful and affectionate respect for the memory of his late father, the said Rear-Admiral John Graves, take and henceforth use his paternal name of Graves in addition to and before that of Sawle; that he may be called Joseph-Sawle Graves-Sawle; and that he and his said issue may bear the arms of Graves, quarterly in the second quarter, with the arms of Sawle; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And His Majesty has been also pleased to command, that this His concession and declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

Whitehall, November 22, 1827.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed George Joseph Twiss, of Cambridge, in the county of Cambridge, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, December 4, 1827.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of the 24th, or early on the morning of the 25th ultimo, sixteen sheep, eight the property of Mr. Knight, and eight the property of Mr. Boss, of the parish of Stathern, in the county of Leicester, were slaughtered by some evil-disposed person or persons;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually killed the said sheep) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

LANSDOWNE.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by the said Messrs. Knight and Boss.

FOR SALE IN SCOTLAND.

The following Property at Jessfield, Newhaven.

Navy-Office, November 29, 1827.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that there will be sold by public roup, within the Royal Exchange Coffee-house, Edinburgh, on Wednesday the 16th of January next, at two o'clock in the afternoon (if not previously disposed of by private bargain);

The whole of the property at Jessfield and Ann-field, Newhaven, belonging to the Naval Department, consisting of upwards of nine imperial acres, with the whole of the houses and other buildings, &c. thereon, and feu duties attached thereto.

The property at Jessfield being within a ring fence, and bounded by common roads, is admirably adapted for feuing in various lots for erecting villas. The situation of the ground, which has a gentle acivity from the sea shore of the Firth of Forth, east of the town of Newhaven, and about two miles from Edinburgh, is commanding, the air salubrious, and the houses forming part of the property, called Annfield, are well known as sea bathing quarters, being close to the best possible accommodation in this respect. The neighbourhood is an improving one, and water from the New Edinburgh Water Company is about to be brought to the property, by which a constant supply will be at all times certain. In short, this desirable property possesses capability beyond any in the vicinity, and cannot fail to command a preference as admirably adapted for building, with the best prospect of considerable pecuniary advantages.

The houses at the top of the Whale-Brae are substantially built and in good repair, having each a coach-house and two-stalled stables.

The tenement lately erected for the Port Admiral's Office, nearly adjoining, and now occupied as a dwelling house, is in the same complete condition.

The land is at present principally let for garden-ground, to yearly tenants, part whereof is a walled garden, well stocked with fruit trees; and the houses of Annfield are respectably tenanted and in good condition.

The rents of the whole property will reasonably admit of increase ere long.

The whole of the above property will be exposed in one lot, or in such lots as shall be pointed out to intending purchasers.

For further particulars application may be made to Mr. Day, Naval Officer, Naval-yard, Leith; or to Mr. Alexander Greig, Writer to the Signet, Edinburgh. G. Smith.

IN obedience to an order of the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen, dated the 27th day of November 1827, made in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the forty-fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, cap. 27, intituled "An Act for raising an additional sum of money for carrying into execution several Acts for widening the entrance into the city of London near Temple-bar, for making a more commodious street or passage at Snow-hill, and for raising, on the credit of the Orphan's Fund, certain sums of money for those purposes, and also for enlarging the powers of the said Acts;" and of a certain other Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifty-second year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for increasing the fund for watching, lighting, cleansing, watering, and repairing Blacktriars-bridge;" I do hereby give notice, that between the hours of ten in the forenoon and two in the afternoon, on the 27th day of May next ensuing, at my Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, in Guildhall, London, the principal sums of money, together with all interest due on the said 27th
