

further pleasure respecting them shall be made known.

And with a view to prevent, as much as possible, any hardships or inconveniences that may arise in the execution of this Order, as it may effect any Greek cruizer which, being at sea at the time when this Order will take effect in the Mediterranean, may not receive immediate notification thereof, it is further ordered that the Commanders of His Majesty's ships, who may be charged with the execution of this Order, shall, in the event of their meeting with any armed vessels at sea, bearing the Greek flag, that may be liable to the operation of this Order between the day upon which the Order shall be notified to the persons exercising the authorities of Government in Greece, and fifteen days from the date thereof, furnish them with certified copies of this Order, and warn them to proceed forthwith to their respective ports; and that such armed vessels shall not be detained until the expiration of the said fifteen days, unless it shall appear that after such notification of the Order and warning they shall not have complied therewith, or shall have been guilty of plundering or searching any trading vessel under the British flag:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and His Royal Highness the Lord High Admiral, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 16th day of November 1827,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make provision for ascertaining from time to time the average prices of British corn," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that for the purpose of ascertaining the average price of corn and grain sold within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders to be by him made, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to direct that the provisions of the said Act, so far as regards the appointment of inspectors and the making of weekly returns, shall be applicable to any cities or towns within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, which shall be named in any such Order or Orders in Council;" and it is thereby provided, "that the returns so received from such towns shall not be admitted into the average made up for the purpose of regulating the bringing into home consumption foreign corn, grain, meal, or flour."

His Majesty, in pursuance of the said Act, and in exercise of the powers and authorities the by vested in him as aforesaid, was this day pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the provisions of the said Act, so far as respects the appointment of inspectors and the making of weekly returns, shall be applicable to the town of Galway, in Ireland:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council appointed for the consideration of all matters relating to Trade and Foreign Plantations, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.
