

Honourable William Huskisson, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 16th day of November 1827,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that certain ports, therein particularly mentioned, in the island of Jamaica, and in the provinces of Nova Scotia, Canada, and New Brunswick, and in the island of Barbadoes, shall be free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act, and it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America to be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act; and that every such port, so appointed by His Majesty, shall be a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same, in as full and ample a manner in all respects as any of the ports thereinbefore mentioned and are free warehousing ports appointed by the said Act:

And whereas, His Majesty doth deem it expedient that certain other ports in His Majesty's possessions in America should be appointed free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in him vested in and by the said Act of Parliament, order and appoint that the following ports in His Majesty's possessions in America shall be respectively free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act, that is to say, port of Spain, in the island of Trinidad; Nassau, in the island of New Providence; Montego Bay, in the island of Jamaica; Roseau, in the island of Dominica; and Saint Andrews, in the province of New Brunswick:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable William Huskisson, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 16th day of November 1827,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make provision for ascertaining from time to time the average price of British corn," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that for the purpose of ascertaining the average price of corn and grain sold within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders to be by him made, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to direct that the provisions of the said Act, so far as regards the appointment of inspectors and the making of weekly returns, shall be applicable to any cities or towns within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, which shall be named in any such Order or Orders in Council;" and it is thereby provided, "that the returns so received from such towns shall not be admitted into the average made up for the purpose of regulating the bringing into home consumption foreign corn, grain, meal, or flour:"

His Majesty, in pursuance of the said Act, and in exercise of the powers and authorities thereby vested in him as aforesaid, was this day pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the provisions of the said Act, so far as respects the appointment of inspectors and the making of weekly returns, shall be applicable to the town of Galway, in Ireland:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council appointed for the consideration of all matters relating to Trade and Foreign Plantations, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of October 1827,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the twenty-third of May last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar), will expire on the twenty-third day of November next; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, and command, that no person or persons whatever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the twenty-third of November next), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, for the trans-
