

Spilby, in the County of Lincoln, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing of, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction, and partly by private contract, and in such lots, parcels, way, and manner, as they shall think best, all and every or any of the freehold and leasehold estates in or to which the said Bankrupt, or any person or persons in trust for him at the time he became Bankrupt, had any estate, right, title, or interest whatsoever, subject to such conditions, and upon such terms, as the said Assignees may think fit, and from time to time to buy in, and afterwards to resell the said estates, or any of them, or any part or parts thereof, at such times and in such manner as they shall think fit, without being answerable or accountable for any loss or expence which may be occasioned by such buying in or selling; also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, concerning the said Bankrupt's estate or effects; or compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing and exercising a discretionary power in all or any matters or things relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Joseph Ashton and Samuel Ashton, of Stockport, in the County of Chester, Cotton-Spinners, Dealers, Chapmen, and Copartners, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects, on the 30th day of January instant, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of Messrs. Kay and Darbshire, Solicitors, in Marsden-Street, in Manchester, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing of the household goods and furniture and other the separate personal estate and effects of the said Bankrupts respectively, to such person or persons as they may think fit, by private contract, or by valuation, or otherwise, and at such price or prices, and upon such terms of payment as they may think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees entering into such arrangement as they shall think expedient with the equitable mortgagees of certain parts of the real estate of the said Bankrupts for the sale to them of the interest of the said Assignees in two certain sub-rents of £9 10s. and £3 9s. or selling the same sub-rents to any person or persons, by private contract, or otherwise, or by valuation, or for such sum or sums of money as they may think reasonable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, concerning the said Bankrupts' estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and generally to confirm and allow all acts done by the said Assignees concerning the said estate and effects; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Atkinson, of Oxford-Street in the County of Middlesex, Oilman, Shopkeeper, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignee of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Wednesday the 16th day of January instant, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee paying the clerks and servants of the Bankrupt, their wages in full, paying certain extra expences incurred by the petitioning Creditor, and other expences, to be named at the meeting, out of the estate, selling the Bankrupt's stock, debts and effects, and his interest in certain freehold and leasehold property, in the whole or in part, by public or private sale, on such terms and credit, with or without security, and in such manner and form as the Assignee may deem meet, and to the Assignee concurring in any sale of such freehold or leasehold property by the mortgagee in such premises, and in such way as the Assignee may approve or otherwise releasing the equity of redemption in such property mortgaged by the Bankrupt in such manner and terms as the Assignee may think advisable; and to or from the said Assignee having power to buy in and resell all or any part of the said estate and effects without liability to loss in respect thereof, instituting proceedings abroad or in this country, for recovering property or debts due or belonging to the estate, and executing any process of attorney or other authorities for the purpose, in the Assignee's directing, paying out, resisting, or settling for any execution or executions levied on the Bankrupt's effects on such terms and in such manner as the Assignee may deem meet; and to or from his commencing, prosecuting, defending, appearing, or soliciting, or discontinuing, releasing, or ending any such action, petition, or other proceeding in his discretion, employing the Bankrupt in any way relating to his affairs under the Commission, and paying him for the same, for services already rendered, or on any other account, in the Assignee's discretion, such allowance out of his estate as the Assignee may think fit; to or from the Assignee carrying on at the risk of the Bankrupt's estate his trade, and buying and selling therein until the stock and effects are otherwise disposed of, paying in full any debts on bonds, bills, or other securities, or on any other account in the Assignee's discretion; and the Creditors, together with any other Creditors who previously to the time after-mentioned may prove debts under the said Commission, are requested to meet the said Assignee at the place aforesaid, on Wednesday the 30th day of January instant, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon of the said last-mentioned day, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee compounding with, giving time to, and releasing with or without payment or security, or on-payment of or agreement for any composition any person indebted, or liable to the Bankrupt's estate referring any matters to arbitration, and commencing and prosecuting any suit in equity, or continuing the proceedings already instituted by a suit in equity to be mentioned at the meeting, or other proceedings relating to the Bankrupt's estate in his discretion.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country."—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 7th day of January 1828, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act by PETER MILNE, of New York Street, Commercial-Road, in the County of Middlesex, and THOMAS HATHWAY the younger, of Wade-Street, Poplar, in the said County of Middlesex, Merchants and Ship-Owners, that they are in insolvent circumstances and are unable to meet their engagements with their creditors.

And on the 8th day of January 1828, by

THOMAS WILKS, late of Mentmore, in the County of Buckingham, Farmer, and afterwards of Tring, in the County of Hertford, Innkeeper, Dealer and Chapman, that he is in insolvent circumstances and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.