

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Morgan, of Bond-Street, Oxford-Street, in the County of Middlesex, Bookseller, Stationer, and Publisher, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Friday the 9th day of February next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing of all or any of the stock in trade, estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, either by public auction or private contract, or by valuation and appraisement, and either together or in separate lots, as they may think proper, to any person or persons whomsoever who may be willing to become the purchaser or purchasers thereof, and for ready money or on such credit as the meeting shall decide; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying the rent due for the premises tenanted by the Bankrupt, in Bond-Street aforesaid, and the amount of the rent levied and expenses of distress which has been made by the landlord for half a year's rent due; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying any extra charges incurred by the petitioning Creditor or the Assignees, and others, under the said Commission; the wages or salaries of the Bankrupt's clerks or servants, or any part thereof; and paying or allowing the Bankrupt any and what sum of money for his maintenance and services rendered during the working of this Commission; also to authorise the said Assignees to employ such person as they shall think fit to get in the outstanding debts due to the Bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions at law; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to any matter or thing relating thereto; and generally to authorise and empower the said Assignees to act for the benefit of the Creditors of the said Bankrupt in such manner as the said Assignees may think proper; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Herman Wakefield, late of Villier-Street, Strand, in the County of Middlesex, Coal-Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Saturday the 9th day of February next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling and disposing of a certain reversionary interest of the said Bankrupt, to which he is entitled in right of his wife, under the will of his said wife's father, John Davies, either by public auction or private contract, and to the said Assignee giving time for the payment of the purchase money, on receiving good security for the same; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling and disposing, by public auction or otherwise, certain jewellery and other effects of the said Bankrupt; and to assent to or dissent from such latter sale or disposition being made for ready money or upon credit, and if upon credit, with or without security; and also to consider and give instructions to the said Assignee as to the collecting and getting in the outstanding debts due to the estate of the said Bankrupt; and to authorise the Assignee employing an accountant to collect the same, if he shall think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee giving time, with or without security, or otherwise, as he shall deem meet, for payment of all or any of the debts due to the said estate, and to his accepting composition, with or without security, upon any of the debts due to the said estate; and to the said Assignee executing any release or discharge for any such debt, upon payment of such composition; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee giving up to the said Bankrupt any part or parts of his effects heretofore belonging to him, either absolutely or conditionally as the said Assignee shall think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, or to his presenting or opposing any petition or petitions under the said Commission, for the recovery or protection of all or any of the said estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; and to the said Assignee compounding, and submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and to consider and advise on several matters of importance to the interest of the Creditors, to be discussed at such meeting; and to give the said Assignee full power and authority on the several matters aforesaid; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Nathan Driver, of the Parish of Painswick, in the County of Gloucester, Clothier, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Tuesday the 12th day of February next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the George Inn, in Stroud, in the County of Gloucester, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the Bankrupt's freehold messuages, clothing-mill, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or such estate and interest as the Bankrupt hath therein, and also his stock in trade, machinery, farming stock, household goods and furniture, and all other his personal estate and effects, either by public auction or private contract, or by valuation and appraisement, or in such other manner, and to such person or persons, and for such sum or sums of money as the said Assignees may think fit: and also to the said Assignees giving credit, or taking bills of exchange or other security for the purchase money of the said stock in trade, machinery, farming-stock, household goods and furniture, and other personal estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, as the said Assignees may judge expedient; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees entering into and concluding any arrangement they may think proper, with any person or persons having any legal or equitable mortgage, lien, or claim, on the whole or any part of the Bankrupt's real or personal estate; and also to the said Assignees causing to be worked up into cloth, and rendered fit for sale, such part of the Bankrupt's stock in trade as is now in progress of manufacture, and for this purpose, to the said Bankrupt, or any other person or persons, being retained or employed by the said Assignees to superintend and manage the same; and also to the said Assignees making the said Bankrupt, and such other persons, a reasonable and fair allowance and remuneration for their services; and also to the said Assignees paying in full any wages or salaries due to the servants of the said Bankrupt; and also to the said Assignees repaying to Messrs. Newman and Son, Solicitors, in Stroud, all sums of money which they have advanced, since the issuing of the said Commission, to the weavers and other servants of the said Bankrupt, having cloths in an unfinished state in their possession belonging to him, pursuant to the directions of the Creditors of the Bankrupt, at a meeting held on the 27th day of December last; and also to the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits, or other proceedings, either at law or in equity, as the said Assignees shall be advised, against any person or persons, for the recovery or protection of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, or to the said Assignees compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise settling or adjusting any debt or debts due to or from the said Bankrupt's estate; and also to authorise and empower the said Assignees generally to do all and every other matter and thing relating to the said Bankrupt's estate, or in any respect thereof, as they shall see fit or be advised; and also on other special affairs to be then submitted to the said Creditors.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed: and no Docket shall be struck upon such act off