WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Tuesday the 22d ultimo, a farm-house, two large barns, and other out-buildings, together with a quantity of corn and farming stock, belonging to William Kay, Esq. and situate near Tring, in the county of Hertford; were entirely destroyed by fire; and that there is every reason to believe that the said premises were wilfully set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid on conviction by Mr. J. R. Glenister, Tring.

WHEREAS I have demanded, pursuant to the 19th and 20th of George the Third, chap. 30th, the fines due from the occupier of certain premises in Lurgan, in the county of Armagh, held by virtue of a lease, bearing date 10th of June 1697, and made between Arthur Chamberlain, alias Brownlow, of Brownlows Derry, in the county of Armagh, Esq. and Robert Hodgson, of Lurgan, in said county, merchant, whereof several renewals were had and obtained, the last of which bears date the 10th of June 1780, for the lives of Jacob Kirk, Richard Bell, and Thomas Bell, and made between the Right Honourable William Brownlow and Abraham Bell, then of Lurgan; and whereas all the said lives are now dead, of which I desire all persons whom it may concern to take notice.—Dated at Lurgan, in the county of Armagh, this 18th December 1827.

Will. John Harcock, Agent and Receiver to Charles Brownlow, Esq.
