The London Gazette.

published by Automate.

From Dandap July 23 to Tourspap July 26

Whiteball, July 24.

His day was Presented to His Majesly the Fol lowing Judgment and Decree of the U i-versity of Oxford, patt in their Convocation, on Saturday the 21. Inflant.

The Judgment and Decree of the University of Oxford, pajt in their Convocation, July 21. 1683. against certain Pernicious Books, and damnable Dothrines Destructive to the Sacred Persons of Princes, their State and Government, and of al Human Litho the barbarons Assacration lately enterprised against the Person of His warred Mijusty and His Royal Brother, engage all our shoughts to reflect with utmost detestation and abhorrence on that Execable Villany, and abiorrence on that Exceable Villany, hareful to God and Man; and pay our due acknowledgments to the Divine Providence, which by extraordinary Methods brought it to pass, that the Breath of our Notirils, the Anointed of the Lord, is not taken in the Pit which was prepared for Him, and that under his liadow we continue to live and enjoy the blessings of his Government; yet notwithstanding we find it to be a necessar Duty at this time, to search into, and lay open those Impious Dostrines, which having of late been studiously Disseminated, gave rise and growth to these Nefarious Attempts; and pass up in them our solemn publick Censure and Decree of Condemnation.

Therefore to the honour of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, the preferration of Catholick Truth in the Church; And that the King's Majelfy may be lecured both from the attempts of open bloody Enemies, and Machinations of Treacherous Heretick and Schissnaticks: We the Vice-Chantellot, Doctors, Proctors, and Malters Regent and Not Regent, met in Convocation, in the accustomed manner, time, and place, on Saturday the One and twentieth day of July, in the Year One thousand fix hundred eighty three, concerning bertain Propositions contained in divers Books and Writings, publish in the English and also the Latine Tongue, repugnant to the holy Scriptures, Desrees of Councils, Writings of the Fathers, the Faith and Profession of the Primitive Church; and also destructive of the Kingly Government, the Safety of Piss Majesty's Person, the publick Peace, the Laws of Na-His Majefly's Person, the publick Peace, the Laws of Nature, and Bonds of Human Society, by our unanimous Assent and Consent, have Decreed and Determined in manner and form following .

The first PROPOSITION.

ALL Civil Authority is derived originally from the People. The Second.

There is a mutual Compact, Tacit or Express, between a Prince and his Subjects; and that if He perform not his Duty, they are discharged from theirs.

The Third,
That if lawful Governors become Thrants, or govern otherwise than by the Laws of God and Man they ought to do, they forfeir the right they had unto their Government. Lex Rex. Buchanan, de jure Regni. Vindicia contra Tyrannos. Bellarmine de Conciliis, de Pontifice, Milton, Goodwir, Baxqer, H. C.

The Fourth. The Soveraignty of England is in the three Estates, viz. King, Lords, and Commons. The King has but a Co-ordinate Power, and may be over-ruled by the other Two. Leg

Rex. Hunton, of a limited and mixed Monarchy. Baxter. H. C. Potn. Cattchil

Birth-right and Proximity of Board give no Title to Rule or Government; and it is lawful to preclude the next Heir it in his right and faceation to the Crown. Lx Rex. Hungs of the feript. Doleman, Hillory of Succellion. Julian the Apa-flate. Mene Tekel. The Sixth.

It is lawful for Subjects without the confent, and against the command of the suprema Magnifrate, to enter into Leagues, Covenants, and Afficiations for deferce of themselves and their Religion. Solemn League and Covenant. Late Afficiation.

The Seventh. Self-Preservation is the fundamental law of Nature, and speri-prefervation is the influence law of Nature, and ipperfedes the obligation of all others, whenfoever they stand in competition with it. Hubbs de Cive Leviathan.

The Eighth

The Doctrine of the Gospel concerning patient suffering of Injuries, is not inconsistent with violent resisting of the higher Powers in case of Perfection for Resigion. L. Rex. Justine Application Policy and Control of Perfection for Resigion.

er Powers in case of Perfection for Assignment lian Apostate. Apolog Relat.

The Nin h.

There lies no obligation upon Christians to passive obedience, when the Prince commands any thing against the Laws of our Country; and the Prinnieric Christians chose rather to die than resist, because Christianity was not settled by the Laws of the Empire. Julian Apostate,

The Tench.

Possession and Strength give a right to govern; and Succession a Cause or Enterprise proclaims it to be lawful and just a Toporfue it, is to comply with the Will of God, because it is to follow the conduct of his Providence. Hobbs, Owen's Sermon before the Regicides, Jan. 21 1648. Baxter. Jenkins's Perision, Oct. 1641. Petition, Oct. 1651. The Eleventh.

In the State of Nature there is no difference between Good and Evil, Right and Wrong; the state of Nature is a state of War, in which every man hath a right to all things.

The Twellth
The foundation of Civil Authority is this natural right,

The foundation of Civil Authority is this natural right, which is not given, but left to the Supreme Magiltrate upon Mens entring into Societies; and not only a Foreign Invader, but a Domestick Rebel purs himself again into a state of Nature, to be proceeded against, not as a Subject, but an Enemy, and consequently acquires by his Rebellion, the same right over the life of his Prince, as the Prince for the most heinous crimes has over the life of his own Subjects.

The Thirreconts.

Every man after hisentring into a Society, retains a right of defending himfelf against force, and cannot transfer that right to the Common-wealth, when he consents to that union whereby a Common-wealth is made; and in take a great many then together have already resisted the Common-wealth, for which every one of them expected death, they have liberty then to joyn together to affift and defend one another. Their bearing of Arms subsequent to the first breach of their duty, though it be to maintain what they have done, is not new unjust act, and if it be only to defend their Persons, is not maintain all.

The Fourteenth An Oath superadds no obligation to Pact, and a Pact of lit An Oath inperadds no obligation to Pack, and a Pact of its ges no farther than it is credited; and confequently if a Prince gives any indication that he does not believe the promifes of Fealty and Allegiance made by any of his Subjects, they are thereby freed from their lubjection, and not withflanding their Packs and Ouths, may lawfully rebel against, and desire, their Soveraign. Hubbs de Cive. Leviathan,

The Fifteenth

If a People that by Oath and Duty are obliged to a Soveraign, shall sinfully disposses him, and contrary to their Contrary.

venants, chule and covenant with another, they may be obliged by their later Covenants, notwithlianding their obliged by men incomer. Baxter, H. C.

The Sixteenth.

All Oaths are unlawful, and contrary to the Word of God. Ouakers.

The Seventeenth.

An Oath obligeth not in the lenfe of the Imposer, but the Takers. Sheriffs Cafe.

The Eighteenth. Dominion is founded in Grace.

The Nineteenth.

The Powers of this World are Usurpations upon the Prerogative of Jesus Christ; and it is the duty of Gods people to destroy them, in order to the setting Christ upon his Throne. destroy them, in o.

Fifth-Monarchy-men.

The Twentieth

The Presbyterian Government is the Scepter of Christ's The Presbyterian Government is the Scepter of Christ's Kugdom, to which Kings as well as others are bound to submit; and the Kings Supremacy in Ecclesiastical affairs, afferred by the Church of England, is injurious to Christ, the sole King and Head of his Church, Altare Damascoum. Apolog. Relat. Hist. Indulg. Cartwright, Travers.

The Twenty First.

It is not lawful for Superiours to impose any thing in the Worthip of God that is not antecedently necessary.

Worthip of God that is not antecedently necessary.

The Twenty Second.

The duty of not offending a weak Brother, is inconsistent with all Humane Authority of making Laws concerning indifferent things. Protestant Reconciler.

The Twenty Third.

Wicked Kings and Tyrants ought to be put to death; and if the Judges and Interiour Magistrates will not do their Office, the power of the Sword devolves to the people; if the major part of the people results to exercise this power, then the Ministers may excommunicate such a King; after which it is lawful for any of the Subjects to kill him, as the people did Athaliah, and Ichu Tezabel. Buchanan, Knox.

which it is lawful for any of the Subjects to kill him, as the people did Athaliah. and Jehu Jezabel. Buchanan. Knox. Goodman. Gilby. Jesuis.

The Twenty Fourth.

After the Sealing of the Scripture-Canon, the people of God in all ages are to expect new Revelations for a rule of their actions (a); and it is lawful for a private man, having an inward motion from God, to kill a Tyrant (b).

(a) Quakers and other Enthusialts. (b) Goodman.

The Twenty Fifth.

The example of Phineas is to us in stead of a command; for what God hath commanded or approved in one age.

The example of Phineas is to us in stead of a command; for what God hath commanded or approved in one age, must needs oblige in all. Goodman. Knox. Napthali.

The Twenty Sixth.

King Charles the First was lawfully put to death, and his Murderers were the Blessed Instruments of God's glory in their generation. Milton. Goodwin. Owen.

The Twenty Seventh.

King Charles the First made War upon his Parliament, and in fuch a case the King may not only be resisted, but he and in such a case the King may not only be resisted, but he ceaseth to be King. Baxter.

We Decree, Judge, and Declare all and every of these Propositions to be false, seditious, and impious, and most of them to be also heretical and blasphemous, infamous to Christian Religion, and destructive of all Government in Church and State.

We farther Decree, That the Books which contain the deprave good manners, corrupt the minds of unwary men, are fitted to deprave good manners, corrupt the minds of unwary men, air up feditions and tumults, overthrow States and Kingdoms, and lead to Rebellion, Murther of Princes, and Atheism is felf: and therefore we interdict all Members of the Uniwerfity from the reading of the faid Books, under the Penal-fies in the Statutes exprest. We also order the before-recited Books to be publickly burat by the hand of our Marshal, in the Court of our Schools.

Likewife, we order that in perpetual memory hereof, thefe our Decrees shall be enter'd into the Regiliry of our Convocation; and that Copies of them being communicated to the feveral Colledges and Halls within this University, they be there publickly affix in the Libraries, Refectories, or other fit places where they may be seen and read of all. Lastly, We command and strictly injoyn all and singular

Latty, We command and trictly injoyn all and ingular the Readers, Tutors, Carechijts, and others to whom the care and trust of Institution of Youth is committed, that they disigently instruct and ground their Scholars in that most necessary Doctrine, which in a manner is the Badge and Churacter of the Church of England, Of submitting to every Ordinance of Man for the Lord's sake, whether it be to the King as Supreme, or unto Governors as unto them that are lent by him, for the punishment of evil doers, and for the praise of them that do well. Teaching that this Submission and Obediesce is to be clear, absolute, and without exception of any flate or order of Men. Also that they, according to the Apostles Pre-cept, exhort, That first of all supplications, prayers, inter-cessors, and giving of thanks be made for all men, for the cellions, and giving of thanks be made for all men, for the KING, and all that are in authority, that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty, for this is good and acceptable in the sight of GOD our Saviour. And in especial manner that they press and oblige them humbly to offer their most ardent and daily Prayers at the throne of Grace, for the preservation of our Soveraign Lord King CHARLES, from the attempts of open Violence and fecret Machinations of perfidious Traitors; that the Defender of the Faith, being fafe under the defence of the Most High, may continue His reign on Barth, till He exchange it for that of a late and happy Immortality.

*Whitehall, July 25. The following Addresses having been presented to His Majesty, His Majefly was pleased to receive them very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majestv.

The Humble Address of the Chancellor and Senate of the University of Cambridge.

Dread Soveraign,

Nough we cannot think upon the danger of Your Sacred Majely, and Your Royal and dearest Brother, without Horror and Confusion, yet we are comforted and rejoyce in this confideration, That all the unnatural and devilish Conspiracies of wicked and execrable Men, serve only to convince the World bow much Tour Sacred Majesty is the Darling of Heaven, and the peculiar Care of Providence. And, as from the bottom of our Hearts we thankfully adore and bless that Goodness, which has been so watchful over Your Majesty, its own Image bere on Earth; So do we equally detest and abborthe ungodly Principles and bloody Pradices of those Baharous Villains, who could imagine Milchief against so much Mercy, and sin against so great Goodness.

And our most earnest Prayers are, That just Punishment may overtake all these implacable Wretches, who delight in Blood and Treason: That all the Pernicious Nurseries of Fanatick Rage, Sedition, and Rebellion, may be rooted out: That the Impieties of a Pretended Religious Crew, may be all detected and confounded: That the wicked Contrivances of Your Enemies may tend only to make Tour Sacred Majesty more Great and more Powerful; And that thu Master-piece of all their Villany may be the Ground and happy Occasion of a lasting and well-fetled Peace and Profestity to Your Majesty, and Your lawful Successors to all Generations.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Common-Council, and Citizens of the City of Canterbury.

Most Dread Soveraign,

TE Your Majesties most Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, do with all our Souls most thankfully acknowledge the infinite goodness of Almighty God to these Realms, in the mirasulous Disappointment and wonderful Discovery of the late Hellish Conspiracy, contrived against the Lives of Your Sacred Majesty, and Royal Brother, James Duke of York, by the Leaders of the Fanatick and Republican Factions, who having tasted of Your Royal Mercy, and enjoyed the Blessing of Three and swenty years Peace and Plenty under I our Majesty's myt auspicious Reignovierus, have by their black; and Hands to defend Your Majesty's Person and Go-Ingratitude purchased to themselves and their Posterity, an eternal mark of Infamy. It is to us a matter of the greatest Astonishment, that Men making Professions for the Procestant Religion, Sanctity of Life, and the Property of the Subject, should Conspire the Destruction of their lawful Soveraign, the total Subversion of Religion and Property, and once more to overwheim these Flourishing Kingdoms in Blood and Ruine. But we trust the Almighty Goodness will still continue to disappoint and prevent all their Damnable Conspiracies.

jefty's

We do with all Humility prostrate our Lives and Fortunes at Your Rayal Feet for the defence of Your Sacred Person, Tour Heirs and lawful Successors, and the Government Estab ished by Law in Church and State, against all Traiterous Conspiracies and Associations whatsoever; and shall daily Pray for Your Majesty's long Life and prosperous Reign over us.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Justices of the Peace, the Grand Jury, and other Gentlemen, at the General Sessions of the Peace held for the County of Somerset, at Bridgewater in the said County, the tenth day of July, in the five and thirtieth year of your Majesties Reign.

May it please Your Majesty,

He deep sence we bave of that Horrid, Treasonable and Hellish Design upon the Sacred Person of your Majesty, and entirely Beloved Brother, the Duke of York, as it creates in us great aftonishment, that any of your Subjects, upon whom in general all imaginable Blessings bave descended since your happy Restauration, and in particular, very eminent and obliging favours upon many of the Conspirators themselves, should be guilty of so bigb Ingratitude to Heaven and you; so bath it withal raised in us a just Indignation against the Traytors, whom we shall use all diligence to discover, apprehend and pro-ceed against with the utmost severity of Fustice. And for the preventing the like Desperate and Treasonable Attempts, shall put all those Laws in Execution which may disable all disaffected persons to the established Goverament to effect their wicked Designs. And we shall be ready to Sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in defence of your Sacred Person and Government, and the Suc-cession of the Crown in its Legal Descent; in despith of all Trayterous Affociations and Conspiracies. are our publick and solemn Resolutions; to which we shall add (as is our Duty) our Prayers for your Majesties long Life, and bappy and peaceable Reign o-778F 16.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Congratulation of the Deputy Lieu-. tenants, Justices of Peace and Commission-Officers of the Militia, within the East Riding of the County of York.

Dread Sir.

E understanding by Your Majesty's Procla-Grace the Duke of Somerset, our Lord Lieutenant, That there was a Traiterous Conspiracy to have Murdered Your Sacred Majesty and Royal Brother, a Crime fo Barbarous, that it Aftonishes all Honest Men to hear vernment, according to our most Solemn Oaths and Duty; against all the restless and rebellious Designs of Your Majesty's Enemies, whoever they be.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of Your Majesty's Ancient and Leyal City of Exon.

Most Dread Soveraigh,

Being truly sensible of the great advantages we have en-joyed ever since your Majesty's happy Restauration, we could not without extreme horrour and amazement, bewe could not without extreme horrour and amazement, behold the miferies and defolation that a reftlefs and bloody Enemy had now a fecond time prepared for us; Thefe wicked perfons are but too well skill'd in the methods of undoing us, and finding it impossible to bring their defigns about whillt we had our Laws in motion, and your Mijelty to protect us, they have barbaroully contrived the Deaths of the best of Princes; and that they might at once exceed the villanies of former ages, and the belief of those that are to come, they have endeavoured in your own Sacred Perfon;
and that of your Boyal Recther's to Affall nate three Kingand that of your Royal Brother's, to Assail nate three Kingdoms or once: A Plot so boldly, and yet so subtilly carried on, that had not your Majesty, like Gods people of old, lived by Miracles, and, as they, appeared no less the delight and care of Heaven, we had certainly become the unhappiest people in all the World: Now therefore, as we cannot reflect people in all the World: Now therefore, as we cannot reflect upon this late wonderful deliverance of your Majefty, without adoring that eternal Goodness that brought the horrid Treason to light. So, as sharers in the common bleffing, we humbly crave leave to Congratulate your Majefty's great bscape out of the hands of violence, hoping that by the faction of Heaven, and your Majefty's well-known Wildom and Sagarity a bull discours may be made both of the Parciades. sour of Heaven, and your Majetty's well-known wildom and Sagacity, a full discovery may be made both of the Parricides, and their Execrable Treason; and that those who have made no better use of your Majetty's Pardon and Clemency, may at length seel the deserved effect of your Justice: Whist we your Majettics most Loyal Subjects, shall not only pray for your long and happy Life, but at all times endeavor the preserved of the own. expence of our own.

We the Grand Inquest for the body of this City and County, at this our General Quarter Sessions, held the ninth of July, in the Five and thirtieth year of your Majessies Reign, do heartily concur with the Mayor. Aldermen, and Common Council in this Humble Address.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses and Assistants of your Majesties Ancient Corporation and Town of Banbury in the County of Oxon.

Dread Soveraign,

Hough we have had such clear experiments of your Wisdom and Indulgence, as might have endeared your Government to the most Rebellious Generation, yet, to our unutterable Horror, we see that Apostates to Asbeism, and Revolvers to Schism, are Mon-sters prepared to requite your most gracious protection with Traiterons Machinations. And forajmuch as our past negleds of declaring our vowed Fidelity to your endangered Crown, have, with others equally remis, evidently encouraged their greater Insolence, who inbumanly conspired against your life and it; (the restedion npon which base Neutrality is our present sbamë and sorrow) yes in all humility we beseech your Majeshy to believe that our private Refolves have ever, been at unalterably Loyal as those of our fellow Subjects who have wifely took advantage more openly to protest iti In Testimony of which bonest and dutiful Resolutious; we have and daily do express our sincerest Gratitude to it named. We do bumbly affure Your Majesty, that we Almighty Goodness for your repeated deliverances a will not only give God thanks for Your miraculous De- from such a desperate Legion at have entred into a damliverances, but will be a ways ready with our Hedres nable Afficiation (and to make their Iniquity inexpidble that ratified by a vow) to destroy your Person, your Issustances Brother, and your Ryas Family, to abolish ye's mall equal Montrely, and leave no Religin but such as should reserve to their Vitanies, and applaud them. The thoughs if which detectable, Teason, with the tryp crists that abetted it, makes us deprecate your Majestes Ciemency though with all Devotion will me improve Gods.

The ife of your Majesty is the Breath of our Nostrils, and he only Property, of whose investon we are af aid: Who refore, if our Lives, wish their Appendages, may be serve ceable to defend yours, and your establish Government in Church and Mate, together with your Lawful and Roy il Successors, they shall be as freely spent as they a e enjoyed. In the mean time, may the time of your Rice, when you shall be at rest, so fill your Character and your Throne.

Stuckholm, June 30. His Majesty has given order for the march of the Troops that are quartered upon the Frontiers of Norway, towards the Previnces of Halland and Blecking, and for the specty building of two Fores at Larelseron, for lecuring the Ships that lye there.

Madrid, July 15. We have advice from Cadiz of the fourth infiant, That 22 Men of War lye ready in that Bay, and the they would suddenly sail for the Levant That two days before, the Dover Frigat, and the Deptford Ketch, with three Victuallers, passed by that place, and that the Saphire and Dartmouth Frigats were gone to cruste before Sally.

Lintz, Fu y 18. The Ottoman Army baving paffed the Raab, and being advanced near Vienna, the Duke of Lorrain imm diately f nt Count Starenberg and General Capliers to command in chief in the City, and 12000 men out of his Army, to enable the Garison, which consists likewise of the same number, to make a vigorous defence. The 16th instant the Emperors Treasure, which was removed from Vienna, arrived here. Count Teckeley is encamped at Tyrnaw upon the River Waag, from whence he makes frequent Incursions into Silesia. The Duke of Lorrain is posted near the Bridge of Boats, which is laid over the Danube, expecting there the Troops which are coming from Poland, and the Princes of the Empire. We have advice from Vienna, That a great part of the City was reduced to ashes, and that several persons had been apprehended, heing discovered to have set Fire to divers Houses near the Scotch Gate,

Passaw, Fuly 21. On Saturday last their Imperial Majestics, together with the Arch-Dukes and the Arch-Dutchess arrived here, and after a short stay intend to go from hence to Ratubonne. The 18th instant the Emperor received two Couriers from Vienna, with advice, That the Grand Visier had befieged that place; That he had taken his own Quarters in the Palace of the Empress Dowager, cal-I d le Favorite; That his Camp extended to Nuldorf, and that there happened frequent Skirmishes between the Turks and the Imperialists. We have advice, That the Count de Zerin having trayte-We have roully revolted from the Emperor, and joyned himfolf with a Body of 8000 Tartars, was attacked by General Dunwaldt in the Woods near Vlenna, denumber of Tartars flain upon the place.

Maestricht, July 21. This morning early the Prince of Orange arrived here, and after having virted the Fortifications of this place, and taken a review of the Garison, parted again for Di ren, a review of the Garilon, parted again for Di ren, Cologne, July 27. Yesterday the Bishop of Strasburg returned hither from Alstia. The Letters from Manick say, That the Elector of Bavaria had appointed the Rende zvous of his Foot to be held at Straubingen, and his Horse at Schar, and that the Troops of that Circle were to Rendezvous at Brunne, and the Troops of Franconia were on their march to the affishance of the Enperor.

Brussels, July 30. On Wedneslay last the Prince of Vaudemons returned hither from the Camp at Fennap, and the Troops of which it was formed are gone to their respective Garisons. The Letters f. om. Germany say, That the Turks had raised three Batteries against Vienna, but the place was well provided to make a long and vigorons Defence; the Duke of Lorrain having put into it 12000 Foot, 1000 Horse, and 1500 Dragoons, immediately before the Turks had formed their Siege, and was encamped himself with 15000 Foot, within two leagues of it, expecting the speedy Conjunction of the Elector of Eavaria's Army, who comes in person with his Troops, and it is hoped, that so foon as the Army shall be reinforced with the Auxiliary Troops; which are expected from the se-veral Princes of the Empire, and the Poles, (who march with all diligence) they will be in a condition to raise the Siege, and render it as faral to the Turks as the last was.

Paris, July 31. We have advice from Thoulon, That Monsieur Colbert de St. Mars had landed there 600 French Captives, having heen lately restored by the Algerines unto Monsieur du Quesue. Yesterday Mary Therese of Austria, Queen of France and Navarre, dyed at Versailles, after sour days sickness, in the 45th year of her age. The King, the Dauphin, the Duke and Dutchess of Orleans continued with her till she died, and afterwards his Majestyretir'd to St. Cloud.

Whitchall, July 25. We are commanded to give notice, That it is His Majesty's Express Pleasure, that all Officers belonging to his Majesty's Garison of Tunger, do forthwith upon the first Ships, repair thither upon pain of His High Displeasure.

Advertisements,

Hereas the Relations of Alderman Backwell, Deceased, did publish an Advertisement in the Gazette, of the 28th of June last, That they intended to make good to the Creditors of the said Backwell the Proposal made by him in his life-time for the payment of his Debts; Now they defire the said Creditors to take notice that they will perform the same, and that the said Creditors may repair to Mr. Richard Saag at the sign of the Exchange in Lumbard-street, where they may receive and Sign the said Proposal.

There will be exposed to Sale at the Marine Coffee-House in Birching Lane in London, about 65 Tuns of Green-land Whale Oy), upon Wednesday the first of August next, at Three of the Clock in the Asternoon, in small Lots of 2003 Tun in a Lot; and that printed Notes will be left at the said Coffee-house, where the said Oyl is to be seen, on Monday before the day of Sale.

between the Turks and the Imperialists. We have advice, That the Count de Zerin having trayter roully revolted from the Emperor, and joyned him-fiff with a Body of 8000 Tartars, was attacked by General Dunwaldt in the Woods near Vlenna, defeated, and himself taken Prisoner, besides a great number of Tartars slain upon the place.

Stolen or Strayed on the second Instant out of Mr. Fowsets Stolen in the County of Middlesex, a bright Ray Nag about it wests old, with a black Bob Tail and Mane, about 14 hands high, with a little white at the upper part of the Forehead, big Hoofed, and hath all bis Paces. Whoever gives notice of him to Mr. Fawset lar the Angel at Islington, or at Mr. Thorowton's at the Black-Bull in Grays, number of Tartars slain upon the place.