We Decree, Judge, and Declare all and every of these Pro-positions to be falle, feditious, and impious, and most of them to be also heretical and blasphemous, infamous to Christian Religion, and destructive of all Government in Church and State.

We farther Decree, That the Books which contain the We lattice Decice, that the books while contain the aforefaid Propositions and impious DoChrines, are fitted to deprave good manners, corrupt the minds of unwary men, fir up feditions and tumults, overthrow States and King-doms, and lead to Rebellion, Murther of Princes, and Atheifin it felf: and therefore we interdict all Members of the Uniwerfity from the reading of the faid Books, under the Penal-ties in the Statutes express. We also order the before-recited Books to be publickly burnt by the hand of our Marshal, in the Court of our Schools.

Likewife, we order that in perpetual memory hereof, thefe our Decrees fhall be enter'd into the Regility of our Convocation; and that Copies of them being communicated to the feveral Colledges and Halls within this Univerfity, they be there publickly affix in the Libraries, Refectories, or other fit places where they may be feen and read of all. And in elpecial manner that they prefs and oblige them humbly to offer their most ardent and daily Prayers at the throne of Grace, for the prefervation of our Soveraign Lord King CHARLES, from the attempts of open Violence and instructions of parafiliary Tarity to Defend fecret Machinations of perfidious Traitors; that the Defen-der of the Faith, being fafe under the defence of the Moft High, may continue His reign on Barth, till He exchange it for that of a late and happy Immortality.

Whiteball, July 25. The following Addreffes having been preiented to His Majefly, His Majefty was pleafed to receive them very gracioufly.

To the King's most Excellent Majestv.

The Humble Address of the Chancellor and Senate of the University of Cambridge.

Dread Soveraign,

C Hough we cannot think upon the danger of Your Sacred Majely, and Your Royal and dearest Brother, without Horror and Confusion, yet we are comforted and rejoyce in this confideration, That all the unnatural and devilish Conspiracies of wicked and execrable Men, ferve only to convince the World bow much Tour Sacred Majely is the Darling of Heaven, and the peculiar Care of Providence. And, as from the bottom of our Hearts we thankfully adore and hiels that Goodness, which has been so watchful over Your Majesty, its own Image bere on Earth; So do we equally deteff and abbor the ungodly Principles and bloody Praflices of those Babarous Villains, who could imagine Milchief against so much Mercy, and fin against so great Goodness.

And our most earnest Prayers are, That just Punishment may overtake all these implacable Wretches, who delight in Blood and Treason: That all the Pernicious Nurseries of Fanatick Rage, Sedition, and Rebellion, may be rooted out: That the Impieties of a Pretended Religious Crew, may be all detected and confounded : That the wicked Contrivances of Your Enemies may tend only to make Tour Sacred Majesty more Great and more Powerful; And that this Master-piece of all their Villany may be the Ground and happy Occasion of a lasting and well-letled Peace and Prosperity to Your Majesty, and Your lawful Successors to all Generations.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Common-Council, and Citizens of the City of Canterbury.

Most Dread Soveraign,

FE Your Majesties most Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, do with all our Souls most thankfully ack nowledge the infinite goodness of Almighty God to thele Realms, in the mirasulous Dilappointment and wonderful Dilcovery of the late Hellish Conspiracy, contrived against the Lives of Your Sacred Majesty, and Royal Brother, James Duke of York, by the Leaders of the Fanatick and Republican Factions, who having tailed of Tour Royal Mercy, and enjoyed the Bleffing of Three and swenty years Peace and Plenty under Your Majefy's
