

ble that ratified by a vow) to destroy your Person, your Illustrious Brother, and your Royal Family, to abolish ye's most equal Monarchy, and leave no Religion but such as should injure to their Liberties, and applaud them The thoughts of which detestable Treason, with the happy crisis that abated it, makes us deprecate your Majesty's Clemency though with all Devotion will we implore Gods.

The life of your Majesty is the Breath of our Nostrils, and the only Property, of whose invasion we are afraid: We restore, if our Lives, with their Appendages, may be servicable to defend yours, and your established Government in Church and State, together with your Lawful and Royal Successors, they shall be as freely spent as they are enjoyed. In the mean time, may the King of Kings prolong your Reign on Earth, appointing one of your Race, when you shall be at rest, to fill your Character and your Throne.

Stockholm, June 30. His Majesty has given orders for the march of the Troops that are quartered upon the Frontiers of Norway, towards the Provinces of Halland and Blecking, and for the speedy building of two Forts at Carelskroon, for securing the Ships that lye there.

Madrid, July 15. We have advice from Cadix of the fourth instant, That 22 Men of War lye ready in that Bay, and that they would suddenly sail for the Levant. That two days before, the Dover Frigate, and the Deptford Ketch, with three Victuallers, passed by that place, and that the Sapphire and Dartmouth frigates were gone to cruise before Sally.

Lintz, July 18. The Ottoman Army having passed the Raab, and being advanced near Vienna, the Duke of Lorraine immediately sent Count Starenberg and General Capliers to command in chief in the City, and 12000 men out of his Army, to enable the Garrison, which consists likewise of the same number, to make a vigorous defence. The 16th instant the Emperors Treasure, which was removed from Vienna, arrived here. Count Teckelej is encamped at Tyrnaw upon the River Waag, from whence he makes frequent IncurSIONS into Silesia. The Duke of Lorraine is posted near the Bridge of Boats, which is laid over the Danube, expecting there the Troops which are coming from Poland, and the Princes of the Empire. We have advice from Vienna, That a great part of the City was reduced to ashes, and that several persons had been apprehended, being discovered to have set fire to divers Houses near the Scotch Gate.

Passaw, July 21. On Saturday last their Imperial Majesties, together with the Arch-Dukes and the Arch-Duchess arrived here, and after a short stay intend to go from hence to Ratisbonne. The 18th instant the Emperor received two Couriers from Vienna, with advice, That the Grand Visier had besieged that place; That he had taken his own Quarters in the Palace of the Emperess Dowager, called la Favorite; That his Camp extended to Nusdorf, and that there happened frequent Skirmishes between the Turks and the Imperialists. We have advice, That the Count de Zerlin having traitorously revolted from the Emperor, and joyned himself with a Body of 8000 Tartars, was attacked by General Dunwaldt in the Woods near Vienna, defeated, and himself taken Prisoner, besides a great number of Tartars slain upon the place.

Maestricht, July 21. This morning early the Prince of Orange arrived here, and after having visited the Fortifications of this place, and taken a review of the Garrison, parted again for Di ren.

Cologne, July 27. Yesterday the Bishop of Strassburg returned hither from Alsitia. The Letters from Munich say, That the Elector of Bavaria had appointed the Rendezvous of his Foot to be held at Straubingen, and his Horse at Schar, and that the Troops of that Circle were to Rendezvous at Braune, and the Troops of Franconia were on their march to the assistance of the Emperor.

Brussels, July 30. On Wednesday last the Prince of Vandemon returned hither from the Camp at Fennap, and the Troops of which it was formed are gone to their respective Garrisons. The Letters from Germany say, That the Turks had raised three Batteries against Vienna, but the place was well provided to make a long and vigorous Defence; the Duke of Lorraine having put into it 12000 Foot, 1000 Horse, and 1500 Dragoons, immediately before the Turks had formed their Siege, and was encamped himself with 15000 Foot, within two leagues of it, expecting the speedy Conjunction of the Elector of Bavaria's Army, who comes in person with his Troops, and it is hoped, that soon as the Army shall be reinforced with the Auxiliary Troops; which are expected from the several Princes of the Empire, and the Poles, (who march with all diligence) they will be in a condition to raise the Siege, and render it as fatal to the Turks as the last was.

Paris, July 31. We have advice from Thoulon, That Monsieur Colbert de St. Mars had landed there 600 French Captives, having been lately restored by the Algerines unto Monsieur du Quesne. Yesterday Mary Therese of Austria, Queen of France and Navarre, dyed at Versailles, after four days sickness, in the 45th year of her age. The King, the Dauphin, the Duke and Duchess of Orleans continued with her till she died, and afterwards his Majesty retir'd to St. Cloud.

Whitehall, July 25. We are commanded to give notice, That it is His Majesty's Express Pleasure, that all Officers belonging to his Majesty's Garrison of Tanger, do forthwith upon the first Ships, repair thither upon pain of His High Displeasure.

Advertisements.

Whereas the Relations of Alderman Backwell, Deceased, did publish an Advertisement in the Gazette, of the 28th of June last, That they intended to make good to the Creditors of the said Backwell's the Proposal made by him in his life-time for the payment of his Debts; Now they desire the said Creditors to take notice that they will perform the same, and that the said Creditors may repair to Mr. Richard Snag at the sign of the Exchange in Lombardstreet, where they may receive and sign the said Proposal.

There will be exposed to Sale at the Marine Coffee-house in Birching Lane, in London, about 65 Tuns of Greenland Whale Oyl, upon Wednesday the first of August next, at Three of the Clock in the Afternoon, in small Lots of 2 or 3 Tun in a Lot; and that printed Notes will be left at the said Coffee-house, where the said Oyl is to be seen, on Monday before the day of Sale.

Stolen or Strayed on the second Instant out of Mr. Fowler's Field at Illington in the County of Middlesex, a bright Bay Nag about six years old, with a black Bob Tail and Mane, about 14 hands high, with a little white at the upper part of the Forehead, big Hoof'd, and hath all his Paces. Whoever gives notice of him to Mr. Fowler at the Angel at Illington, or at Mr. Thorowton's at the Black-Bull in Grays-Inn-Lane, shall have 20 s. reward.