In the Executorship of the Will of JOSEPH SAMUEL PARKINSON, Gentleman, deceased.

ALL persons claiming any interest whatever in the real or personal estate of Joseph Samuel Parkinson, late of the City of Norwich, Gentleman, deceased, are hereby required respectively to deliver, in writing, a statement of their claims to me, at the Office of Messrs. Steward, Son, and Skipper, Bank-Street, Norwich, on or before the 24th day of June next; and notice is hereby given to all such persons aforesaid, that the above requisition is made to the intent that the Executor of the will of the said deceased may make a legal and proper distribution of the personal estate of the said deceased; and in default of delivering a statement of claim, all persons so making default will preclude themselves from the benefit of the personal estate of the said deceased.—Dated this 22d day of May 1828.

JOHN SKIPPER, Solicitor for the said Executor.

Freehold Property, at Hawkhurst and Hythe.

TO be sold, in lots, to the best bidders, before Henry William Vincent, Esq. His Majesty's Remembrancer of the Court of Exchequer, at the Queen's Head Inn, at Hawkhurst, in the County of Kent, on Wednesday the 4th day of June 1828, at Five o'Clock in the Afternoon, and at the Swan Inn, at Hythe, in the said County, at Twelve of the Clock at Noon, on Thursday the 5th day of June 1828, pursuant to two several Orders of the said Court, made in a certain matter between our Sovereign Lord the King and George Willford Bulkeley, and in a certain matter between our Sovereign Lord the King and Henry Thomas Austen, on writs of immediate extent;

A freehold estate and premises, in four lots, situate at Hawkhurst, in the County of Kent, on the high turnpike-road leading from London to Rye, consisting of upwards of 60 acres of rich arable and pasture land and hop plantation, with agricultural buildings, in the respective occupations of Mr. Matthew and Mr. Wenham.

And also, in one lot, a freehold house and outbuildings, situate at Hythe, in the County of Kent, and now in the occupation of Mr. Alexander Swan.

For further particulars apply to Messrs. Seymour, Browne, and Wilson, Solicitors, 12, Little Portland-Street, Cavendish-Square, London; Mr. John Neve, Surveyor, Tenterden, Kent; Mr. Janeway, Solicitor, Hythe; or at the Office of the said Remembrancer, No. 17, Mitre-Court-Buildings, Inner-Temple, London.

WHEREAS by an Order of the High Court of Chancery in England, made in a cause wherein Francisco Vanzeller and Antonio Ferreira Pinto Basto are plaintiffs, and the Attorney-General and others are defendants, it is, amongst other things, referred to John Edmund Dowdeswell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire whether there were, at the time of the decease of Manoel Vieira (the testator in the pleadings of the said cause named), any person or persons answering the description in the letter annexed to the said testator's will, of his brothers and female cousins of the Courellas, and if any of such persons were dead who were then, according to the laws of Portugal, their personal representatives, or otherwise, entitled to the benefit under the said will and letter which such persons respectively would or might have taken.—Therefore any person or persons claiming to answer the description in the letter annexed to the will of the said testator (Manoel Vieira, a native of Portugal, and who died in London on the 23d day of October 1783), of his brothers and female cousins of the Courellas, living at the time of his decease, or the legal personal representatives or representative of any of such persons who have since died, or claiming to be otherwise entitled to the benefit under the said will and letter as aforesaid, is or are, by their Solicitors, forthwith to come in and establish such his, her, or their respective claim or claims before the said Master, Mr. Dowdeswell, at his Office, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Order.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 28th day of March 1828, made in a cause Heath v. Charouneau; it was amongst other things re-
