

rupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, for the purpose of assenting to or dissenting from the said Assignees employing the said Bankrupt, or any other person or persons, in making out the accounts, and also in finishing goods now on the premises, and carrying on the trade until the premises are sold, and for that purpose to retain the workmen now employed thereon, or such other persons as may be necessary, and to pay the said Bankrupt such allowance or compensation for his services in that behalf as the said Assignees shall think proper; and also to employ a proper person to collect and receive the debts due, and to become due, to the estate; and also to authorise the Assignees to pay the salaries and wages now due to the foreman, workmen, and servants employed by the Bankrupt, before his Bankruptcy; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling, by appraisement, to the said Bankrupt, the whole or part of his furniture and other household effects, and to give him a reasonable time for the payment of the purchase money thereof, or to sell and dispose of the said household furniture by public auction or private contract; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying, (if the Assignees shall be so advised), out of the Bankrupt's estate, a sum of money to a person, to be named at the meeting, to redeem the lease of the Bankrupt's premises in Coleman-Street, in his possession, on which he claims to have an equitable lien; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of, by public sale or private contract, the lease of the said Bankrupt's premises whereon he carried on his trade or business of a Cloth-Dresser, Calenderer, and Packer, together with the steam engine and machinery connected therewith, and the fixtures and other effects on the said premises; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any actions or suits, action or suit, at law or in equity, for the recovery or protection of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, or otherwise in relation to his affairs; and to compound, submit to arbitration, or otherwise agree any debt that shall be due, or any matter or dispute relating thereto; and take any reasonable part of any debts or debt in discharge of the whole, or give time and take security for payment of the same, or any part thereof; and on other special affairs relating to the said Bankrupt and his estate.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Dickinson, of No. 5, Church-Passage, Guildhall, in the City of London, Woollen-Warehouseman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Saturday the 12th day of July next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the said Bankrupt's stock in trade, fixtures, household goods, furniture and other effects, either by public auction or private contract, in such manner as they shall see fit, and either for ready money or on credit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery or preservation of all or any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matters relating to the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; and on other special matters.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt, bearing date the 23d day of September 1801, awarded and issued forth against Richard King Thomas, late of Evesham, in the County of Worcester, Mercer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet on Monday the 14th day of July next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Office of Mr. J. M. G. Cheek, Solicitor to the Assignees, in Evesham aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the sale by auction under the said Commission made by the said Assignees on the 13th of November 1801, to one Joseph Thomas, since deceased, of a certain freehold messuage, garden, and premises, in the Bridge-Street, Evesham, then or late in the occupation of the Bankrupt, of which a small part of the garden was leasehold for years, at the sum of £1,120; and also to assent to or dissent from the conveyance of the said premises by certain indentures of lease and release, bearing date the 29th and 30th days of April 1803 (already executed), the release containing also an assignment, whereby, in pursuance of and under such purchase, the said Assignees, by the direction of the said Joseph Thomas, released and conveyed the said messuage or tenement, and so much of the said garden as was freehold, unto one George Holland, his heirs and assigns, to the use of, or in trust for, John Kynaston (who was one of the Assignees of the said Bankrupt, and who was a Creditor, by mortgage of the premises, for the sum of £1,437 4s. 11d. exceeding such purchase money by the sum of £317 4s. 11d.), his heirs, appointees, and assigns for ever, in manner in such indenture of release mentioned; and whereby, in further pursuance of such purchase at such auction, the said Assignees, by such direction as aforesaid, assigned so much of the said garden as was leasehold unto the said George Holland, his executors and administrators, for the remainder of the term of 99 years therein, if Richard King Thomas and John Thomas should so long live, subject to the annual payment of 10s. therein mentioned; which said messuage, garden, and premises have been since sold and conveyed by the said John Kynaston to one Abraham Hathaway, who is now seized and possessed of the same; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Robert Walker, of Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, Woollen Shawl-Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignee of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Saturday the 12th day of July next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Office of Messrs. Cooke and Beaver, Solicitors, in Salford, in the said County, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling and disposing of the Bankrupt's stock in trade, fixtures, household furniture, and other effects, by public sale or private contract as the said Assignee shall judge proper, and to confirm such sale or sales thereof, or of any part thereof, as may have been made previous to such meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee continuing to employ the accountant already employed by him, or to his employing any other accountant he may think proper, to investigate the books and affairs of the said Bankrupt; and to the said Assignee making such accountant such compensation for his services as he may judge proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, for the recovery or protection of any part of the Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against George Mills, of Saint James's-Street, Westminster, in the County of Middlesex, Bookseller, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Saturday the 12th day of July next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, on several important matters, arising out of the estate of the said Bankrupt; and particularly to assent to or dissent from the adoption of such measures as will authorise and empower the Assignees of the said Bankrupt (if they shall deem it expedient), out of the assets of the said estate, to pay off and satisfy the several mortgages made by the said Bankrupt to Mr. James Adams, to Mr. William Vines, to Mr. James Sadler, and to the Trustees of Mr. Thomas Sandys and wife, or so much and such part or parts of the said several mortgages as they shall think proper, and to indemnify such proceedings of the said Assignees, by or out of the proceeds of the said estate, as far as the same will extend; and also as to the expediency of authorising and empowering the Assignees to sell and dispose of the said mortgaged estates, in such lots, and in such manner, either by releasing the equity of redemption to the several mortgagees, or otherwise disposing of such estates by public auction or private contract; and, in like manner, to sell and dispose of any other part or portion of the said Bankrupt's estate, as the said Assignees shall deem expedient; and also to assent to or dissent from the expediency of authorising and empowering the said Assignees to indemnify (as they the said Assignees shall think fit) all or any of the purchasers of the freehold estates of the said Bankrupt against a fee farm rent running over and issuing and payable thereout, and against all other incumbrances affecting the same, with a view of facilitating the sale or sales of any small lots which may be sold as aforesaid, and for that purpose to save harmless and indemnify the said Assignees in all proceedings they may adopt under the direction of the said Creditors, out of the assets of the said Bankrupt's estate, as far as the same will extend; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing the said Bankrupt, either jointly with, or in lieu of, any other