

or any part thereof; by public auction or private contract, to such person or persons, and for such price or prices as the said Assignees shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees accepting an offer, which will be made at the meeting, on behalf of Mr. William John Barker, the late Partner of the said Bankrupt, for the purchase of the interest of the said Bankrupt in the lease, fixtures, furniture, book debts, and other effects which were in and about the house and premises at Stoke Newington, where the said Bankrupt and the said William John Barker carried on the business of Schoolmasters in Partnership together, and the good will of the said business, so far as the said Assignees can assign the same; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees compounding with any debtor or debtors to the said Bankrupt's estate, and taking any reasonable part of the debts in discharge of the whole, or giving time and taking such security for the payment of such debts as they may think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the submitting any dispute between them and any persons, concerning any matter relating to the said Bankrupt's estate, to the determination of arbitrators, to be chosen by them and the party with whom they shall have such dispute, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto as to the said Assignees shall think proper; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Dickon Wyrill, now or late of Methley, in the County of York, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 17th day of July next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Old Elephant, in Pontefract in the said County, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of all or any part of the said Bankrupt's freehold, copyhold, or leasehold estates, either together or in lots, and by public auction or by private contract, or in any other manner, as they may think proper, with the consent and concurrence of the mortgagee or mortgagees of the same respectively, or any part thereof, for such price or prices as they shall think fit, and, if necessary, from time to time at such auction or auctions to buy in and afterwards resell the same freehold, copyhold, and leasehold estates, or any part thereof, at such time and times, and in such manner as the said Assignees shall think fit, without being answerable or accountable for any loss or diminution in price at any such resale, or for any expences which may be occasioned by any such buying in and resale; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees giving such time or times, and accepting such security for the payment of the consideration money as they shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees in the first place either paying or discharging, out of the moneys to be made by the sale or sales of the said estates respectively, as well the principal and interest money due to the mortgagee or mortgagees thereof, or of any part thereof respectively, or otherwise permitting so much of the said moneys, to be produced by the aforesaid sales, as shall be sufficient to discharge the said principal and interest moneys respectively, to be received by such mortgagee or mortgagees respectively from the purchasers of the same estates respectively, or any part thereof; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees reimbursing themselves the expences of advertising the said property, and attending the sale or sales thereof; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending, discontinuing or referring to arbitration, any action or suit at law or in equity, for the recovery or preservation of any part of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any debt or debts due to the estate of the said Bankrupt, or any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt, awarded and issued forth against Joseph Harrop, of Grasscroft, in Saddleworth, in the County of York, Clothier, Dealer and Chapman (trading under the firm of James Harrop and Son), are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Wednesday the 16th day of July next, at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Commercial Inn, at Upper-Mill, in Saddleworth aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing, either by public auction or private contract, together or in lots, for such price or prices, and at such time and place as they shall think fit, of the residue of the real and personal estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; and to the putting up by public auction, or buying in, the real and personal estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, or any part or parts thereof, at any such auction, and reselling the same at any future auction, or by private contract, without being liable to any loss or diminution in price at such resale, and to the said Assignees giving such time or times, and accepting such security or securities for payment of the consideration moneys for the same respectively as they shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying or allowing to any accountant, or other person they may think requisite to be employed in the superintendance and management of the said business, or in the sale and disposition of the real and personal estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, or in the investigation of the accounts, and collecting in the debts of the said Bankrupt, a reasonable compensation for his or their trouble and attention for doing the same; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees entering into a compromise with any debtor or debtors to the estate of the said Bankrupt, for or in respect to the payment of his or their debt or debts, and to allow time for the payment thereof as the said Assignees shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, or any proceedings, for the recovery, protection, or defence of the said Bankrupt's estate or effects, or any part or parts thereof; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and also to assent to or dissent from the confirmation and allowance of all and whatsoever the said Assignees may have heretofore done, touching or concerning the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; and generally to authorise the said Assignees to act for the benefit of the estate of the said Bankrupt in such manner as to them shall seem most beneficial; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on 24th the day of June 1828, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act by JOHN SWAIN, of Castle Ditch, in the Castle Precincts, in the City of Bristol and County of the same City, Victualler, that he is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.
