

FREDERICK PRINCE'S ASSIGNMENT.

WHEREAS Frederick Prince, of Leeds, in the County of York, Stone-Mason and Builder, hath, by indentures of lease, release and assignment, bearing date respectively the 10th and 11th days of August instant, assigned over all his real and personal estate and effects, whatsoever and wheresoever, unto William Preston, of Leeds aforesaid, Blue Slate-Merchant, and John Smith, of the same place, Joiner, in trust, for themselves and all other the Creditors of the said Frederick Prince, who shall come in and execute the same within two months from the date thereof; notice is therefore hereby given, that the said deed of release and assignment bears date, and was executed by him, the said Frederick Prince, and the said William Preston and John Smith, on the said 11th day of August instant, and as to the execution thereof by all the said several parties is witnessed by Thomas Robinson, of Leeds aforesaid, Solicitor, and George Lee Flockton, his Clerk. And further notice is hereby given, that the said deed of assignment now lies at the Office of the said Thomas Robinson, in the Saddle-Yard, in Briggate, in Leeds aforesaid, for the inspection and execution of the Creditors of the said Frederick Prince; and that such of them as shall neglect or refuse to execute the same, within the time above mentioned, will be excluded all benefit arising therefrom.—Dated this 12th day of August 1828.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, by certain indentures of lease and appointment, and release and assignment, the indenture of lease bearing date the 18th, and the indentures of appointment and release and assignment bearing date the 19th, days of August 1828, James Cranstone, of Worthing, in the County of Sussex, Plasterer, did appoint, grant, release, convey, and assign all and singular his real and personal estate and effects; whatsoever and wheresoever, unto Edwin Hammond Fuller, of Paborough, in the said County, Shopkeeper, and Edward Stanford, of Worthing aforesaid, Tailor and Draper, their heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns (subject to certain mortgages on his real estate), upon trust, for the equal benefit of themselves and all the other Creditors of the said James Cranstone, who should execute the said indentures of assignment, or assent thereto, within two calendar months next ensuing the date thereof; and that the same indentures of lease and appointment, and release and assignment, were respectively duly executed by the said James Cranstone, Edwin Hammond Fuller, and Edward Stanford, on the said 19th day of August, in the presence of, and such respective executions thereof were duly attested by, William Tribe, of Worthing aforesaid, Attorney at Law, and Henry H. Harris, of the same place, his Clerk.—And notice is hereby further given, that the said indenture of assignment now lies at the Office of the said William Tribe, in Worthing aforesaid, for the signatures of such of the Creditors of the said James Cranstone as shall elect to execute the same, within the time above mentioned.—And all persons to whom the said James Cranstone stands indebted, are required forthwith to send an account of their respective demands to the said William Tribe; and all persons indebted to the said James Cranstone are required, within fourteen days from the date hereof, to pay the amount of their respective debts to the said William Tribe, otherwise legal proceedings will be had to enforce payment of the same.—Dated this 22d day of August 1828.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Lancaster, of Leeds, in the County of York, Ironmonger, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignee of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Saturday the 20th day of September next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the Office of Mr. T. F. Foden, Solicitor, in Leeds aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling and disposing, either by public auction, private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, valuation, or otherwise, as he in his discretion may think proper, of all or any part of the stock in trade, fixtures, household furniture, estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, to any person or persons whomsoever, for ready money or upon credit, and upon such security, or otherwise, as the said Assignee may think most advisable; and also to assent to the said Assignee being paid and allowed, out of the funds of the said Bankrupt's estate, a reasonable compensation for his services as provisional and general Assignee in managing, conducting, and winding up the affairs of the said estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee settling, adjusting, or compounding any debt or debts, sum or sums of money due or owing to the said Bankrupt's estate; or submitting to arbitration any account, debt, demand, difference, matter, or dispute concerning the same; or to the said Assignee commencing, prosecuting, compounding, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part or parts of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Radley Mott, by the name and description of William Radley Mott, late of Brighthelmston, in the County of Sussex (but now a prisoner for debt in the King's-Bench Prison), Builder, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 15th day of September next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Old Ship Tavern, in Brighthelmston aforesaid, to make such order as may appear to them proper respecting the costs of defending actions brought by the said Bankrupt against his Assignees, and the Messenger and petitioning Creditors, and the petitions to supersede the Commission; also to take into consideration certain proceedings commenced and prosecuted by the said Bankrupt, and to adopt such means of resisting the same, and such proceedings against the said Bankrupt as the Creditors at such meeting shall deem necessary; and also to take into consideration, and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees adopting or rejecting certain contracts or agreements entered into by the said Bankrupt for the purchase of land or ground and premises, in the Parish of Brighthelmston aforesaid; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling, by public sale or private contract, the real and personal estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; and to the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, concerning the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Dormer Gilbert and Thomas Gilbert, of Leadenhall-Street, in the City of London, Opticians, Dealers and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on Saturday the 30th day of August instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees taking out of the hands of Messrs. Allston and Hundleby, Solicitors, of Freeman's-Court, Cornhill, in the said City of London, or redeeming a certain instrument or instruments lodged or deposited with them by the said Bankrupts, previously to their Bankruptcy, for the purpose of securing a certain bill of costs then about to be incurred by the said Bankrupts for convening numerous meetings of the Creditors of the said Bankrupts, and for certain deeds and other documents and attendances prepared and made by the said Messrs. Allston and Hundleby, by the direction of the said Creditors, and in pursuance of the resolutions and directions agreed upon and given at such meetings as aforesaid, and for other matters and things, to be mentioned at such meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying and discharging such bill of costs; and also to empower the said Assignees to compound for, or submit to arbitration, any claim or demand to be had or made by the said Assignees in respect of the estate of the said Bankrupts; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against George Mills, of Saint James's-Street, Westminster, in the County of Middlesex, Bookstaller, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Saturday the 13th day of September next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, on several important matters arising out of the estate of the said Bankrupt; and particularly to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees changing the mortgage on certain freehold property, situate at Bromley, in the said County of Middlesex, for a certain sum, to be mentioned at the said meeting, lent by the Trustees of Mr. Thomas Sandys and wife to the said Bankrupt, for the purposes to be mentioned at such meeting; and for the purpose of enabling the said Assignees so to change such mortgage, to authorise and empower the said Assignees to enter into personal covenants for the payment of
