

Justice, sole Judge of the Vice-Admiralty Court of the Colony of Barbice and its dependencies, &c. &c. &c. dated the 21st April 1828;

I, the undersigned, at the instance of F. A. Spangenberg and J. B. Walraven, in quality as deliberating Executors to the last will and testament of the late J. P. Broer, deceased, do hereby, for the first time, summon by edict all known and unknown creditors and claimants, as well in this Colony as in Europe, against the estate of afore-named Jacobus Philipus Broer, deceased, as also against his plantation, called Scotland or Broer's Lust, to appear before the Bar of the Honourable the Court of Civil Justice of this Colony, at their Session, to be held on Monday the 20th day of October 1828, and following days, for the purpose of there rendering in their respective claims, properly substantiated and in due form and time, as well against the estate of said J. P. Broer, deceased, as against his plantation, called Scotland or Broer's Lust; whereas in default of which, and after the expiration of the fourth and last edictal summons, will be proceeded against the non-appearsers according to law.

This first summons by edict published as customary.—Barbice, the 28th April 1828.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

[Inserted by Mr. A. J. Guitard, Notary Public, 27, Birchinn-Lane, London.]
