

[1952]

TAKE NOTICE;

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given to the said Prisoner, in writing, three clear days before the day of hearing, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of giving such notice and of the said day of hearing.

2. But, in the case of a Prisoner, whom his Creditors have removed, by an order of the Court, from a gaol in or near London for hearing in the country, such notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

3. The petition and schedule will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, at the Office of the Court in London, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, between the hours of Ten and Four; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 76.

N. B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-Street, Lincoln's-Inn-Fields.

4. The duplicate of the petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced for inspection and examination by the Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other person with whom the same shall have been directed to be lodged for such purpose, at the Office of such Clerk of the Peace or other person; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be there provided according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 77, or the Act, 5 Geo. 4, c. 61, sec. 11, as the case may be.

THE Creditors of William Whitney, late of Woodhurst, in the County of Huntingdon, Farmer and Corn-Dealer, lately discharged from the Gaol of Huntingdon, in the County of Huntingdon, under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament of the seventh George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend and consolidate the Laws for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England," are requested to meet the Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Insolvent, at the House of Charles Green, known by the sign of the Royal Oak, at Saint Ives, in the said County, on the 24th day of November next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, when and where the Assignee will be prepared to declare the amount of balance in his hands, and proceed to declare a Dividend thereof amongst the Creditors of the said Insolvent, whose debts are admitted in the schedule sworn to by the said Insolvent, subject to such correction of the rights to receive Dividends as may be made according to the provisions of the said Act.—If any person intends to claim a debt beyond the amount admitted in the schedule to be due to him, or if the said Insolvent, Assignee, or any Creditor, intends to object to any debt admitted therein, such claims and objections must be brought forward at the said meeting, in order that they be duly enquired into and determined according to the said Act.

NOTICE is hereby given to the Creditors of Robert Haynes the younger, formerly residing in Hills-Bridge-Place, in the Parish of Saint Mary, Radcliff, in the City of Bristol, and afterwards at Radcliff-Parade, in the said Parish and City, Gentleman, and who on the 3d day of June 1814 obtained his discharge from the Gaol of the City of Bristol, under and by virtue of an Act passed in the 54th year of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for the Relief of certain Insolvent Debtors in England," that the Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Robert Haynes the younger will attend at the Office of Mr. W. R. James, Solicitor, 23, Ely-Place, London, on the 28th day of November next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, for the purpose of making a further dividend of the said Insolvent's estate; and all Creditors intending to take the benefit of such dividend are to be then and there prepared with proof of their debts, pursuant to the said Act of Parliament.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a meeting of the Creditors of Francis Newson, late of Ipswich, in the County of Suffolk, Master Mariner, an Insolvent Debtor, a prisoner confined for debt in the King's Bench Prison, under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the seventh year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled, "An Act to amend and consolidate the Laws for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England," will be held on Saturday the 8th day of November next, at Nine of the Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at my Office, No. 55, Cannon-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the allowance to the said Assignee of certain expences already and to be hereafter incurred by him, and which will be particularized at the said meeting; also to authorize the said Assignee to compromise a certain claim made by a person, to be named at the said meeting, upon certain securities relating to the said Insolvent's estate and effects, upon the best terms that he may be able to effect the same, and to commence an action at law or a suit in equity against such party, for recovery thereof, if he should think proper so to do; also to authorise the said Assignee to commence any action or actions, suit or suits against any other person or persons, or otherwise to compound or submit to arbitration, or to agree to any matter or thing relating to the recovery of any part of the said Insolvent's estate and effects.

C. B. TEAGUE, Attorney for the said Assignee.
