

the Third, intituled "An Act for rebuilding the parish church of Saint Paul, Covent-garden, within the liberty of Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, and the vestry-rooms belonging thereto, for repairing and reinstating the iron rails inclosing the scite of the said church and the gates leading thereto, and for making several regulations relating to the said parish;" and also another Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifty-first year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for amending an Act of King Charles the Second, for making the precinct of Covent-garden parochial, and for increasing the stipends of the rector, curate, clerk, and sextons of the said parish;" and all other Acts of Parliament exclusively relating to the said parish; and also to authorise and empower the rate payers of the said parish annually to elect a committee, to consist of a certain number of the said rate payers, with a certain qualification, being resident householders of the said parish, to regulate, direct, and manage certain affairs relating to the said parish, and to regulate the manner of voting at parish or vestry meetings to be held in and for the said parish; and for giving powers to alter the several rates, assessments, and duties authorised by the above several Acts, or any of them, or to make any new rate or rates, assessment or assessments instead and in lieu thereof; and also to give powers for the paving or better paving, lighting, watching, repairing, cleansing, improving, watering; and regulating of the roads, streets, courts, alleys, ways, and places already existing, or hereafter to be formed and made, within the said parish of Saint Paul, Covent-garden; and for removing nuisances, annoyances, obstructions, and encroachments therein or thereon; and likewise to give powers for the making, assessing, collecting, managing, and regulating of the poor rates and other assessments of the said parish, and the government, maintenance, and employment of the poor thereof; and for making any new rate or rates, assessment or assessments, for and within the said parish, in such manner as may be necessary for all or any of the purposes aforesaid and relating to the general regulation of the affairs of the said parish; and finally, for the better management of the whole of the affairs of the said parish.

Jas. Phillips, Solicitor, 36, Bedford-street, Covent-garden.

CONTRACT FOR FIR TIMBER.

Navy-Office, October 23, 1828.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 6th of November next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's Dock-yards at Chatham and Plymouth with

- 600 Loads of Riga Timber;
- 600 Loads of Dantzic or Memel Timber; and
- 600 Loads of Canada Red Pine Timber;

to be delivered within the present year, according to a distribution which, together with a form of the tender, may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £1800, for the due performance of the contract.

J. W. Morton, Deputy Secretary.

CONTRACTS FOR BROWN SHEATHING PAPER AND TIME GLASSES.

Navy-Office, October 23, 1828.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 6th of November next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying the under-mentioned articles, namely:

Imperial Cap or Brown Sheathing Paper, to be delivered at His Majesty's Dock-yards at Deptford, Woolwich, Chatham, and Sheerness; and Half Watch and other Glasses, to be delivered at the two former Yards only.

Patterns of the articles and forms of the tenders may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter, addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £300, for the due performance of the contract for paper, and in the sum of £100, for the contract for time glasses.

J. W. Morton, Deputy Secretary.

CONTRACT FOR AIRING STOVES.

Navy-Office, October 23, 1828.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 13th of November next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's Dock-yards at Deptford and Woolwich with Airing Stoves.

A form of the tender may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter, addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £500, for the due performance of the contract.

J. W. Morton, Deputy Secretary.

Office of Ordnance, Pall-Mall; October 20, 1828.

CONTRACTS FOR PAVIORS' AND SLATERS' WORK.

PERSONS who may be willing to contract for the performance of the work required by the Honourable the Board of Ordnance, in either of the