

the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing, by public sale or private contract as they shall think fit, of the household goods, fixtures, and other effects of the said Bankrupt, upon such terms as they shall deem expedient; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing or joining with the mortgagee or mortgagees in selling and disposing, or redeeming, and afterwards selling and disposing, either by public sale or private contract as they shall think fit, and at such price or prices as shall be thought fair and reasonable, of the said Bankrupt's freehold estates situate at Legburn aforesaid, and buying in at such sale or sales the whole or any part of such freehold estate, at such price or prices as they may think proper, and from time to time offering and disposing of the same again for sale in manner aforesaid; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing such person or persons as they shall think advisable, at the expense of the said Bankrupt's estate, to collect the outstanding debts due to the said Bankrupt, and making such remuneration in respect thereof as they shall deem fair and reasonable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees compounding with or giving time to, or taking security from, any debtor or debtors to the said Bankrupt's estate, and submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any dispute, matter, or thing in any wise relating to the said Bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, or presenting any petition to the Lord Chancellor for the recovery or protection of any part or parts of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, or otherwise in relation thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Osborne and John Kinlon Richards, (trading under the firm of Osborne, Richards and Co.) of Lombard-Street, in the City of London, Engravers, Dealers, Chapmen and Co-partners, are requested to meet the Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on Wednesday the 10th day of December next, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee disposing of the said Bankrupts' furniture to them, at a fair and reasonable valuation to be made by appraisement; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee paying certain costs, charges and expences incurred by the Creditors previous to the Bankruptcy, in employing a Solicitor and accountant; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee employing an accountant and any other person he may think proper, to arrange and make up the Bankrupts' accounts; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits in equity, or any action or actions at law, for the recovery, getting in, defending, or protecting any part of the said Bankrupts' estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto, or any part thereof; and on other special matters and affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Friend, of the City of Bristol, Maltster, Cornfactor, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet on Wednesday the 10th day of December next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Offices of Messrs. Cary and Cross, No. 15, Corn-Street, Bristol, to decide upon accepting or refusing such offer of composition as was made to the Creditors assembled at a meeting held at the Offices of Mr. John Henry Frankis, Exchange-Buildings, Bristol, on the 11th day of November instant, by the said John Friend.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt, awarded and issued forth against Jane Sonntag Tate, of Bold-Street, Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, Milliner and Shopkeeper, Dealer and Chapwoman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Wednesday the 10th day of December next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of, either by public auction or private contract, and upon personal or other security, all or any part of the Bankrupt's stock in trade, household furniture, and such of the debts due to the said Bankrupt as the said Assignees may think proper to dispose of, and other her effects; selling and disposing of in like manner, the lease of the house in Bold-Street, Liverpool, held by the said Bankrupt, or giving up the same as the said Assignees shall think fit; appointing agents abroad at the risk and expense of the estate, to collect any property or debts belonging or owing to the Bankrupt, and remit the same to the Assignees; employing an agent or agents to collect the debts and sell the property of the Bankrupt in England, paying or making to him or them such commission or compensation for his or their trouble as the said Assignees shall think reasonable; continuing to employ the accountant who has been already employed, or any other accountant, or other person the Assignees may think proper, to examine and investigate the Bankrupt's accounts and transactions, and making him such remuneration for his past and future trouble as the said Assignees shall think reasonable; paying in full out of the Bankrupt's estate, the wages due to her servants, or work-people, and all such charges and expences incurred by Creditors and others in endeavouring to arrange the Bankrupt's affairs previous to the issuing of the Commission as the said Assignees shall think proper to pay; and giving up to the said Bankrupt certain prints and drawings, and any part of her household furniture, not exceeding in value a sum to be determined upon at the meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, and defending any action at law, or suit in equity, for the recovery or protection of the Bankrupt's estate, or any part thereof; and compromising or submitting to arbitration, any debt or debts due to the said Bankrupt's estate, or any dispute, claim, or demand relating to or upon the said estate; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 14th day of November 1828, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by JONATHAN THOMPSON, late of Great Quebec-Street, in the Parish of Mary-le-Bone, in the County of Middlesex, Merchant, that he is in insolvent circumstances and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.
