The Lord Chancellor has appointed Charles John Palmer, of Great Yarmouth, in the county of Norfolk, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, November 20, 1828

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on Thursday the 9th day of October last, the premises of Mr. W. B. Cranfield, New Farm, Beckenham, in the county of Kent, were wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil disposed person or persons unknown:

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by the said Mr. W. B. Cranfield and the Managers of the Sun Office, London, jointly.

Admiralty-Office, November 17, 1828.

THIS is to give notice, that Nathaniel Wye Lee, of Ilfracombe, in the county of Devon, Esq. hath, in pursuance of the Act of the 46th Geo. 3, cap. 153, given me notice, dated the 15th instant, of his intention to construct, in the harbour of Ilfracombe, a jetty; such jetty not to project into the said harbour more than seven feet five inches, nor to exceed sixty-five feet in breadth.

John Barrow.
