

Watney the younger, in the said parish of Wandsworth, and passing through the several parishes of Wandsworth, Battersea, Clapham, and St. Mary Lambeth, to or near to a certain place called the Nine Elms, in the parish of Battersea aforesaid, and also for supplying with water the parishes and townships of St. Olave, St. John, St. George the Martyr, St. Saviour, and St. Thomas, in the borough of Southwark, and county of Surrey, and the parishes of St. Mary Lambeth, St. Giles's Camberwell, St. Mary Rotherhithe, Christchurch, St. Mary Newington, St. Mary Magdalen Bermondsey, Dockhead, and Horsleydown, the Clink liberty, Clapham, Walworth, Streatham, Blackman-street, in the borough of Southwark, Vauxhall and Stockwell, and other places in the East half-hundred of Brixton, in the county of Surrey, Wandsworth, Tooting, Battersea, and Putney, and the several places adjacent or contiguous thereto, in the West half-hundred of Brixton, in the said county of Surrey; and to authorize the receipt of rates of the same, and for incorporating a joint-stock company under the name and title of "The Surrey Water-Works Company." And it is also intended to take power by the said Act to authorize the taking and purchasing of lands, and to construct steam or other engines to complete the several works connected with or relating to the said undertaking, and other proper and effectual powers relating thereto.—Dated this 10th day of November 1828.

Jno. S. Burn, 45, Lothbury, Solicitor for the Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill, in order to obtain an Act of Parliament for erecting and maintaining a bridge across the River Thames, from Church-street, in the parish of St. Mary, Lambeth, in the county of Surrey, to Market-street, Horseferry-road, in the parish of St. John the Evangelist, within the city and liberty of Westminster; and for making all necessary roads and approaches to and from the said bridge; and for opening, forming, making, and maintaining a new street, or way, from Church-street aforesaid, near to and including a certain house there, called or known by the name or sign of the White Lion public-house, in the occupation of Isabella Lockett, widow, and passing thence southward in or nearly in a straight line across Ferry-street, Swaby's-alley, George-yard, Harper's-walk, King's Head-yard, Brother's-row, Black Boy-alley, Bear-yard, otherwise called Windmill-court, Crockets-alley, and Fair Cloth-court, to and ending in Broad-street, Lambeth Butts, in the said parish of St. Mary, Lambeth; and that it is intended by such Act to take powers for the sale and purchase of the several tenements, lands, wharfs, hereditaments, and premises situate and lying within the boundaries or limits hereinafter next mentioned—that is to say, commencing with and including the wharf and premises in the occupation of Messrs. William Neck and Company, at the north-western corner of Lower Fore-street, and extending southward along the bank of the River Thames to the Drawing Dock at the end of Broad-street, Lambeth Butts aforesaid, then running in a straight line eastward, and including the whole of the north side of the Drawing Dock and Broad-street aforesaid, to and including the house in the occupation of Robert M'Ghie, and thence in a straight line northward to and ending in Church-street aforesaid, and including the house in the occupation of Jacob Levy. In which said circuit or space is included part of Fair Cloth-court, part of Crockets-alley, part of Bear-yard, otherwise called Windmill-court, part of Black Boy-alley, part of Brother's-row, part of King's Head-yard, part of Harper's-walk, part of George-yard, part of Swaby's-alley, and part of Ferry-street, severally before mentioned; also for directing, altering, widening, and improving Princes-street, in the said parish of St. Mary Lambeth, commencing at Broad-street aforesaid, and running in, or nearly in, a straight line southward to, and ending in, Vauxhall-row; and that it is intended by such Act to take powers for the sale and purchase of the whole, or such parts of the houses, yards, hereditaments, and premises, in Princes-street aforesaid, as may interfere with or intercept such widening, improving, and alterations therein; and also for the stopping up, diverting, altering, widening, and improving of such of the present streets, courts, yards, entrances, ways, or passages, or of such parts thereof respectively, and as may form entrances into, or may interfere with the said intended new street, or intended improvements and alterations in Princes-street aforesaid, or as may be deemed necessary or expedient for the purposes of such Act; and for opening, forming, making, and maintaining a new line of road from the Horseferry-road, in the parish of St. John, Westminster aforesaid, in a direct line westward, crossing garden-ground at the back of the Grey-coat school, into and across Rochester-row, over the present site of Foffhill-fields Bridewell, and from thence across garden-ground and premises called Palmer's Village, or near thereto, into and across Castle-lane, near to Henry-street or place; and then across William-street into, and ending at, Stafford-place, Piculico, in the county of Middlesex; and for power to purchase and use any lands, grounds, houses, erections, buildings, tenements, wharfs, and hereditaments which may be deemed necessary and convenient for the making and constructing such roads and approaches to the said intended new bridge; which said bridge, and such new street, roads, and approaches, and all such streets, courts, yards, entrances, ways, and passages so intended to be stopped up, diverted, altered, widened, and improved for the purposes of the said intended Act, will pass from, through, and into, and are situate within the several parishes of St. Mary Lambeth, in the county of Surrey, and St. John the Evangelist and St. Margaret, within the city and liberty of Westminster, in the county of Middlesex.—Dated this 7th day of November 1828.

Godfrey Goddard, Solicitor, 21, Thavies-Inn, Holborn.

NOTICE is hereby given, that an application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to enable the Company of Proprietors of the East London Water-works, incorporated by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the forty-seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for better supplying with water the inha-