

bitants of the parishes of Stratford Bow, otherwise Stratford-le-Bow, St. John Hackney, St. Mary Islington, St. Matthew Bethnal-green, and several other parishes, hamlets, townships, and places adjacent, or near thereunto, in the counties of Middlesex and Essex; to take water from the River Lea, between Lea-bridge-mills, in the parish of St. John, at Hackney, and Old-Ford-lock, in the parish of St. Mary Stratford Bow, in the county of Middlesex, and to make and maintain reservoirs, cuts, canals, aqueducts, feeders, engines, sluices, weirs, tunnels, shafts, culverts, pipes, trunks, and other works for that purpose, and for the purposes of the said Act of the forty-seventh year of His said late Majesty, which said reservoirs, cuts, canals, aqueducts, feeders, engines, sluices, weirs, tunnels, shafts, culverts, pipes, trunks, and other works are intended to be made, laid, and constructed in the said parishes of St. John, at Hackney, and St. Mary, Stratford Bow; and also to alter and further amend the said Act of the forty-seventh year of the reign of His said late Majesty; and also an Act made and passed in the forty-eighth year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to enable the Company of Proprietors of the East London Water Works, to purchase certain other water works, and to amend the said Act of the forty-seventh year of the reign of His said late Majesty."—Dated this 6th day of November 1828.

Thos. Nelson Pickering, Clerk to the Company of Proprietors of the East London Water Works, No. 16, St. Helen's-place, Bishopsgate-street.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament at the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill, and obtain an Act, to authorise a company of subscribers to establish a market for the sale and purchase of oxen, cows, calves, sheep, pigs, horses, hay, and every other description of cattle or live stock and marketable commodities in the parishes of Saint Pancras and Hamstead, in the county of Middlesex; and also to establish another and similar market in the parish of Saint Mary, Battersea, in the county of Surrey; and that it is intended to take power by the said Act to demand, levy, and take reasonable and proper tolls, rates, or duties for and on all oxen, cows, calves, sheep, pigs, horses, hay, and every other marketable commodity exposed for sale in the said markets, or either of them; and that it is likewise intended to take power to erect, build, set up, and make all such stables, stalls, lofts, granaries, sheds, houses, pens, out-houses, slaughter-houses, and other buildings as may be needful or convenient; and that it is likewise intended to take power to make, dig, lay, cut, sink, and erect all necessary reservoirs, engines, pumps, drains, soughs, pipes, culverts, and water-courses, and to supply the same with water at all times, and to complete the drainage therefrom in such way as shall be thought necessary; and that it is likewise intended to take power to make, dig, cut, and form all necessary and convenient roads, paths, ways, and approaches to and from the said markets respectively; and that it is likewise intended to take power to purchase all such houses, lands, tenements, hereditaments, or premises as may be requisite or useful for the said markets respectively, in the said parishes respectively or elsewhere; and that it is likewise intended to take power to let for hire any part or parts of the said respective markets and premises, or to use the same by the said company of subscribers, or any of them, or their agents, for all lawful purposes; and that it is intended to take power to make bye-laws, if necessary, for the government and regulation of the said respective markets; and that by the said Act a joint stock company will be incorporated, by the name of the Metropolitan Market Company, with all other needful and necessary powers, provisions, and enactments.—And notice is hereby also given, that it will be proposed to be enacted in and by the said Act, that from and after a certain period from the passing thereof and the establishment of the said markets and completion of the said works, the market for cattle and other commodities, called West Smithfield, situate, lying, and being in the city of London, and parishes of Saint Bartholomew the Great, Saint Bartholomew the Less, and Saint Sepulchre within, or some or one of them, and in the Ward of Farringdon Without, shall cease and be abolished, and that no market of the description above mentioned shall be established, held, or erected by any authority whatsoever, within a certain number of miles from a spot or place to be described by the said Act.—And notice is hereby also given, that powers and provisions are intended to be inserted in the said Act, enabling the said company to enter into such covenants, regulations, and agreements, and to do and perform all such matters and things as shall be requisite or expedient for building upon and otherwise converting the present site of the said cattle market, called West Smithfield, into a spacious and convenient market for dead meat, vegetables, or other commodities, in such manner and way as shall be considered most eligible for the benefit of the inhabitants of the metropolis.—November 6, 1828.
